

BARCELONA...3
MAN UTD.....0

Magic Messi ends Ole's
Euro dream
SEE SPORT

The hero of Notre Dame revealed

SEE PAGES 6&7

BRAVE Fr Fournier

DEVASTATION
Charred debris
in the cathedral

IRELAND FOOTBALL SCANDAL

FAI MONEY PROBE

Cops to be called in as board steps down

BY FERGHAL BLANEY
CORPORATE watchdog cops must immediately head for FAI headquarters to probe its finances, TDs have demanded.
The call came as it emerged the entire board is to step down with auditors revealing the association's books are not in order.
After learning of Deloitte's damning findings, Sport Ireland chairman Kieran Mulvey said: "This changes everything."

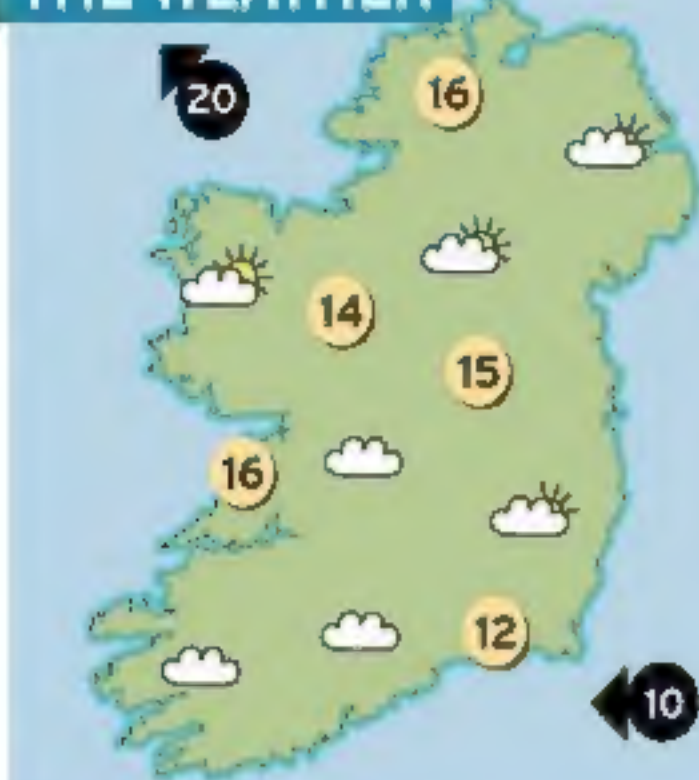

Outraged Sports Committee members want a "forensic report" to be carried out by the Office of the Director of Corporate Enforcement. Their call was echoed by Taoiseach Leo Varadkar, who said: "Investigations are necessary. The objective must be to restore confidence in how the FAI is being run."

SEE PAGES 4&5

EYE OF
THE STORM
FAI offices

THE WEATHER

TODAY Dry with spells of sunshine. Moderate winds

A dry day with plenty of cloud. Ulster will be overcast for much of the day before some late sunshine. Elsewhere, it will start largely cloudy, although sunny spells will develop in the late afternoon. Moderate southeasterly winds.

OUTLOOK Dry, largely sunny and increasingly warm

Tomorrow will be dry and sunny with patchy cloud in the north and south. Friday will be dry and warm with long spells of sunshine.

HIGH WATER: Belfast (10.17, 22.53) Dublin (10.52, 23.24) Galway (04.19, 16.47) London Bridge (00.39, 13.10) Liverpool (10.22, 22.53) Aberdeen (00.31, 12.41) Cardiff (06.11, 18.43)

ABROAD

	C	F		C	F
Amsterdam	S	14 57	Las Palmas	S	21 70
Athens	F	15 59	Madrid	F	18 64
Barcelona	F	17 63	Malaga	S	17 63
Benidorm	F	19 66	Malta	S	17 63
Biarritz	S	15 59	Miami	C	28 82
Costa Brava	C	15 59	Nice	F	16 61
Crete	C	16 61	Paris	DR	11 52
Ibiza	C	17 63	Sydney	F	22 72
Larnaca	SH	20 68	Tenerife	S	21 70

S Sun, C Cloud, F Fair, SH Shower, II Rain, DR Drizzle, FG Fog, SN Snow, TH Thunder

SUNRISE: 06.01 SUNSET: 20.00

WARMEST: Belmullet 16C (61F)

COLDEST: Lough Fea 7C (45F)

WETTEST: Johnstown Castle 0.59ins

SUNNIEST: Sherkin Island 9.4hrs

ACROSS

- 2 Thick and stout (6)
5 Exclamation of surprise (4)
6 Igloo dweller (6)
7 Prejudice (4)
8 Concession (3)
11 Borrowed sum (4)
13 Minor matters (6)
14 Composer - Novello (4)
15 High-kicking Parisian dance (6)

DOWN

- 1 Asian desert (4)
2 West End musical (5)
3 Jimmy -, actor (4)
4 Tower of London guardians (6)
7 European sea (6)
9 Clear (5)
10 Potter's oven (4)
12 Declare (4)

TUESDAY'S SOLUTIONS ACROSS: 6 Maori, 7 Kin, 11 Agreement, 13 Implicate, 18 Emu, 19 Irate. DOWN: 1 Emma, 2 Dour, 3 Five, 4 Skye, 5 Gnat, 10 Eel, 11 Mac, 12 Net, 13 Ibex, 14 Pout, 15 Iris, 16 Atlas, 17 Epee.

Brought to you by

4-PAGE PUZZLE PULLOUT INSIDE

GRIEF Wife Breda is consoled

Farewell to parade hero

MUCH-LOVED Paddy Finlay was given a unique send-off yesterday as The Monster Mash blared out before his funeral.

Better known as Paddy "Drac", he was a well-known Dublin figure who marched in the St Patrick's Day parade dressed as Dracula for 50 years.

Paddy died on Saturday after a short battle with cancer. His widow Breda led mourners at St Dominic's Church in Tallaght.

TRIBUTE Paddy Finlay's funeral in Dublin yesterday

BROADBAND PLAN AT €3BN

BY MICHELLE DEVANE and SAORSE McGARRIGLE

BRINGING high-speed broadband to homes and businesses in rural Ireland will cost at least €3billion, it was confirmed yesterday.

This is six times the original estimate of €500million for the National Broadband Plan.

Leo Varadkar revealed a decision on the bumper deal has now been pushed back until after Easter.

Speaking in the Dail, he said: "The Government needs to spend a little bit more time before we can bring a decision to Cabinet on this."

The Taoiseach added the cost of the project "could be in the region of €3billion, albeit spread over 25 years".

It is almost four years since the tender process began and a Granahan McCourt-led consortium is the last

Leo tells Dail of soaring bill for rural scheme tender in the bidding war. The total cost of the project was originally estimated between €355million and €512million.

But earlier this year Mr Varadkar admitted it could end up being "many multiples" of this.

Yesterday, he defended the soaring figure claiming the first valuation was for a "very different project". The Fine Gael leader insisted that plan was designed to only deliver fibre to 11,000 villages but not all rural areas.

CRITICISM Mr Howlin

He added: "It's important to point out on every occasion that it's a different project."

"Bringing fibre to villages of Ireland is not the same as bringing fibre to 540,000 homes farms, businesses in rural area."

Labour Party leader Brendan Howlin slammed the latest delay. He said: "This Government has a track record of non-delivery despite a string of high-profile launches."

And Sinn Fein claimed the scheme was "caught between a fiasco and a farce". TD Brian Stanley said it is no longer a competitive tender with just one bidder.

news@irishmirror.ie
COMMENT: PAGE 10

Arranmore island gets connected by Three

BY AILBHE DALY

AN island was connected with state-of-the-art technology yesterday.

Three Ireland launched its partnership with Arranmore, which is 5km off the coast of Donegal, which will help the local community create business and employment opportunities.

The broadband solution has also been installed in the medical centre which will allow services such as video consultations with doctors on the mainland, saving patients a four-hour round trip to Letterkenny or overnight trip to Dublin.

Eoin MacManus of Three Ireland said: "We know how connectivity can transform lives and businesses, and we are delighted to bring this connectivity to Arranmore."

It's climate to make change

CLIMATE change must be top of the agenda for the European Parliament, an MEP claimed yesterday.

Sinn Fein's Lynn Boylan said: "The next 12 years will be instrumental in determining the future of our planet."

"Ireland and the EU need to significantly step up their commitments."

Gambling up for discussion

GAMBLING regulation will be discussed by the Joint Committee on Justice and Equality today.

Chairman Caolain TD said: "In recent years there have been enormous changes including in the area of online betting."

"The regulation must move with the times."

Fishing for more funds

INLAND Fisheries Ireland announced a new funding call for 2019 yesterday, with three schemes now open.

TD Sean Canney said: "The fisheries resource should be enjoyed by all and this funding call today once more will help bring angling to the broader community."

Loans firm is outed fast..

AN unauthorised firm was outed yesterday by the Central Bank of Ireland.

Fast Loans Ireland is advertising the availability of loans on its website and is claiming to be regulated but it holds no authorisation as a retail credit firm.

There is no connection with the company whose CRO number it has cloned.

GOT A STORY?

CALL OUR NEWSDESK ON

01 868 8602/03

irishmirror.ie

PROMOTIONS (DVD, CD offers etc): 01 868 8620

RECEPTION: 01 868 8600

ADVERTISING: 01 868 8630

CIRCULATION: 01 868 8621

EMAIL: news@irishmirror.ie

TEXT: DMEDITOR followed by space and then your message to 53539. 25c per text. Max 160 characters.

SF: Phoenix, PO Box, New Langhaire, Co Dublin. Tel: 0818 217100

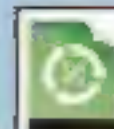

WRITE: 2nd floor, 9A Beckett Way, Park West Industrial Park, Clonsilla, Dublin 12

facebook: www.facebook.com/irishmirror

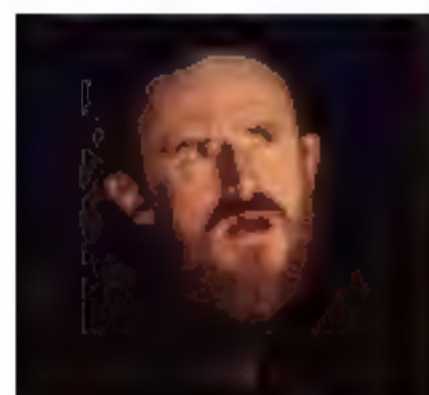

IRISH SUNDAY MIRROR: 01 868 8614

This newspaper subscribes to the Code of Practice of the Press Council of Ireland and the Press Ombudsman. A copy of the Code and further details can be obtained from: Office of the Press Ombudsman, 3 Newhall St, Floor 11, Dublin 2. Telephone: 01 454 2111. Fax: 01 454 2111. Email: info@pressombudsman.ie. www.pressombudsman.ie

Ireland's rate of newspaper recycling is now over 80%. Keep reading, keep recycling - thank you.

SO DARK Eddison Tollett Thrones fans take dim view of its lighting

EXCLUSIVE
BY TOM BRYANT

THE long-awaited final series of Game of Thrones is leaving fans in the dark – thanks to dim lighting.

The first episode drew complaints that it was too dark to watch the action.

One fan, Leon O'Sullivan, said: "There was a good two-minute period where, if there weren't subtitles saying 'Footsteps' I would have thought my TV had turned itself off."

Another annoyed viewer said: "I understand your moody thematic lighting but I can't fing see."

Most gripes were over a scene where a group led by Eddison Tollett found Lord Ned Umber dead.

The episode, in which Sansa Stark met Daenerys Targaryen, has been watched by 3.4million Sky Atlantic viewers so far.

FEELINGS Kevin & Stacey Stacey's pals 'baffled' over Kev romance

BY TOM BRYANT

STACEY Dooley's pals have said they are "baffled" by her romance with Strictly Come Dancing professional Kevin Clifton.

They felt she would be the "last person on earth" to have a Strictly romance.

One said: "Stacey thought the idea was a total cliché and a bit naïf."

"It just goes to show how strong her feelings are for Kevin to let this happen."

Photos yesterday showed Stacey, 32, and Kevin, 36, going into a Birmingham hotel minutes apart in January after he went to support Stacey on the Strictly tour in the city.

Before going on Strictly last year, Stacey laughed off its "curse" and said boyfriend Sam Tucknott, 30, "trusts me 100% and there's no reason not to".

They split in December.

LOS ANGELES

Mel B posted her bikini shot online

Spice world

Mel B rehearses on her own in LA as the rest get ready 5,400 miles away

BY TOM BRYANT
Head of Showbiz

MEL B must have been a Hot Spice out in that LA sun, but it wasn't where she would Wannabe on day one of rehearsals for the tour.

We can reveal Mel, 43, could not join the Spice Girls tour rehearsals in London as she has a US court date on Friday about her ex, Stephen Belafonte, 43.

A source said: "She'd have loved to be in London with the girls. Legal matters prevented her."

But the show must go on, so a choreographer jetted into LA from the UK to help Mel keep up with Geri Horner, 46, Mel C, 45, and Emma Bunton, 43. The source added: "The choreographer is the next best thing, making sure she's not missing out too much. Mel is determined to work hard to ensure she is in tip-top shape."

As her bandmates were put through their paces in a dance studio, Mel, who lives in LA, posted her bikini shot on Instagram. She later posted a selfie in a "humidifier" mask, used to avoid jet lag.

She wrote: "Getting vocal ready with my @humidifier this AM."

The sold-out tour – going ahead without Victoria Beckham, 44 – kicks off in Dublin on May 24.

Eyebrows were raised when Mel failed to join the London rehearsals after she claimed last month that she and Geri had slept together at the height of the group's fame.

Geri's representative said the claim was "simply not true" and had been "very hurtful to her family".

tom.bryant@mirror.co.uk
@MirrorTom

LONDON

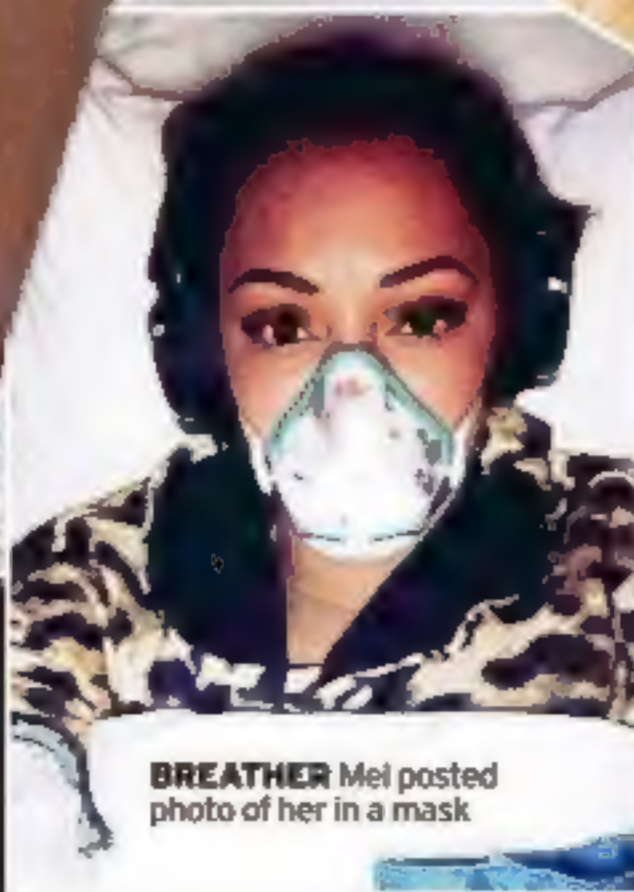

Geri sings with Sporty before having a break, below. Right, Emma makes a grand entrance

“She would have loved to be in London with the other girls

SHOWBIZ INSIDER ON MEL B'S ABSENCE

BREATHER Mel posted photo of her in a mask

COLLISION Elon Musk Nasa's €61m Armageddon style mission

BY CHRISTOPHER BUCKTIN
US Editor

NASA has awarded Elon Musk's SpaceX €61million for a potentially Earth-saving mission similar to the film Armageddon.

The US agency wants the billionaire's aerospace firm help with the first ever attempt to deflect an asteroid by crashing into it.

In scenes similar to the 1998 Bruce Willis movie, the Double Asteroid Redirection Test aims to divert objects that threaten to hit the Earth's atmosphere.

The mission is due to launch by a Falcon 9 rocket from Vandenberg Air Force Base in California in 2021.

The following year it will try to hit a 540ft moonlet travelling at 13,500mph.

Nasa said: "It will change the moonlet's speed in orbit enough to be measured by Earth telescopes."

LEGAL PAPERS Martin Coldplay star 'stalker': I do not know him

BY KEIRAN SOUTHERN

CHRIS Martin's alleged stalker has told a court she has had "no contact" with the Coldplay star.

The singer was granted a restraining order against Ariana Joyce, 42, after claiming she had been harassing him and endangering his family.

Martin lodged legal papers saying Joyce believed she was in a "romantic relationship" with him and left a package at his home in Malibu, California.

He also said she wrote notes referring to death, suicide and his children Apple, 14, and Moses, 12.

At a hearing in LA, Ms Joyce said: "I have no contact with Mr Martin and I do not know Dakota Johnson [his partner]."

The restraining order remains in place.

IRELAND SOCCER CRISIS:

FAI board

GONE

EDDIE MURRAY
Honorary Treasurer

GONE

PARAIC TREANOR
Chairman of Legal & Corporate Affairs Committee

GONE

MICK HANLEY
Chairman of the International Committee

GONE

DONAL CONWAY
FAI President

GONE?

JOHN DELANEY
CEO Football Association of Ireland

GONE

TONY FITZGERALD
Former FAI President Tony Fitzgerald

» Committee rocked by revelations from association auditor

» Body reported to authorities over account questions

» 'This changes everything' says Sport Ireland chief

BY FERGHAL BLANEY
Political Correspondent

THE entire FAI board is to step down after its auditor yesterday revealed the books are not in order.

And Taoiseach Leo Varadkar has given the soccer body a kicking by saying the Office Of The Director Of Corporate Enforcement should be on standby to investigate.

The FAI's own auditor Deloitte reported the Green Blazers to the authorities over serious concerns about transparency in the accounts.

Sport Ireland chairman Kieran Mulvey said: "This changes everything."

Funding to the FAI has been suspended by both Sport Ireland and the Department of Sport until the Association gets its house in order.

However, it was still not clear last night whether former chief John Delaney is gone for good after he offered to step aside on Monday night pending an investigation.

The calls for a team from the ODCE to make their way to Abbotstown came from Oireachtas Sport Committee members Imelda Munster from Sinn Féin, chair Fergus O'Dowd, Fine Gael's Noel Rock and others.

Mr Varadkar said: "Investigations are necessary – investigations by Sport Ireland – into the accounts and finances of FAI and it also may be necessary for the ODCE to carry out investigations under company law."

"The objective must be to restore confidence in how the FAI is being run."

The multitude of calls for accountability came after it was also confirmed a report from consultants Mazars, commissioned privately by the FAI initially, would now be made public later this summer.

But the TDs want more transparency with the ODCE conducting a full public investigation on behalf of the taxpayer and football fans all over the country.

The scandal came to light after The Sunday Times reported Mr Delaney had given the FAI a €100,000 loan in 2017.

It is understood the ODCE have been monitoring the fiasco in the FAI – and have advised Mazars – but the politicians want the full rigours of company law to be unleashed.

Ms Munster said: "The only investigations we've seen so far have been by the FAI, commissioned by the FAI, for the FAI."

"Sport Ireland have been sitting back letting the FAI investigate themselves."

"I mean, you haven't commissioned a forensic report. This audit to be carried out must be a forensic report [by the ODCE]."

Mr O'Dowd wants it in charge as well. He said: "Surely the time is now for the ODCE to take over."

Mr Rock also wants to keep up the pressure and has called for "an immediate investigation".

He said: "Any breach of the Companies Act 2014 is a serious offence, with breaches potentially carrying a punishment of fines or even imprisonment as it is a category one or category two offence and underlines how serious this issue is."

The Dublin TD said he believed they will get to the bottom of what has happened.

He added: "Sport Ireland, combined with the Office of Director of Corporate Enforcement and other agencies that I'm aware, are watching this developing situation with interest – such as Revenue and the Garda fraud squad."

The FAI board sensationally

CONCERNS Kieran Mulvey

WATCHDOG PROBE CALL

Get the boot

GONE

GONE

GONE

GONE

GONE

GONE

MICHAEL CODY
Honorary Secretary

JIM McCONNELL
Chairman of the Domestic Committee

JOHN EARLEY
Chairman of the Underage Committee

NIAMH O'DONOGHUE
Chairperson of the Women's Football Committee

EAMON NAUGHTON
Chairman of the National Leagues Executive Committee

NOEL FITZROY
Vice-President of the FAI

Delaney 'won't go without big pay-off' says PFA solicitor

BY PAT FLANAGAN

JOHN Delaney will not quit without a big pay-off from the FAI, a solicitor for the Professional Footballers Association of Ireland claimed yesterday.

Stuart Gilhooly said he believes there is no way the former FAI boss will step down without a sum of money.

As he was being paid around €360,000 a year as chief executive and €120,000 from UEFA the severance package could run to over €1million.

Speaking on RTE's Today with Sean O'Rourke, Mr Gilhooly said there's no doubt former chief executive Mr Delaney is entitled to due process, and that it is important there is closure.

He added Mr Delaney cannot be sacked for gross misconduct without any evidence, which is why an investigation is needed.

Mr Gilhooly said: "What's quite clear is that there's a loss of confidence in John Delaney."

"The board and politicians seem to have lost confidence, and I can tell you that the football community and the players have lost confidence in him."

"So the question is, what do the board do from there? They clearly cannot sack him for gross misconduct without evidence of same, and they haven't got that."

"That's why an investigation is taking place, and who know what investigation will show up - it may well show he's done nothing wrong, who knows."

Mr Gilhooly was speaking following the voluntary resignation of two members - honorary secretary Michael Cody and treasurer Eddie Murray.

However, this was before the entire FAI board stepped down and Mr Gilhooly had said he believed those who only became directors recently should be given a chance to pilot the organisation.

He added that in the future external directors with experience in business and not just in football related matters will be needed.

ANATOMY OF A SCANDAL How the Irish Mirror has covered the ongoing fiasco surrounding John Delaney and the FAI announced they are going to resign en masse after new corporate governance guidelines are handed down to them in the coming months - and a new one is then appointed.

The straw that seemed to break the camel's back appears to have been the intervention of the association's own auditors just before yesterday lunchtime's dramatic committee meeting.

The accountants sent a report to the Companies Registration Office saying they suspected the soccer bosses were not keeping proper accounts.

The CRO said Deloitte had come forward to them with serious concerns under Section 281 of the Companies Acts.

It reads: "A company shall keep or cause to be kept adequate accounting records." Before this could even be discussed, the committee had heard that FAI president Donal Conway had written to the minister telling him the committee are on their way out.

Mr Conway said: "The restructuring of the board will be brought to the membership for their consideration and adoption at our Annual General Meeting in July, or at an Extraordinary General Meeting if the work of the group facilitates an earlier date."

"At that point, when a new structure has been put in place, it is the intention that the existing board will step down to allow for a new board to be constituted in the best interests of football."

And Sport Minister Shane Ross is also in favour of bringing in the big guns too. He said there was "very good cause" for a "forensic audit" of the FAI and he "would not oppose it".

Mr Ross added: "It is clearly time for regime change."

"There will be no further Government funding until I am satisfied with the measures put in place."

The FAI agreed with Sport Ireland just in advance of the Oireachtas meeting that a governance review committee in the association will have a majority of external members.

It accepted a recommendation for the chairmanship of this review committee from Sport Ireland which has chosen Aidan Horan, a director of Institute of Public Administration to take the helm.

Two long-standing board members, honorary chairman Michael Cody and honorary treasurer Eddie Murray both resigned with immediate effect.

news@irishmirror.ie

IRISH MIRROR COMMENT: PAGE 10

CHANGE
Shane Ross

The only investigation so far has been by the FAI for the FAI

IMELDA MUNSTER SPORT COMMITTEE

There'll be no funding until I am satisfied with measures

SHANE ROSS DAIL YESTERDAY

PARIS IN SHOCK AFTER FIRE

BY ANDY LINES Chief Reporter, who first visited as a schoolboy in 1977

I COULD actually smell Notre Dame before I could see it.

As I walked towards the cathedral, a horrible stench of smoke and burning hung in the air.

On the floor beside the cigarette butts were hundreds of small pieces of black charred ash.

Just 12 hours earlier they had been part of history: historic paintings, sculptures or the 850-year-old wooden Notre Dame roof. Now they were lying in the gutter. It was unimaginably sad.

City mourning damage to its 'beating heart'

I first visited Notre Dame on a trip as a schoolboy and remember being awed by its size and grandeur. Three-and-a-half years ago I sat in the pews at a service to remember the victims of the Bataclan and the other terror attacks.

RUBBLE Burned Notre Dame

A couple of days earlier, dozens of people had been killed and Paris was in deep mourning.

No one died in this incident so it is understandably impossible to compare them.

But Parisians and all of France, and indeed the entire world, are in mourning again.

This city has dealt with so much tragedy in recent years.

But it will bounce back and its "beating heart" will be rebuilt.

HOLY RUIN

Fire damage in the cathedral

PUNCHESTOWN FESTIVAL

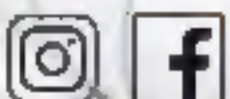

"MY KIND OF TOWN"

30 APRIL - 4 MAY 2019

CHAMPAGNE
FEATURING BOLLINGER BEST DRESSED LADY

WIN A TRIP OF A LIFETIME IN THE BOLLINGER BEST DRESSED LADY COMPETITION

ENJOY ALL THE STYLE AND GLAMOUR AT ONE OF IRELAND'S FAVOURITE SOCIAL OCCASIONS

PUNCHESTOWN.COM

RIPS THROUGH CATHEDRAL

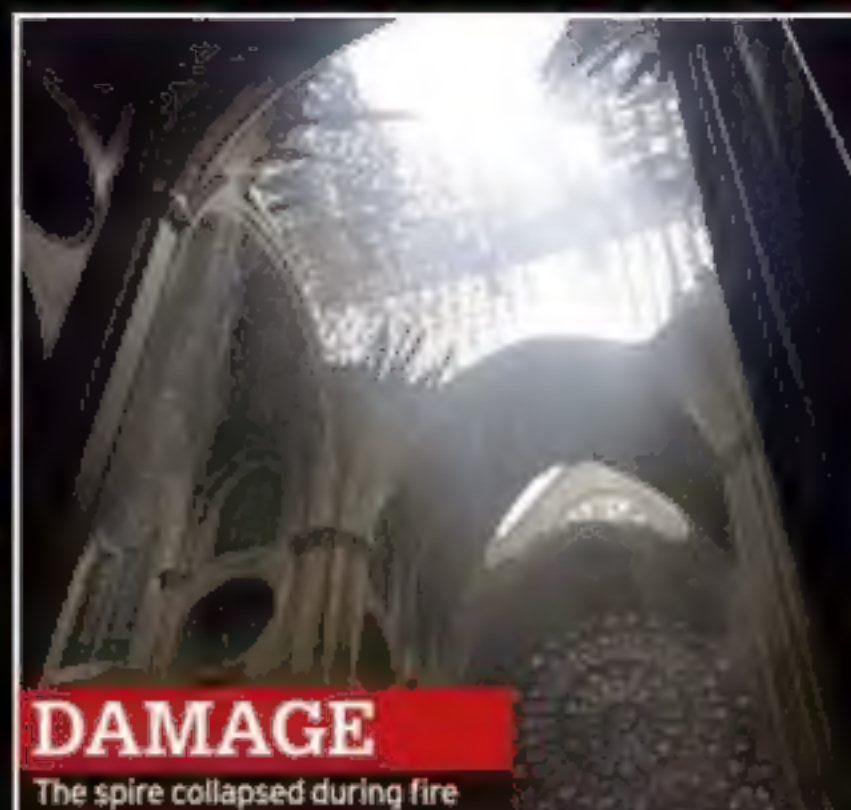

INFERNO

Scene at height of Monday's fire

MERCY MISSION

Father Fournier saved the Crown of Thorns

DAMAGE

The spire collapsed during fire

Atmosphere was like a wake claims Irish cleric

BY EMMA McMENAMY

AN Irish cleric living in Paris who witnessed the horrific Notre Dame blaze has described the atmosphere like that of a "wake".

Monsignor Hugh Connolly also spoke of a "sense of disbelief" among the crowds.

He told RTE's Morning Ireland: "People were sharing their memories, there were people praying, people singing, but largely a sense of sadness really and sort of muted resignation I guess, as they saw the flames coming through that famous roof."

The Co Down cleric added firefighters working around the clock may have managed to salvage some of the cathedral's precious relics and artworks.

Msgr Connolly said: "From about midnight onwards, it seemed they [firefighters] have managed to gain access and there are reports that many of the relics and artwork have been saved, that's still largely unconfirmed."

TRAGEDY

"The big tragedy here, I suppose, is what they call 'La Charpente', the huge roofing frame, which is very, very familiar to people who've seen it, [the] most photographed monument, and 'La Fleche', which is the spire, and that very extraordinary moment was caught on television as the spire came crashing through the roof in flames."

"Those, no doubt, since they are so well-known, well-photographed and well-documented, can be replaced but it will always be a replacement, it won't be the 13th/14th century craftsmanship which was such a spectacular sight to behold."

Speaking about the reaction of locals, Msgr Connolly said: "There's an enormous sense of solidarity which cuts right across boundaries."

"This is something that the president of the Republic said last night, it's simply not confined to those with spiritual values."

"He called it the 'coeur et l'ame de la France', the heart and soul of France, and it is, an extraordinary crossroads of architecture, literature, art history, faith, commerce and tourism."

THE HERO OF NOTRE DAME

» Priest risked life to save art » Restoration firm quizzed over blaze

BY ANDY LINES
Chief Reporter in Paris

A BRAVE priest praised for comforting the dying in the Bataclan terror attacks became the hero of Notre Dame, going into the burning cathedral to save priceless artefacts.

Jean-Marc Fournier, 53, saved the Blessed Sacrament and the Crown of Thorns as flames engulfed the building. An emergency services source said: "He's an absolute hero. He showed no fear."

Other firefighters formed a human chain to rescue hundreds of other items.

In 2015, Father Fournier ran into the Bataclan music venue, where IS terrorists murdered 89 people, to pray over the dead, and comfort the injured.

Police opened an investigation into the fire yesterday, questioning craftsmen from Le Bras Freres, a firm of "Cathedral Restorers", to establish how it started.

Paris public prosecutor Remy Heitz said his office was "favouring the theory of an accident".

But he had assigned 50 people to work on what he believed would be a "long" and "complex" investigation.

It was reported that the high altar, installed in 1989, was the only piece of architecture inside the building that was damaged. It was hit by the cathedral's spire when it came crashing down in the flames.

Three "irreplaceable" rose windows which date to the 13th century, at first feared to have exploded, are still intact.

Le Bras Freres had won a €5.5million contract to repair the wooden and lead spire. Talking about the contract last year, CEO Julien Le Bras, 32, said the goal was "not to put the building at risk".

He said: "The spire is 105 metres tall and there is no question that we will put any pressure on it with the scaffolding."

A source close to the police investigation, said: "Many of these restorers were interviewed overnight. The fear is that a small fire began in the area where they were working and quickly spread." Last night, French President Emmanuel Macron pledged to make rebuilding the cathedral a "national project".

In a televised address to the nation, he said: "We will rebuild Notre Dame even more beautifully, and I want it to be completed in five years. We can do it."

"It is up to us to change this disaster into an opportunity to come together."

As he spoke, €600million had already been pledged to a fund set up to pay for the rebuilding of the gothic cathedral.

Bernard Arnault, head of the LVMH luxury goods group and the richest man in France, put up €170million.

On Monday, while the cathedral was still ablaze, tycoon Francois-Henri Pinault, who is married to Hollywood actress Salma Hayek, pledged €98million.

Historic England has offered expert help after dealing with similar disasters at Windsor Castle and Hampton Court.

Yesterday, the Queen sent a message of sympathy to the French people, saying she and Prince Philip had been "deeply saddened to see the images of the fire".

She said: "My thoughts and prayers are with those who worship at the Cathedral and all of France at this difficult time."

PM Theresa May said: "When it comes to the daunting task of rebuilding... we stand ready to offer our expertise."

President Donald Trump also sent condolences to Mr Macron in a phone call and offered US assistance.

White House spokeswoman Sarah Sanders said: "We remember with grateful hearts the tolling of Notre Dame's bells on September 12, 2001, in solemn recognition of the tragic September 11 attacks on American soil. "Those bells will sound again."

Philippe Marsset, the vicar general of Notre Dame, spoke of witnessing the fire, which injured one firefighter, who is in hospital with "non life-threatening" injuries. Mr Marsset said: "It felt like I was looking at a bombing."

Surveying the damage, Parisian Eric Zelnick, 69, said: "There's something empty, missing. It was the face of Paris, now it's a face missing its teeth."

andy.lines@mirror.co.uk
@andylines

FIRE PROBE

Police spoke to Julien Le Bras's restoration crew

SHAME Patient on trolley

525 patients waiting for a hospital bed

BY AILBHE DALY

MORE than 500 patients were left waiting for beds in Irish hospitals yesterday.

The INMO revealed 380 are waiting in A&Es, while 145 are elsewhere in the hospital.

The worst-hit was University Hospital Limerick with 56, while South Tipperary General Hospital and Beaumont Hospital both had 44 patients denied a bed on the ward.

Each day at 8am, INMO members count how many patients are waiting in the A&E for a bed and how many are waiting in wards elsewhere in the hospital.

The INMO Trolley Watch counts the number of patients who have been admitted to hospitals, but who are waiting for a free bed.

KILLED Clodagh and sons

Sister's plea for murdered Hawe family

BY WILLIAM DUNNE

THE sister of murdered Clodagh Hawe yesterday urged the public to think of her on what would be her 42nd birthday.

Clodagh was killed in 2016 with her sons Liam, 13, Niall, 11, and six-year-old Ryan by her evil husband Alan, who then took his own life.

Her sister Jacqueline Connolly, 38, tweeted: "Today she should be celebrating her 42nd birthday with her beautiful boys and all who love and miss her dearly."

"Please take a moment to think of Clodagh today."

Their bodies were found at their family home near Ballyjamesduff, Co. Cavan.

It later emerged that Hawe had been viewing pornography in the weeks before the atrocity.

GOOD FRIDAY

Words can't describe how emotional I am. Cally, you are a hell of a woman.

DAVID MEYLER TWITTER, YESTERDAY

JOY David Meyler and wife Cally with their newborn. Above, with proud grandfather

David: I'm so proud of Mey wife

BY EAMON DOGGETT

IRELAND soccer star David Meyler could not hide his joy yesterday after the birth of his second child.

The 29-year-old and wife Cally put the heartbreak of a series of miscarriages behind them as they welcomed the new arrival. David, dad to Alanna who was born in 2016, tweeted yesterday:

"Honestly words can't describe how emotional I am writing this post. Cally you are one hell of a woman."

"After Alanna what you went through physically and emotionally it's all been worth it to get to this point in our lives. We all love you so much."

Easter weekend temperatures will soar to 21C

BY SÁDHIRSE MCGARRIGLE

TEMPERATURES will soar this Bank Holiday weekend to bring the warmest weather of the year.

Easter revellers can dust down the barbecue or head to the beach as thermometers will be reading 21C in some places.

And while Saturday looks good too, the summery burst will be short lived.

A Met Eireann forecaster said last night: "Good Friday will be dry with sunny spells. There will be light breezes and temperatures of 15C to 20C."

"Saturday will continue warm and mainly dry with sunny spells."

"However, it will become cloudier in the north-west with perhaps some drizzle later in the day."

"Highest temperatures of 14C to 17C in the west and north-west but between 18C and 21C for the rest of the country with light breezes."

Unfortunately, all good things come to an end as temperatures tumble and the rain moves in.

The forecaster said: "On Saturday night, rain and drizzle will move down over Connacht and Ulster."

"Easter Sunday will be mostly cloudy with scattered outbreaks of rain."

"At the moment, it looks like our weather will become much colder and unsettled from Easter Monday."

While we are in line for a weekend of warm, sunny weather, the public has been warned to exercise extreme caution around water.

A spokesman for Water Safety Ireland said: "Warmer air temperatures can tempt people to go swimming."

"Survival time is greatly reduced in cold water which drains body heat much faster than cold air."

"Children cool even faster than adults as they are smaller and have less fat."

"When cold water makes contact with your skin, the cold shock response causes an immediate loss of breathing control, possible dizziness and panic."

news@irishmirror.ie

IRISH MIRROR COMMENT: PAGE 10

Hay fever sufferers in pollen warning

HAY fever sufferers will pay the price of the good weather as the pollen count is set to soar from today.

Forecasts indicate levels will be high in Leinster, Munster and Connacht while in Ulster sufferers will have a medium level alert to contend with.

The high readings stem from the pollen produced from trees which is particularly high during dry and sunny spells.

20% OFF TOYS

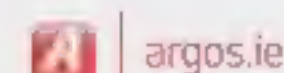

USE CODE: TOYS20 INSTORE
1000s OF TOYS INCLUDED

Barbie

YOU'RE GOOD TO GO

Offer ends 23rd April. Offer is available in-store only. Use code TOYS20. For store reservation quote at till. This offer excludes: sports, nursery, selected bikes, video games, consoles and accessories. Batteries not included. For full terms and conditions see in-store or online at www.argos.ie. Standard delivery from €8.95. We deliver large items for €9.95 within County Dublin and €17.95 in the rest of the Republic of Ireland. Under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations you have a right to return items purchased by the telephone or online, see our catalogue for full details. All items are subject to availability. Products may have a max purchase quantity of 2 per customer. If items are returned under the 30-day guarantee, only the discounted price will be refunded. This does not affect your consumer rights. Products may not be available in stores, over the telephone or internet. For availability, please check your local store, or visit www.argos.ie or call 01216 1616. Argos Ltd, 489-499 Ambury Boulevard, Milton Keynes MK9 2NW.

IRISH DAILY Mirror COMMENT

2nd floor, 9A Beckett Way, Park West Industrial Park, Clondalkin, Dublin 12
Tel: 01 868 8600, Fax 01 868 8626, irishmirror.ie

Goal is to clear out & clean up

THE entire board of the Football Association of Ireland will resign by July - and about time too.

The revelation yesterday that the FAI did not keep proper accounts was the final nail in the coffin after weeks of scandal.

Failing to keep proper accounts, if proved, can be a very serious matter. And upon conviction can lead to hefty fines or even jail.

So the board had to go. A clean sweep is needed otherwise the whole circus show would just have continued on, dragging Irish soccer further into the mire.

John Delaney, too, should do the decent thing and step down and not just step aside.

At the end of the day it was €100,000 loan to his employers that sparked the current crisis, the worst in recent Irish soccer history.

And it was his shambolic performance - and that of his colleagues - before the Oireachtas committee last week that turned the grassroots on the big bosses in their blazers.

For sure, the FAI has done, and will continue to do, good work. But Delaney's bloated salary, his rent paid by the FAI, and reported credit card splurges, were hard to take.

Around €2.7million a year of taxpayers' money goes to the FAI and we have a right to know how exactly every cent is being spent.

Let's hope any inquiry clears up this mess and the FAI can then get back to its real job of promoting soccer. And stop scoring own goals.

Hard to count on their word

THE Taoiseach yesterday confirmed that the National Broadband Plan will cost the taxpayer at least €3billion.

This means this scandal-hit project is six times over the original estimated cost.

When the plan is so far over budget there can be no guarantee that this is the final figure.

The public will find it hard to take at face value that the new figure is for a bigger and better project.

Coming after the huge overrun at the National Children's Hospital, Fine Gael can never again claim that they are a party that can be trusted when it comes to spending taxpayers' money.

Easter Sun-day

SUNNY weather on Good Friday may turn it into a Great Friday.

And with temperatures expected to hit 20C, we could be breaking the barbecues out.

It's going to be a sizzler...

Customers are being duped by fake five-star ratings

BY NADA FARHOD
Consumer Features Editor

ONLINE giant Amazon has been plagued with thousands of fake five-star reviews duping customers into buying unknown brands. Hundreds of technology products including headphones, dash cams, fitness trackers and smart watches were checked for signs of suspicious reviews in an investigation by consumer group Which?

It found Amazon's system of customer reviews and ratings is being seriously undermined by a flood of bogus reviews for products made by unknown brands.

Which? found top-rated items were dominated by little-known companies such as ITSHINY UK, Vogeek and Aitalk, boosted by thousands of unverified reviews - meaning there is no evidence that the reviewer has even bought or used the product. Many also had a suspiciously high number of five-star ratings that had been dumped onto Amazon's review pages in a short space of time - another red flag suggesting the reviews are fake.

4,348 customer reviews

★★★★★ 4.4 out of 5 stars

One set of headphones, by unknown brand Celebrat, had 439 reviews. All were five-star, unverified and arrived on the same day.

Three smartwatches had a five-star average customer rating - and more than half of the reviews (61 out of 114) for the Galso Kids Smartwatch had appeared in one 24-hour period on March 20.

The pattern was repeated with action cameras, fitness trackers and wireless security cameras.

Natalie Hitchins, Which? head of home products and services, said: "Amazon must do more to purge its websites of unreliable and fake reviews if it is to maintain the trust of its customers."

But how can you avoid falling victim? Read our guide to avoid being misled when buying...

What is a fake review?

A positive endorsement posted by a company employee, paid individual or anyone else with a vested interest in selling you a product.

Avoid being scammed on third party websites

Unknown companies: Look at customer reviews even more carefully if you're looking to buy a brand on sites such as Amazon or eBay that you don't recognise.

Repetition: If you see hundreds or even thousands of reviews - be suspicious, especially if they are largely positive. The same review

Review can you believe?

★★★★★ Super sound and comfort
20 May 2018

Verified Purchase

titles, repetitive phrases or even the same reviewer appearing more than once on a product - especially in a short space of time - means it is likely that it has been targeted.

Verification: Reviews marked as 'verified' are those that Amazon can confirm were purchased at its website.

Unverified reviews do not go through any such checks and are far easier to 'fake'.

Dates: If large numbers of reviews on any site promoting a product - be it anything from TripAdvisor to an energy company - were posted in a short period of time, it's likely that they are fake.

Check seller profiles: Be wary of foreign seller locations, strange business names, a lack of contact details and of course, negative reviews of the seller.

And when purchasing from little known sites

Spelling errors: There may be ways to investigate who is behind the positive postings on some websites so it pays to look around first before parting with your cash.

Visit the homepage or the 'about us' pages and read the text there. Watch out for poor English, such as spelling mistakes, or phrases that don't sound right. It could mean the site isn't genuine and was put together by someone looking to make a quick profit.

Domain names: Check the web address is legitimate and has not been altered by slight changes to a domain name - such as going from .co.uk to .org.

Lack of reviews: Don't just rely on one review - do a thorough online search to check the firm's credentials.

Check if the company is a member of a recognised trade body such as ABTA and search the web thoroughly to look for any customer complaints.

Payment: Never pay directly into a private individual's bank account. The cash is very difficult to trace and nonrefundable.

If you buy something that turns out to be fake or non-existent with a credit or debit card, you do have some rights to get your money back. Unfortunately, if you do pay by bank transfer, it is very difficult to get your money back.

Reverse image search: If an amazon

WEB GIANTS Sites rely on reviews

image of a product is provided but you have suspicions about the reviews, right click on the image of the image and then on "search Google for image".

If it's a fake, this will help you locate the real site.

You can also use this trick if a user has posted a picture of themselves.

Fake villa sites have been known to steal photographs from genuine LinkedIn profile pages to pass off as managers of fake companies.

If you fall victim

Notify the site immediately as Amazon, eBay, TripAdvisor and other third party sites have the power to block these users so others can be protected.

Always screen grab pages at the time of purchase showing prices and descriptions.

This can help you if you have difficulties later on with the seller.

You may be entitled to some money back depending on how you paid so call your bank or credit card company.

■ Amazon said it invests significant resources to protect the integrity of reviews and it has clear guidelines for both reviewers and selling partners and it suspends, bans and takes legal action on those that violate them.

They use investigation teams and automated technology to spot fake reviews as well as working alongside social media sites.

nada.farhoud@mirror.co.uk
@NadaFarhoud

Feud blamed after house 'destroyed' during attack

BY NIAL O'CONNOR AND DARRAGH BERRY

A VICIOUS feud has flared up again following attacks on two houses on Monday, local people have warned.

One property in Ballymun, North Dublin, was left "destroyed".

A local claimed "four carloads of lads with baseball bats, kicked in a hall door on Coultry Drive with a family inside".

The person told the Irish Mirror the attackers "wrecked the house, there's no windows left".

They also claimed in an apparent act of retaliation, shots were fired at a house.

The person added: "I saw the lads going into the house [at Coultry Drive] and I also saw a young lad getting a few digs outside."

"Then all the armed response went flying to the house that was shot at."

"It's already out of control and there is being word put out in the area that a war is on."

In a statement, gardai said they were investigating an incident of criminal damage at a house at Coultry Drive, Ballymun which took place at 7.55pm where a number of windows were damaged.

They added: "In a second incident, a window was broken at a house at Shangan Park shortly before 11pm".

But, they said there was "no evidence of shots being fired".

Sources have said the feud is centred around two warring factions who are involved in the drug trade in the area.

Making waves as passenger figures double

CRUISES have soared in popularity among holiday-makers with passenger numbers doubling over the past 14 years.

The numbers opting for a holiday on the high seas has surpassed two million for the first time ever.

The Cruise Lines International Association, figures represent a 2% increase in passenger numbers compared to the same period last year.

Repeat sailings have proved particularly popular with around 90% of all Irish and UK first-time passengers setting sail again within 12 months of their maiden voyage.

SCARY TIME

Victoria Smurfit got text from daughter

Gun crime is forcing me to leave the US

School lockdown sparks decision for move to the UK with her family

BY EMMA McMENAMY

VICTORIA Smurfit has said one of the reasons she is moving from America to the UK is gun crime.

The Dublin actress said "having a gunman outside your kids' school" was the final straw for her family.

While there were many reasons for the move, Victoria told Ray D'Arcy on RTE Radio One yesterday violence was one of the things at the top of the list.

She said she got a text from her daughter Evie saying, "We're in lockdown, please don't call me", to which Victoria responded by asking if it was real.

When she learned it was, she texted back, "Hide baby, hide".

The 44-year-old About A Boy star said: "There's loads of reasons."

"Having a gunman outside your kids' school was just the icing on the cake really."

"It's a really great school down the road, but part of living at home is you go to school and you know it's going to get wet and you are going to play rugby and you are going to get muddy, where as here you learn how to do shooter drills."

"Four times a year they lock down the school and they all hide under their desks and find a spot in their room to hide, that's just something they do whether you like it or not."

Victoria said she was about two hours north of LA shooting a short film when she got the text from her daughter.

She added: "And off she went for an hour and I didn't hear anything."

"Apparently it was an ex-student who was expelled for arguing with someone on text."

"They showed it to the principal and said, 'They are threatening to come to the school and shoot us all'."

"So they went into lockdown and the police arrived and picked the guy up."

"I'm just glad they found this guy."

"I wouldn't wish it on anybody I would tell you. I legged it."

"By the time I was nearly home I knew they were home and safe."

Victoria also said it is common for many families to have guns in their homes and garages.

She added: "It's just crazy... culturally I can't get my head around it at all."

"We are coming back over because of time you know, the kids are getting older and we miss family."

"So it's time to just get back around."

news@irishmirror.ie

Four times a year they lock down the school and they all hide

VICTORIA SMURFIT
RTE RADIO ONE

A different job? I'd rather have mine says Anna

LUCKY Weekend AM's Anna

EXCLUSIVE BY SIOBHAN O'CONNOR

ANNA Daly said she "counts her lucky stars" that she works in an easy job like TV, rather than a grafting in a mine like her brother.

But the Weekend AM presenter admitted she often takes the harrowing stories home with her.

The Virgin Media One host said she comes home to her kids as fresh as daisy after a day in the studio and confessed she has plenty of energy because "TV presenting is not hard work".

The mum of three told the Irish Mirror: "I count my lucky stars that I have this gig."

"My brother worked in a mine in Australia, that's proper labour. He's putting in a day's work and I come home from work, take over minding the kids as fresh as a daisy, it's a joy, it's not hard work."

The 42-year-old said there are days she fights back the tears.

She added: "As a parent I find I take things home with me, I'd be thinking of things days and months afterwards."

"Harrowing stories we would have covered, a mum whose husband murdered the children, I'd be reading that all night before-hand and I've seen it since on Prime Time and I've shivers even talking about it."

"They're the lower days but they're the days you work that bit harder because they take their toll emotionally."

Tuam survivors 'can't wait'

BY TREVOR QUINN

MOTHER and baby home survivors have insisted they have no time to wait for a series of health benefits announced yesterday.

Children's Minister Katherine Zappone unveiled a number of measures such as GP counselling and mental health services after a collaborative forum.

And Tuam Mother and Baby Home Alliance spokesperson Breeda Murphy said while they were "delighted", many of the elderly men and women are dying.

The PRO for the group, who are concerned the recommendations could take months to be made available, said: "Survivors have welcomed that their health needs are being looked after but they need access to the services now."

"It's always subject to budgetary requirements and there's no guarantee of anything."

"We don't have time

in our hands. We only

URGENCY Ms Murphy

have a limited number of survivors and we are losing them on an annual basis."

There are 11 survivors in the newly established Tuam Mother And Baby Home Alliance - 10 from the Tuam Mother and Baby Home and one from Sean Ross Abbey.

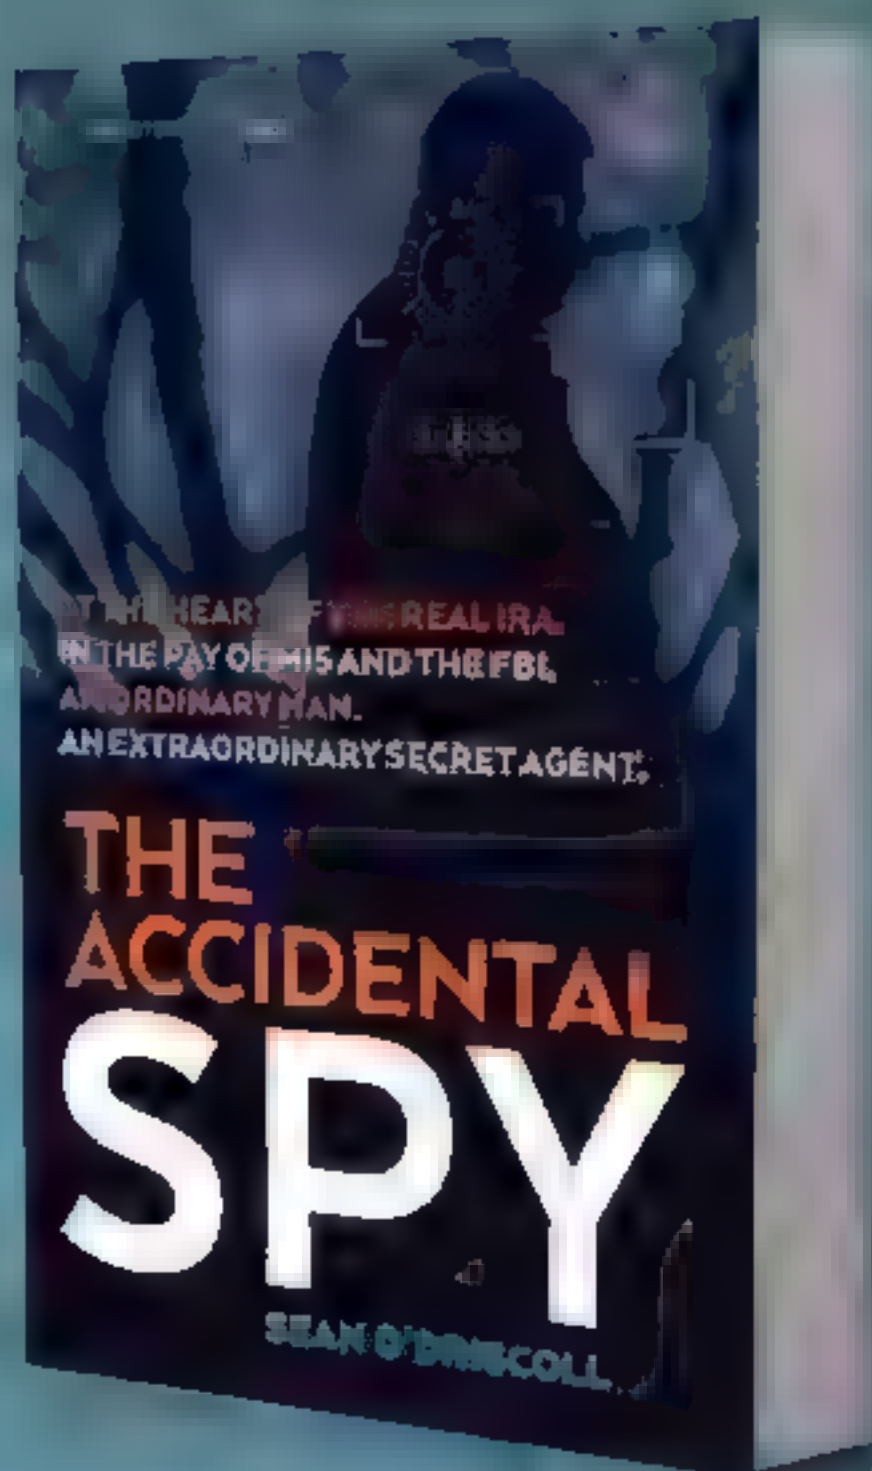

Ms Murphy said survivors should have medical cards and be able to fast-track any treatment they need as well as having access to private treatment.

AT THE HEART OF THE REAL IRA - AN ORDINARY MAN. AN EXTRAORDINARY SPY

The gripping real life account of the most successful spy in modern history.

Reporting between the FBI and MI5, David Rupert was involved with extraordinary and terrifying situations, including the horror of the Omagh bombing, an Iraqi sting operation and organising US weapon shipments with a 'sniper' being trained to kill the British Prime Minister, Tony Blair.

ON SALE NOW

Mirror Books

CORRIE SALLY

EXCLUSIVE
BY SUE CRAWFORD

Being given the terrifying and devastating diagnosis of breast cancer was the toughest moment of Corrie star Sally Dynevor's life.

But 10 years on and as a fiddle she is marking the landmark with the biggest challenge she has put herself through.

At the age of 55 Sally will embark on a 12-day trek to Everest Base Camp where night temperatures plunge to -30C.

She says: "In the darkest days after my diagnosis, I could never have imagined doing something like this 10 years on."

"I know it's something I'm going to remember for the rest of my life, although I still can't quite believe I'm doing it."

"I appreciate every minute of the past 10 years and I think a great way to celebrate that is to do something challenging and out of my comfort zone and remind myself how lucky I am."

Sally, best known as Coronation Street factory worker and former mayor Sally Metcalfe, will pack her rucksack and jet to Kathmandu, Nepal, in the autumn for the sponsored trek in aid of charity Prevent Breast Cancer, which Sally is a patron.

Sally says: "I remember in my early 20s somebody telling me Nepal was the most beautiful place they'd ever been. Since then I've wanted to go."

"Me and my husband Tim love going to the Lake District and walking. We've talked about doing Base Camp Everest all our married life, so when the charity said 'do you fancy doing it?' I said: 'Oh my God. That would be the perfect challenge'. It's a dream come true."

Sally will hike across mountain trails and through Sherpa villages until she reaches Base Camp at 17,600ft - the start of the ascent of Everest, the world's highest mountain.

As well as the cold, Sally and the 20-strong team will face altitude sickness due to the reduced oxygen.

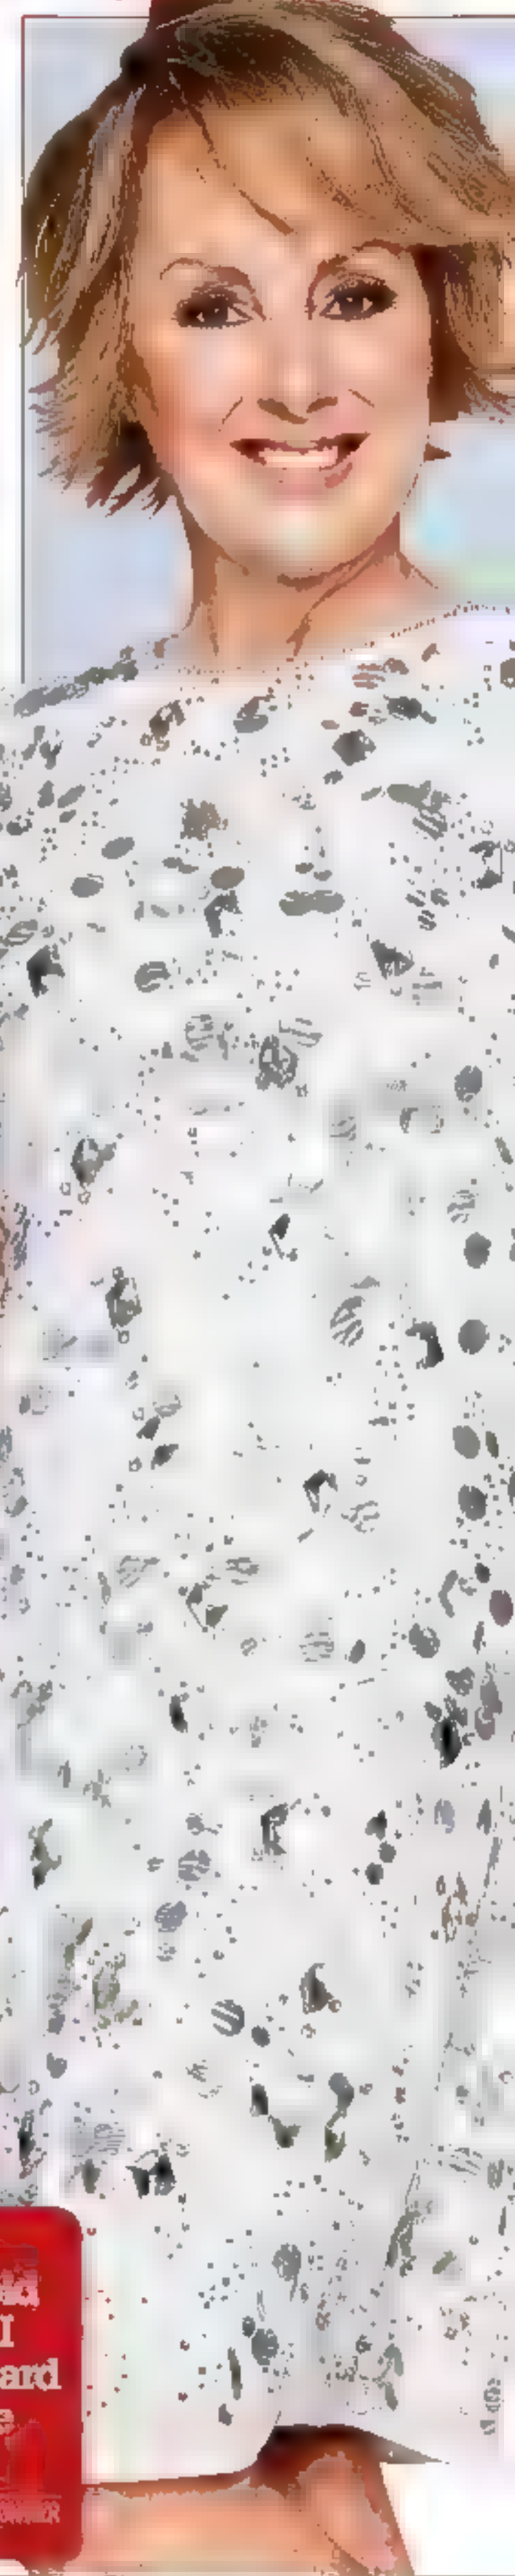

The actress lives in Manchester with Emmerdale scriptwriter Tim, 57, and their three children, actress Phoebe, 23, student Sam, 21 and Hattie, 15.

Sally has begun gentle preparation with running, swimming and walking. Soon she heads to the Lake District to begin in earnest, but acknowledges the climb will not be easy.

"Apparently we sleep in tea houses, little buildings with no heating," Sally says.

"I suppose it's better than a tent, but it's still very cold. I've heard we might have to keep our water bottles in our sleeping bags to stop them icing up."

"If I'm filming and it's

"If I'm cold filming I find it hard let alone Nepal!"

ON ROUGHING IT DURING TREK TO EVEREST

ON HER CHARITY CHALLENGE

Ten years after breast cancer I'm celebrating by trekking to Everest

SALE Auctioneer Victor Mee

Anniversary proclamation to go under the hammer

BY REBECCA BLACK

A RARE first anniversary Irish Proclamation is expected to sell for tens of thousands of euro at auction next month.

It was printed one year after the 1916 Easter Rising and there are just three 1917 documents still in existence.

The Proclamation is set to go under the hammer at Victor Mee Auctions in Co Cavan on May 8.

In 1917, it was removed by a member of the Dublin Metropolitan Police at Butt Bridge in central Dublin on orders of the High Sheriff to avoid political unrest.

He later gave it to Robert Bradley, a retired sheriff.

It was passed on to the McKay family who safely kept the piece for over six decades, passing it down to the current owner, who wishes to remain anonymous.

They said: "It was given by the sheriff to my father with the words 'look after this, it will be important someday'."

"My father kept it safely over six decades until finally it became my responsibility."

The 1917 Proclamations were printed by Cumann na mBan with the original printing blocks used for the original version after they were gathered from the wreckage of the GPO.

It has been estimated to sell for €10,000 to €20,000 when it goes under the hammer.

Man attacked with hammer

A MAN has been left with facial injuries after a brutal hammer attack last weekend.

The assault occurred at approximately 3am on Sunday morning on the Ramelton Road in Letterkenny, Co Donegal.

A Garda spokeswoman said: "A man was assaulted by two males and received injuries to his nose and mouth."

Anyone with information is asked to contact gardai in Letterkenny on 074 9167100.

PEAK TEST

Sally, left, will trek to Everest Base Camp

MY ROCK

With her writer husband Tim

ORDEAL

After cancer treatment in 2010

"I'm going to remember it for the rest of my life... I still can't quite believe I'm doing it."

ON HER ADVENTURE TO EVEREST BASE CAMP

could find it hard, let alone Nepal!"

Sally looks the picture of perfect health as she prepares for her epic trip.

But, back in October 2009, life could not have been more different.

Ironically, it was while her screen character was facing breast cancer that Sally noticed a lump of her own.

The cancer had spread to lymph nodes under her arm and, after a lumpectomy, she began a gruelling course of chemotherapy followed by radiotherapy.

The treatment was a success and Sally returned to the cobbles six months later, in a wig after losing her hair to chemo.

It was a dark time but Sally refuses to dwell on those difficult years.

"I don't really think about it in a negative way now, because I'm hoping that's the end," she says firmly.

Sally has since become a convert to healthy eating and is a devotee of the Deliciously Ella cookery books, which champion plant-based and natural foods.

"Tim is vegetarian, so I've eaten mainly vegetarian in our married life anyway, but I'm much more aware of eating less red meat now," she says.

"I try to exercise a bit more and I check my boobs in the shower, to make sure I can't feel any lumps. I'm just more aware of it now."

Sally still has annual mammograms and will finally come off breast cancer drug Tamoxifen later this year.

And although memories of her illness have been pushed to the back of her mind, she admits the experience has changed her. "I hope I'm more understanding, more humble and more grateful and that I appreciate things more," she says.

"I think anything like that - where you go through something that you didn't think you were going to face - is bound to change you and your outlook."

Lancashire-born Sally joined Corrie in 1986 aged 22 - and 33 years later remains as devoted to the show as ever.

Her storylines have included marriages to Kevin Webster and Tim Metcalfe, being wrongfully jailed for fraud and falling through the Underworld factory roof as it collapsed.

Viewers recently saw her bid a tearful farewell to her sister Gina, played by Connie Hyde, after burying the hatchet following a long-running feud.

"I felt terrible being awful to her, because Connie is so lovely," Sally laughs.

"I couldn't bear it, we're best friends off screen and I adore her. I'm not like that at all. I never hold a grudge. There are too many things to worry about in life."

Later this year Sally plans to take part in the "10-year challenge", where social media users share a decade-old picture.

"I'll probably do a picture with no hair and one of me now with the team trekking," she says. "It's a great way to raise awareness and hopefully I'll raise loads of money for Prevent Breast Cancer."

And Sally feels on top of the world.

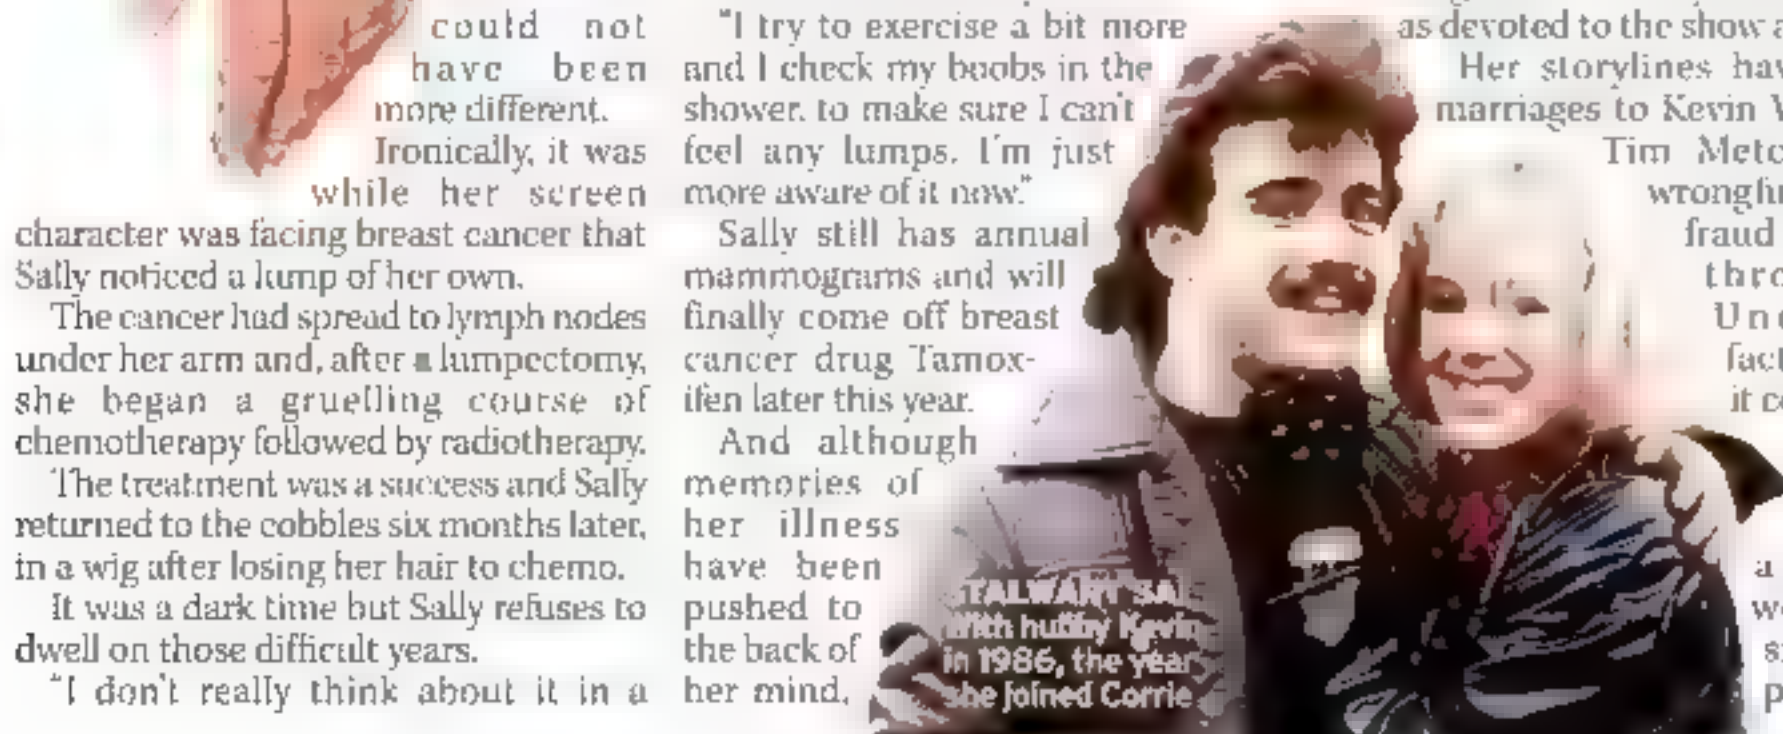

"I keep saying to the kids you measure success by waking up in the morning and going, 'I love my job!'" she beams.

"I've got three fabulous children and I'm married to a very special man - I feel very lucky."

You can sponsor Sally at uk.virginmoneygiving.com/SallyDynevor features@mirror.co.uk

@DailyMirror

Deportee is back in US

A MAN whose wife died in Afghanistan while fighting for the US was deported to Mexico before he was later returned to the US.

Jose Gonzalez Carranza, 30, was arrested last week by immigration officials.

His removal meant his 12-year-old daughter, a US citizen, was left behind.

Court strips citizenship

A BAHRAIN court has revoked 138 people of citizenship after convicting them of terrorism charges.

The judge handed life terms to 69 of the defendants.

They were accused of setting up a cell linked to Iran's Revolutionary Guards.

EU protects 'gig' workers

MEPs have approved a new EU law to protect "gig economy" workers.

It sets minimum rights and demands more transparency for those in "on-demand" jobs such as at Uber or Deliveroo.

It proposes predictable hours and compensation for cancelled work.

Museum snub to Brazil PM

AMERICA'S Museum of Natural History will not host an event for Brazil's leader Jair Bolsonaro.

It was criticised for holding a ceremony at which Mr Bolsonaro was to receive a person of the year award.

The far-right leader has advocated relaxing environmental policies.

TRADITION Maria in uniform

IS THIS WHERE SHE GOT THE IDEA?

Ross and Rachel hired a male nanny named Sandy in an episode of Friends that aired on November 7, 2002. But he got fired for being too sensitive and crying a lot

YANKEE DOODLE NANNY

Meghan wants American helper

EXCLUSIVE
BY RUSSELL MYERS
Royal Editor

THE Duchess of Sussex may be part of the Royal Family, but her hunt for an American nanny shows her heart is still very much in her homeland.

And in what could be another nail in the coffin of royal tradition, eight-months pregnant Meghan and husband Prince Harry are even open to the idea of having a male help for their tot, which would be a first.

The 37-year-old has instructed staff at a recruitment agency to find a suitable candidate to start in the next three months.

A source said: "Meghan and Harry have clear ideas on how to bring up their children.

Meghan was clear in telling recruiters she favours an American over a Brit and wants them to feel part of the family rather than a uniformed member of staff.

"That is important to her, she's never hidden the fact she is fiercely proud of her American roots. They are keen to explore the possibility of a male nanny." The worker will "earn up to £70,000 a year, depending on experience". It is understood candidates are to be interviewed by the royal couple.

The successful one will be based at their new Frogmore Cottage home in the grounds of Windsor Castle and have use of a car.

Their recruitment agency in Kensington, West London, specialises in providing bilingual childminders as well as Norland

"She's never hidden the fact she is proud of her American roots"

SOURCE ON WHY MEGHAN WANTS NANNY FROM THE U.S.

nannies, who have long been favoured by the Royal Family.

William and Kate hired Spanish Maria Teresa Borrillo, a graduate of the Bath college, which opened in 1892.

Nannies dress in brown uniforms and wear felt hats bearing a letter N. Only a handful of men have attended Norland, with the first two graduating last year.

Meghan will also break with decades of royal tradition by not parading their baby on the hospital steps, instead choosing to post pictures on Instagram.

russell.myers@mirror.co.uk
@rjmyers

Appeal for cancer mum facing homelessness

GRAVELY ILL Christine Rossiter

BY MARK O'BRIEN

THE public have been urged to help a young mum of two with a terminal illness who is facing homelessness this summer.

Christine Rossiter, 37, from Howth, Co Dublin, was diagnosed with stage four breast cancer in 2016.

The tumours have spread to her brain, liver and lungs, with conventional treatments offering limited results.

Christine, her partner and their two young children are also facing homelessness as the lease on the house they are renting ends in June. Outlining their fundraising goals, her pals said: "The first is to keep her youngest child in the school where he is surrounded by his buddies - our children - but also us, the mothers who know him and can support him while his mum battles this cruel disease.

"Christine's terminal diagnosis ended her career as a graphic designer.

"When they would otherwise have been saving for a deposit, Christine and her partner of 19 years were wrestling with a catastrophic diagnosis and unforeseen loss of earnings.

"They have been renting in Howth, but the lease is up in June and won't be renewed, leaving them with no home. They are going to need our financial help to find a new home within range of the school."

The group are also hoping to send Christine on any cancer immunotherapy trials in the US she may be suitable for.

They said: "If the right trial comes up, Christine will have to travel at short notice."

It is understood €15,600 has already been raised for the popular mum, who pals say has dealt with her illness with "characteristic grace and sweetness".

■ To donate visit www.gofundme.com/jdfkk-for-christine.

Kinahan link probed over gun attack

A GUN attack was launched on a house last night.

Gardaí are investigating a suspected link with the Kinahan drug cartel over the shooting in the Finglas area of North Dublin.

The house was struck with a number of rounds at around 11pm.

Gardaí attended the scene and there were no immediate reports of any injuries.

The incident is believed to be connected to ongoing gang activity between criminal factions in the area.

A Garda spokesman has urged anyone who may have witnessed the attack or has any information to contact officers at Finglas station.

LOVE HIM OR HATE HIM... He's the voice of Ireland

EVERY FRIDAY

Three held as gardai seize passports

SUSPECTED cloned credit cards and stolen Irish and UK passports were seized in a house raid yesterday.

Officers also seized two cars believed to have been bought under false names.

Three Romanian men aged 31, 24 and 25, were arrested in Letterkenny, Co Donegal.

A Garda spokesman said: "The search was conducted by the National Economic Crime Bureau, National Bureau of Criminal Investigations and assisted by local officers."

"Much of the documentation seized relates to suspected fraud in the North. Inquiries with Europol and the PSNI are ongoing."

I've found myself practising my dance steps at home...

RIGHT MOVES
Fred Cooke and Giulia Dotta on DWTS

Comedian Cooke is struggling without RTE's ratings smash

EXCLUSIVE BY SIOBHAN O'CONNOR

COMEDIAN Fred Cooke said he has resorted to practising his moves at home now Dancing With The Stars is over.

Fred told the Irish Mirror he's experiencing withdrawal symptoms from RTE's hit show.

He said: "It's like I'm in denial that it's over. I've found myself at home in Naas going around practising my dance steps."

"I've given myself things to do, I'm busy enough. I found it's like when Republic of Telly ended, I always had to go back to gigging to keep myself busy and not miss it."

The 38-year-old admitted he grew emotionally attached to his dancing comrades.

He added: "It's funny, when it really finishes and Jennifer and Nicky say goodbye and thanks for watching, the cameras go off and straight away Julian went back on the ferry to London."

"You get so emotionally attached to the whole thing. I even parked my car near Liffey Trust, the place we used to train, as I was going in to do some radio interviews nearby and the staff were like, 'Why are you back?'"

"I always wanted to do Dancing With The Stars because I wanted to learn how to dance, and now tickets for my new show Fred-space are selling better than ever."

The comic lost more than two stone during the show but revealed he has battled to keep the weight off.

He said: "I was hoping not to lose too much weight, because I was hoping to get on Operation Transformation down the road. I didn't go in to lose weight, but I lost quite a bit."

"I want to keep the weight down. There's something about being competitive, you start looking after yourself a bit better."

"Then the second I was eliminated I wasn't as disciplined. I haven't got into the green smoothies, my girlfriend is trying to get me more into that but I'm like, 'I have a life'."

"I haven't cut the booze - I do enjoy a pint of beer at festivals, I'll never give that up."

■ Fred brings his new stand-up show Fred-space to Vicar Street on November 21 and he's at the Cat Laughs Comedy Festival in Kilkenny from May 30 to June 3.

news@irishmirror.ie

"You get so attached to the whole thing. It's like I'm in denial"

FRED COOKE ON LIFE AFTER DWTS YESTERDAY

Rosanna: I don't have time for Glitterball challenge

BY KATIE GALLAGHER
Showbiz Reporter

ROSANNA Davison said she doesn't have the time to do Dancing With The Stars.

The former Miss World also ruled out her dad joining the RTE show, dubbing him a terrible dancer like her. When asked if she would like to swap the catwalk for the dancefloor, the 34-year-old told the Irish Mirror: "No, but I have huge admiration for anyone who does it."

"I thought Mairead was fantastic and I thought everyone this year was amazing. But it's such a huge life commitment in terms of time, that up until this point I haven't been able to dedicate the time to it."

Laughing at the prospect of her Lady In Red singing dad challenging for the Glitterball trophy, she said: "No. Only because I can't imagine him dancing. I'm useless at dancing even so I don't think he would be any good."

"Some people just have a natural rhythm, sports people and anyone who has been in that sort of entertainment industry, theatre, stage, seems to do really well in it."

BUSY Rosanna Davison

Don't miss this month's RSVP magazine...

- › Storm Keating at home in London with adorable baby Cooper
 - › Mairead Ronan: From winning Dancing with the Stars to moving into her dream home
 - › Kathryn Thomas on love for Baby Ellie, pressures of motherhood and turning 40
 - › Eilish O'Carroll and partner Marian O'Sullivan on growing older together and why they will never marry
 - › The Garrihys open up about weddings, babies & a bond that binds them.
 - › Glamorous Georgina Ahern- fabulous at 40
- All this plus food, fashion, beauty and more!*

ON SALE NOW

RSVP

NOVEMBER 2015

ON SALE

GET IT ON Google Play

Download on the App Store

Cop cleared of Irishman's road death

A CANADIAN cop has been cleared of any wrongdoing following a crash which resulted in the death of a young Irishman.

Brendan Keogh was struck by the officer's unmarked SUV in Squamish, British Columbia.

The incident occurred as the 29-year-old was walking at a road junction on March 13 last year.

Mr Keogh, from Mullinalaghta, Co Longford, was hospitalised but never regained consciousness. He passed away on August 1 after being transferred to Dublin's Mater Hospital.

A police watchdog said the evidence did not provide grounds to consider any charge.

Stations score with live World Cup coverage

SOCCKER fans will get their kicks this summer with the Women's World Cup coming to Irish screens for the first time.

RTE and TG4 have reached agreement with FIFA for live coverage of every game from the tournament in France.

All matches from the event, which kicks off on June 7 and runs until the final on July 7, will be free-to-air for Irish viewers.

RTE's Declan McBennett said the broadcaster is "delighted" to team up with TG4 for the coverage.

TG4's Ronan O Coisdealbha added the station has been a "proactive supporter of women's sport for many years".

Wheely happy after €8,000 roulette win

A PUNTER shook off their Monday blues by scooping almost €8,000 from a €6 wager.

The roulette player from Waterford landed €7,776 thanks to a bet with BoyleSports.

They placed a double, predicting seven would land at 35/1 in not only the first spin, but again three minutes later.

BoyleSports' Sarah Kinsella said: "What a tremendous win for our Co Waterford client who landed an ambitious bet with a €6 double on roulette to claim the 1295/1 bet."

"We wish our customer the best of luck with their winnings."

GOOD DRY DAY

EMPTY FEELING
Dermot Muldoon will close his pub in Drumconrath on Good Friday

Village pubs stick to tradition and stay closed despite change in law

BY LOUISE WALSH

IT'S too bad if you want a drink on Good Friday in one village where the pubs will stay closed for the second year in a row.

All three bars in Drumconrath, Co Meath, will remain shut again ignoring legislation which allows publicans to legally serve alcohol.

Twelve months ago, opening on the religious festival for the first time in 90 years was hailed as a huge success by customers and many vintners.

But not so in Drumconrath, where publicans Dermot Muldoon, Pauline Fay and Pat Dempsey will keep their doors shut.

Mr Muldoon said: "Publicans get two days off in the whole year, just two, so we decided to keep that holiday as well as keeping up the tradition and having a bit of respect for our religion."

"Last year we got a lot of support from our customers, the majority of whom would observe fasting on the day and staying off the drink anyway."

"We said in last year that we would close and nothing has changed. What's wrong with a day off. It was a tradition among publicans here to spend the day with their own families."

"It was something different about Ireland that we were known for and that's all gone now."

"I used to always go up to Crossmaglen with my father and have something to eat and a chat with people so I'll still go up there on Friday and do the same with my children."

"I might even have a drink up there. It's the novelty factor of having a drink on the other side of the counter on a day you normally couldn't have one."

He added anyone wanting a venue to have a pint could easily go to pubs in nearby Kingscourt or Ardee which are about 10km away.

Pauline Fay of Fay's Bar said the day enables bar owners to completely switch off and spend the day with family.

She added: "Quality of life has no price. I always spent the day with my children and continue to do so. We're not opening because someone in Dublin says so. When you lose a tradition, you lose it for life."

"This year again, myself and my daughter will do the stations of the cross before doing a bit of shopping together. I don't think a bit of religion does anyone any harm."

"I've received 100% backing from my customers, some of whom have said that even if I was open, they wouldn't come in."

news@irishmirror.ie

We're not opening because someone in Dublin says so

PAULINE FAY
CO MEATH YESTERDAY

JP can't wait to putt out welcome mat for Tiger

GOOD PALS Tiger and JP

BY EAMON DOUGGETT

JP McManus has given the green light for his close friend Tiger Woods to return to Ireland after his remarkable Masters victory.

The 43-year-old US golfer stunned the sporting world by winning his first Major in 11 years at Augusta on Sunday.

And Woods, now only three behind Jack Nicklaus' record haul, will play in McManus' Pro-Am at Adare Manor in Co Limerick for the fourth time in July 2020.

The businessman said: "It's exciting to have Tiger. He announced he was playing after Limerick won the All-Ireland which made it a great week for us."

A lot of the other top players in the world have committed to coming. It's exciting times."

The event will attract other top stars such as Rory McIlroy, Justin Rose, Padraig Harrington and Shane Lowry, while amateurs will include Hollywood actors Mark Wahlberg and Hugh Grant.

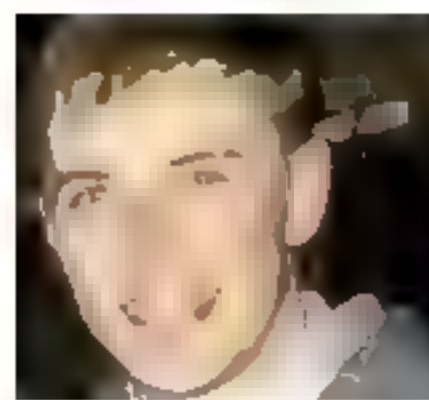

But star billing will be reserved for Woods with McManus heaping praise on his old friend for one of the best ever sporting comebacks.

He told RTE 2fm's Game On: "I could feel the adrenaline running through me."

"It was something else. This was one of the iconic moments in sport. People will remember where they were when Tiger won the Masters in 2019."

THIS PAGE HAS BEEN REMOVED BY THE PUBLISHER

COLLISION Jake Anderson

Tragic Jake killed in road smash horror

BY MIRROR REPORTER

A MAN was killed when his car was involved in a head-on collision with a lorry.

Jake Anderson, 21, died after the crash in the townland of Ballingarrane, Co Tipperary, shortly before 8pm on Monday.

Garda in Clonmel are investigating the incident and trying to establish what happened to cause the crash, which occurred on a wide, straight stretch of the N24, about a kilometre from the town.

The victim, from Fernville, Co Tipperary, was a popular member of the community and was involved in a number of sports including rowing and football.

He went to school in Clonmel and worked as an apprentice pipe-fitter.

QUIZZED Lucan station

OAP held in €1.5m drugs search find

BY LAURA LYNE

A PENSIONER was arrested after €1.5million worth of cannabis was found in a vehicle yesterday.

The find was made during a stop-and-search in West Dublin.

A man is being held at Lucan Garda station over the find.

A spokeswoman said: "As part of an intelligence led operation, targeting organised criminality in the Dublin area, the Garda National Drugs and Organised Crime Bureau stopped and searched a vehicle in West Dublin.

"Cannabis herb with an estimate street value of €1.5million (subject to analysis) was seized and a 66-year-old man was arrested at the scene. Investigations ongoing."

OPEN BOOK
Xpose presenter
Cassie Stokes

I'm happy to be Xccepted as the 'gay woman' from the Telly...

Star Cassie hoping to break down stereotypes

KATIE GALLAGHER
Showbiz Reporter

CASSIE Stokes is happy to be the known as "the gay woman" on television if it means breaking stereotypes.

Due to her job, the newly-single Xpose presenter said she finds herself having to be open about her personal life.

But explaining why she doesn't mind baring her soul, the Dubliner told Irish Country Magazine: "Recently one of my friends was talking to this man.

"I think he was in his 70s, and he goes, 'Oh, there's one I really like on Xpose, the gay one'. And I think that's amazing.

"You know what? If I need to be 'the gay one' for people to open their minds and accept different things, then great."

Opening up about her own experience, she said: "When I was young there was no one that I looked up to and could relate to, so if by being open about it helps one person, then that's great, because there aren't many gay female TV presenters in Ireland.

"I think everyone has someone in their family now that is in the LGBTQ community, whether they're open about it yet or not.

"Which is why it's really important for people to keep talking about it, because maybe there's someone in a small town somewhere who still feels the shame of it.

"In fact, I know there is, because only recently someone reached out to me and they were terrified of admitting it." And addressing her experience, Cassie said it is important to realise you can't pigeonhole people into boxes.

"If you think about gay men in the media industry, do they fit into the stereotype of what people would have of gay men?

"Most of them do. Whereas, are there many openly gay men in rugby or GAA? No, because the stereotype hasn't evolved too far yet.

"Now let's think of gay women in sports teams, is that a stereotype? Yes.

"Gay women on television? I don't know. Maybe. Which is why I want to be open about who I am, because nobody falls under a stereotype.

"Unfortunately, we've grown up with these stereotypes, and I'm just trying to change it for me. And it's positive. I think that's why it's very important that we keep talking about it."

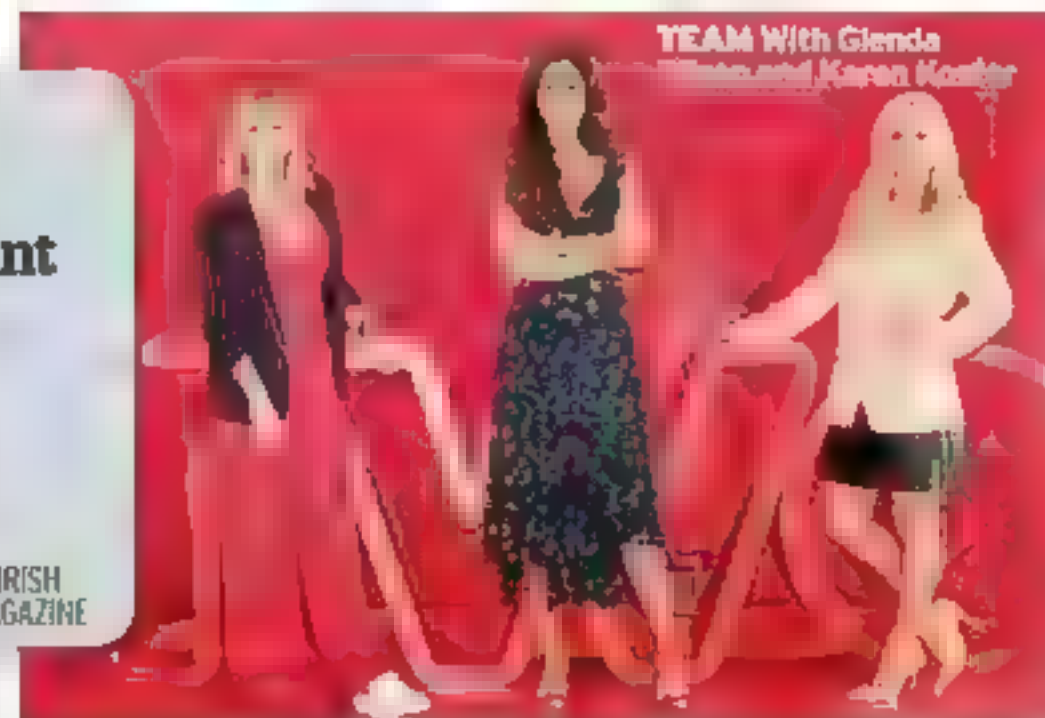

Opening up about how her break-up with long-time partner Kathleen Gauvin affected her work, she said: "That's been difficult, but then I think about the nurses and doctors - they are the most amazing people ever, when they have a bad day, they can't stop caring for people.

"If I spent the whole night crying and I have to go to work I'm just going to have to use the bigger bag of make-up that day."

news@irishmirror.ie

“It's very important that we keep talking about it

CASSIE STOKES IRISH COUNTRY LIFE MAGAZINE

GAMBLING RAP Paul Scholes

Scholes faces FA charge on match betting

BY PAUL BYRNE

FORMER England and Manchester United star Paul Scholes is facing an FA gambling rap.

The 44-year-old midfield legend has been charged over wagers he allegedly placed on games.

An FA statement yesterday said: "Paul Scholes has been charged with misconduct in relation to the FA's betting rules.

"It is alleged he placed 140 bets on football matches, contrary to FA Rule E8, between 17 August, 2015 and 12 January, 2019.

DIRECTOR

"He has until 26 April, 2019 to respond to the charge."

Scholes made 720 appearances for Manchester United in all competitions, winning 11 Premier League titles.

As part of his glittering career he also won 66 England caps, scoring 14 times.

After retiring from playing in 2013 he later became a part-owner of Salford City FC alongside former United team-mates.

Scholes quit as director of the National League club in February to take over as manager of Oldham Athletic.

But he spent only 31 days in the job, insisting his position at the Sky Bet League Two outfit had become untenable.

Man Utd's Butt held in 'domestic incident'

Police called to former midfielder's home

PROBE Nicky Butt at a game. Inset, the star's car packed out with boxes

BY TOM TOWERS

FORMER Manchester United and England midfielder Nicky Butt has reportedly been arrested on suspicion of assault.

Butt, 44, who is now head of the club's youth academy, was led away from his home in Hale, Greater Manchester, yesterday afternoon.

He allegedly had an argument with a woman and had arrived at 2pm to pick up some belongings.

An eyewitness said: "I saw him arrested at his home in Hale.

"From what I overheard, he went there to collect his belongings. There was a big argument and that's when he allegedly assaulted her."

A Greater Manchester Police spokeswoman did not confirm any names of those involved.

But she said: "Police were called at around 2pm on Tuesday, 16 April, to reports that a woman had been assaulted at a house in Hale.

"The woman received a small cut to her hand and does not require hospital treatment.

"A 44-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of assault and remains in custody for SCENE Butt's home in the village of Hale questioning. Enquiries are ongoing." Butt has been married to Shelley Barlow since 2008 and the couple have two children.

As well as his role at Manchester United, Butt is co-owner of National League outfit Salford City FC.

Butt owns a share of the football club along with his fellow former United stars David Beckham, Ryan Giggs, Paul Scholes, and Gary and Phil Neville.

The players were all part of the legendary "Class of '92", who helped drive United to a string of trophies under then-manager Sir Alex Ferguson.

Butt's agent did not comment, nor did Salford FC secretary, Andy Giblin.

mirrornews@mirror.co.uk

Twitter: @DailyMirror

UNITED PALS

Butt in his heyday with team-mate David Beckham

FREE

Mirror Football

Two brilliant pullouts inside your every Monday & Saturday

HAVING A BALL Yvonne

Yvonne longs to see more of boyfriend

BY MIKIE O'LOUGHLIN

YVONNE Connolly has admitted her relationship with John Conroy is difficult because they spend so much time apart.

Her boyfriend is often abroad for long periods of time due to his work as a cinematographer.

But after six years together the 45-year-old said they are able to make it work.

She told RSVP Live: "He has always been away from the moment I met him.

"It is not like we had all of this time together that was taken away from us, it is all we know. We feel very lucky to have each other."

Yvonne, who has three children with ex-husband Ronan Keating, is an ambassador for the revamped Aviva Soccer Sisters programme.

BIG SISTER Daniel & Margo

Margo tried to put Daniel off music scene

BY KATIE GALLAGHER

MARGO O'Donnell has revealed she tried to put her brother Daniel off pursuing music.

The older sister of the country star has previously opened up about their rocky relationship since their mother Julia passed away almost five years ago.

Speaking about her late mum, the 68-year-old told The Ryan Tubridy Show: "She was important to me and to Daniel, she inspired us.

"She wasn't able to sing but she knew all the songs and encouraged us all and encouraged Daniel a great deal.

"Because I did not encourage Daniel, I didn't want him to do what I had done because it was a hard life out there for a woman when I was starting out."

PAWS FOR SUPPORT Leo Varadkar, Patricia Lee and Helen McEntee at yesterday's launch

Leo leads the way for charity

LEO Varadkar barked out his support yesterday as he launched next month's Guide Dog Day.

The Taoiseach praised the work of Irish Guide Dogs, the charity which aims to change the lives of those who are visually impaired or living with autism.

He said: "I know the organisation is determined to provide services for even more people this year, so I encourage everyone to get involved in Guide Dog Day on Friday, May 10.

"You can offer to buy a Guide Dog Day pin, volunteer to help out on the day, or donate online at www.guidedogs.ie/donate."

WALKIES Patricia Lee, Martin Gordon and Laura Curtin

'COMPUTER SEARCHES DON'T PROVE MURDER'

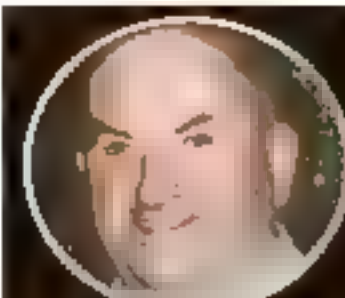

BY EGIN REYNOLDS

JURORS cannot convict someone on the basis of computer searches, a lawyer for murder accused Patrick Quirke insisted yesterday.

The 50-year-old denies killing Bobby Ryan and dumping his body in a tank almost eight years ago.

The part-time DJ known as Mr Moonlight went missing after leaving his girlfriend Mary Lowry's home on June 3, 2011.

The 52-year-old's body was found in April 2013 in an underground run-off tank on the Fawnagowan farm in Co Tipperary, which was owned by Ms

KILLED Mr Ryan

Lawyer urges jurors to acquit accused in 'love rival' trial

CHARGED Quirke

Lowry and leased by the defendant. Quirke's lawyer Bernard Condon criticised the Garda and told the jury they had been given substandard evidence due to failures in the investigation.

He asked jurors to imagine themselves or a person they love in Quirke's position.

He said he had done what he could to assist gardai and then had everything interpreted in the worst possible way, being accused based on what Ms Lowry said and "a couple of internet searches".

Prosecutors said Quirke, from Breanishmore, Co Tipperary, killed Mr Ryan so he could rekindle an affair with the 52-year-old. Mr Condon completed his eight-hour speech to the jury yesterday by asking them to acquit his client.

He urged them to look fairly and with nuance at the evidence that Quirke's computer was used to search for information on DNA and "human body decomposition" while Mr Ryan was still a missing person. He said they could not convict based on those searches.

The jury will return next Tuesday to hear the judge's charge from Justice Eileen Creedon before they begin their deliberations.

news@irishmirror.ie

THE DIARY

with Ashleigh Rainbird

After seven weeks with the UK's No 1 single, Lewis Capaldi is suffering the perils of fame. The Someone You Loved singer has warned fans who think they have matched with him on Tinder that they could be talking to an imposter.

The singer says he'd never ask to send photos of his manhood because he's "not a weirdo" and because "it's not very impressive. I don't even want to show it to people who want to see it at the best of times".

He adds: "The only time I've taken what could be perceived as a nude picture was because I thought I had haemorrhoids. I couldn't make out what was going on down there."

It's important for modern chart stars to tweet, but these musical wannabes are really taking things to extremes. The RSPB is releasing a single of pure birdsong to highlight the loss of 44 million birds over the last 50 years.

The tune - out next Friday - features chirrups from 25 birds, including a woodpecker rhythm section, cranes providing "brass" and the "booming bass of the bittern".

Prue can help write my love scenes...? Toksvig!

Sandi Toksvig's wife acted as a consultant for lesbian sex scenes in Prue Leith's new novel.

The Great British Bake Off judge recruited her co-star's wife, psychotherapist Debbie, to help with her book The Lost Son - and in the acknowledgements thanks her for having "approved my chapters on a lesbian love affair".

Raunchy extracts include a shower scene where two characters soap one another - in detail - before drying each other "feverishly", which is described as "the sexiest thing they had ever done".

NOVEL IDEA Prue Leith asked Sandi's wife Debbie for help

In her final pages, Prue thanks various friends who provided expert insight into different topics.

She quipped: "Looking at the list you could be forgiven for thinking that I knew very little about anything. But at least the story is my own, and I know it's the better for the help of my friends."

Sandi Toksvig and wife Debbie joined in a civil partnership in 2007 before renewing their vows on March 29, 2014 - the day same-sex marriage was introduced in England and Wales.

In December of that year their civil partnership was converted into a marriage.

Prue, 70, describes her book as "a sweeping family saga full of revelations and family secrets".

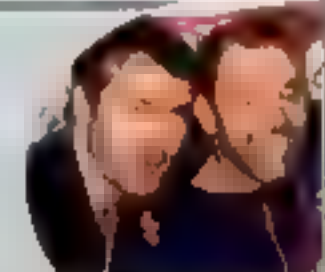

King of Britpop gossip

If you can remember Britpop, you probably weren't there, but Savage & Best PR man Phil Savidge has packed so many top anecdotes into his memoirs it'll feel like you were.

"Damien Hirst gave me 15 grand in a plastic bag because he wanted me to do the PR for Fat Les's Vindaloo, which went on to sell a million," Phil tells me. "After a few games of snooker I gave it back to him and sorted out a better deal."

Lunch With The Wild Frontiers is out on May 24.

VINDALOO Damien and Keith Allen of Fat Les

A Love Islander at Coachella festival - the perfect social media picture. But did Montana Brown have a fabulous time in the Californian desert?

Not really. She warns her followers the festival isn't as picture perfect as it appears. "I had blisters from my shoes," complains the star. "It's not as glam as it looks. You gotta pick sand and dust out your hair and nostrils."

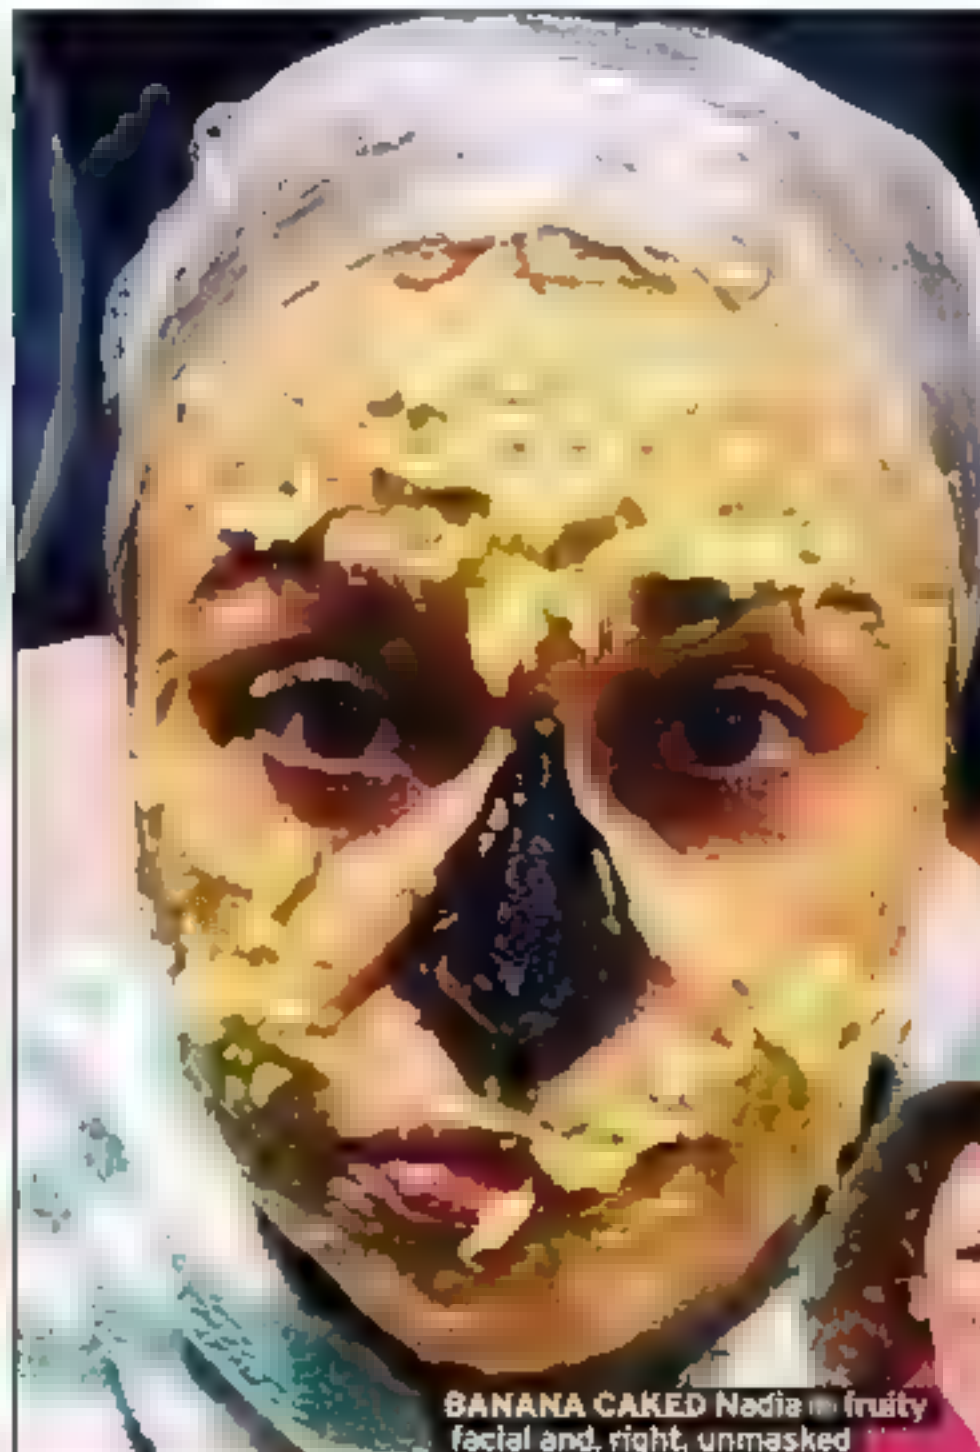

Brilliantly, she still plugged the brands that paid for her trip in her post. Fortunately, they didn't make her shoes.

THE PERFECT GIFT FOR ANY CELTIC FAN

84 PAGES OF CLASSIC AND UNSEEN PICTURES

ORDER ONLINE: www.mirror.co.uk/shopping
TELEPHONE: 0844 845 143 0001

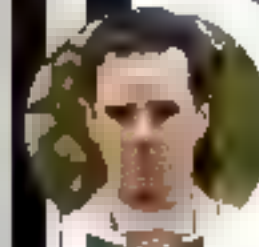

BANANA CAKED Nadia's fruity facial and, right, unmasked

RELAXING BLEND OF FRIDGE CONTENTS

It might look like Nadia Sawalha just lost a battle with a blender, but she's actually "relaxing".

How better to relax than by slathering the contents of your fridge on your face?

The Loose Women star combines banana and avocado with yoghurt and honey, and wraps her hair in clingfilm. "Although I don't look happy I'm actually very happy," she insists.

170% Increase in Google searches for "can you have sex with a priest" during Fleabag. "That's extraordinary," says Andrew Scott, 42, who played the show's Hot Priest.

Working from home is a valid excuse to stay in your pyjamas all day, and Labour MP Jess Phillips is making the most of Parliament being in recess, despite still making television appearances. "When you're going on the news at home, shirt on top pyjamas on the bottom," she advises.

I am sure many of us will have made a mistake at work - unfortunately for me mine is a lot more public than most. Mea culpa.

Sky news presenter and landlady Jayne Secker admits her tone and content were "wrong" after she was criticised for being patronising and insinuating young renters couldn't change their own lightbulbs.

IAN HYLAND IS AWAY

Eat red meat 4 times week & risk cancer

EATING red or processed meat four times a week increases the risk of bowel cancer, a study found.

The researchers found that one in 15 men and one in 18 women born after 1960 would be diagnosed with bowel cancer.

The risk rose 20% with every 25g of processed meat – roughly a rasher of bacon or slice of ham – people ate per day.

And it increased by 19% with every daily 50g portion of red meat, about a thick slice of roast beef or a lamb chop. Author Prof Tim Key, of Oxford University, said: "Our results strongly suggest people who eat red and processed meat four or more times a week have a higher risk."

Red panda's date success

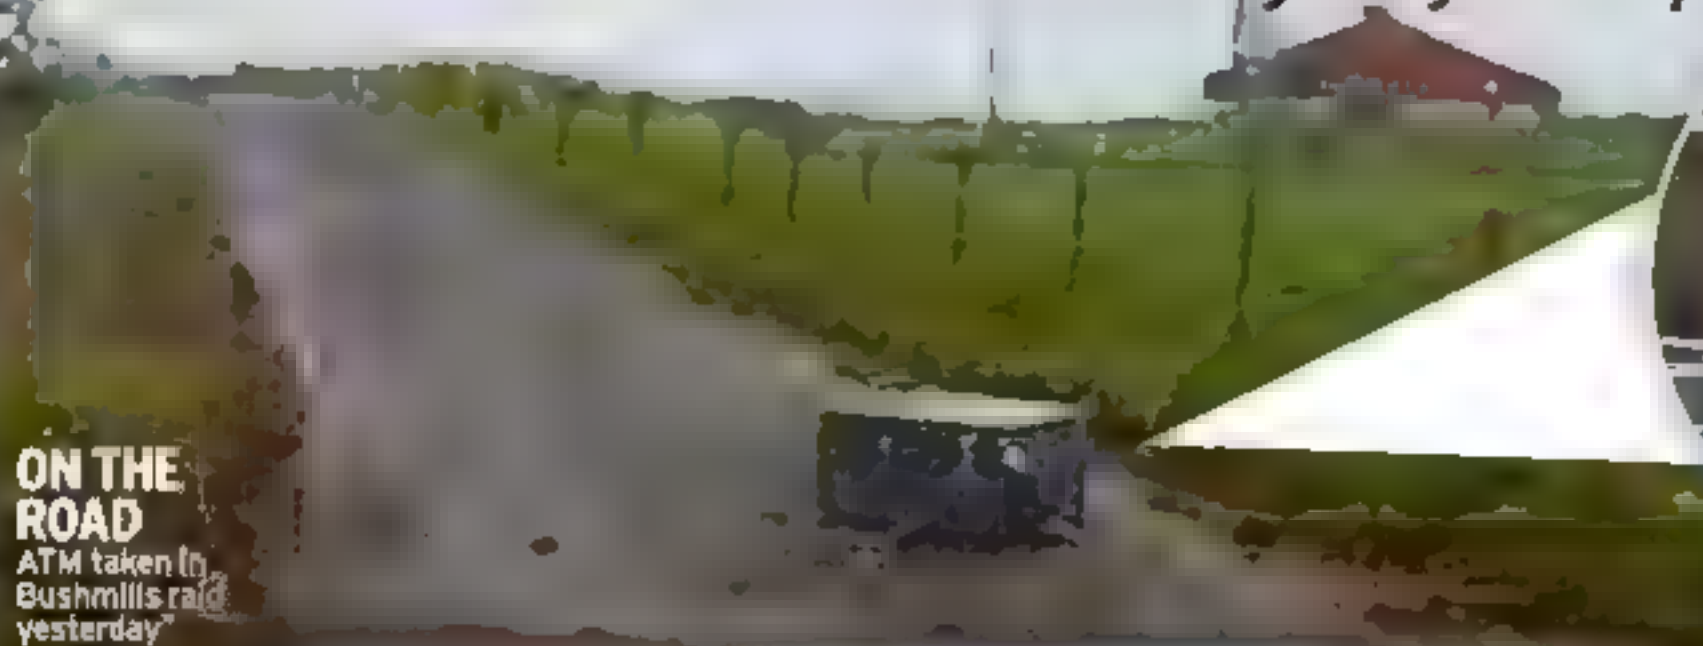

A RED panda has a mate after British keepers put him on an international zoological dating agency.

After months of looking, Germaine's partner Zou has arrived from France.

Newquay Zoo, in Cornwall, used a stud book to find a pairing.

ATM found after 9th raid

Police examine cash machine in bungled getaway

ON THE ROAD
ATM taken in Bushmills raid yesterday

BY SARAH SCOTT

EXAMINATIONS are being carried out on a cash machine found on a country road after being ripped from a wall in a village.

Emergency services were called to the Market Square area of Bushmills, Co Antrim, in the early hours of yesterday after the raiders struck.

Thugs used a digger to tear out the ATM and the heavy machinery was found set alight at the scene along with a tractor and trailer.

The cash machine is believed to have fallen from a getaway vehicle and was found yesterday afternoon on a country road near Dunluce Castle on the Antrim Coast Road.

Detective Chief Inspector Dunny McCubbin said: "This ATM theft was the ninth this year and I understand the concern of the public and the business community.

"As in all of these ATM thefts, the actions of these criminals have not only caused immediate financial harm to the business that was targeted, but they have caused devastation to the local community.

"I want to reassure the public that we continue to take this matter extremely seriously. I understand the fear that these attacks are causing, and the damage that is left in the wake of each theft. We are doing all we can to catch the people responsible and stop these attacks." Police have urged anyone with information to contact Coleraine CID or contact Crimestoppers anonymously.

DCI McCubbin made the appeal and added: "Did you see a digger on a low loader being towed by a tractor on the roads in the area? Did you witness the attack just before 3.30am this morning?"

"A telehandler was also used in the commission of this crime and I believe this was used to transport the ATM.

"We would also like to speak with anyone who saw or heard anything in the area of the Ballyhome Road early this morning."

news@irishmirror.ie

FREE EVERY FRIDAY IN YOUR

IRISH DAILY
Mirror

THE BEAT

Ireland's No1 guide to music, gigs, movies, DVDs, interviews and reviews

ENTERTAINMENT AT ITS VERY BEST

LEEDS UTD

Marching on Together on terraces

WALES

Delilah is a rugby favourite

STOKE CITY

The club has also adopted the hit

A crowd pleaser...

BY TOM BRYANT Head of Showbiz

HIS songs are sung on football terraces and by the biggest names in pop history, including Elvis.

Yet while Les Reed's music may be instantly recognisable, the modest man behind the hits was not.

That did not stop one of music's biggest stars lining up to pay tribute to the songwriter, who died yesterday aged 83. Sir Tom Jones, who co-wrote with Les hits Delilah and It's Not Unusual, said: "So sorry to hear the news of the passing of my friend and colleague."

"Les was a gifted songwriter and arranger instrumental in penning many a hit, including two important songs for me... Les was a lovely man, a legend in the world of songwriting whose legacy will live through his music."

His songs have been recorded by Elvis, Frank Sinatra, Otis Redding and Bing Crosby. British artists include Lulu, Shirley Bassey, Petula Clark and Sandie Shaw. He also played piano on the original James Bond theme.

Reed was also well-known to Leeds United fans as the co-writer of Leeds! Leeds! Leeds! - the B-side to the club's 1972 FA Cup final single. The song became better known as Marching on Together and has been sung on the terraces ever since.

And Delilah has become the staple anthem of Stoke City and Welsh rugby union fans have taken

ONE OF GREATEST Les in 2014

NO1 WALTZ

Celebrating with star Engelbert

it to their hearts. One of his biggest hits was The Last Waltz for Engelbert Humperdinck, which spent five weeks at No1 in the charts.

Reed, who wrote more than 2,000 songs and was producer or arranger on more than 5,000 recordings, also served as a pianist in The John Barry Seven and conducted his own orchestra.

His family said in a statement: "We are all so immensely proud of everything Les achieved in his incredible lifetime."

"We know his name will be remembered for what he did for music and that he will always live through his songs and compositions for the rest of time."

Reed, of Hampshire, who was born in Woking, Surrey, once said: "Elvis was a fan. People have told me he'd often talk about the arrangements I did for Tom and Engelbert."

"When I started playing with my combo, I used to emulate Floyd Kramer. I thought he was one of the greatest country pianists. Years later, Floyd became a session player with Elvis, and Elvis would tell Floyd, 'Play it exactly like Les.' Of Delilah, he said: 'Some kind of magic happened with the singer, the song, the recording, that no one can really explain.'"

Reed is survived by his daughter Donna, who he had with late wife June, and grandsons Alex and Dom.

tom.bryant@mirror.co.uk

Twitter: @MrTomJones

Lifted my soul.. & broke my heart

BY NIGEL WISKAR
Daily Mirror's Rugby League fanatic

I HAD never heard of Les Reed and yet he unwittingly soundtracked some of the greatest highs and lows of my life.

The second the glorious intro of It's Not Unusual opens up, you will find no one quicker to hit the dance floor. If that Tom Jones tune doesn't fill your heart with joy then you've no soul. Yet Marching on Together - adopted by the Leeds Rhinos rugby league side - brings only despair.

From 2007 to 2011 they beat my ■■■■■ Heles team in four out of five Super League Grand Finals at Old Trafford. That nauseating chant haunts me to this day.

Tom's tribute to legend Les Reed as Delilah songwriter dies aged 83

LIFE IN FAST LANE

Luxury fleet, with wife June and daughter Donna

WACKY*WORLD

For more weird stories from around the globe visit irishmirror.ie

Dog's life for lucky pooch

A DOG found swimming 220km off shore by workers on an oil rig crew in the Gulf of Thailand has been returned safely to land.

The crew lowered a rope and secured it around the animal's neck to haul it up. They called the pooch "Boon Rod," or "Survivor".

Blew away by lottery win

A NORTH Carolina man almost lost out on a €433,000 lottery jackpot.

John Hepburn stashed the ticket with several others in his car door.

But a gust of wind blew most away - he checked the remaining few and found he'd hit the jackpot.

Cops caught on the hop

POLICE in the Netherlands said it took 10 officers to round up a pair of wallabies that escaped from a zoo.

Cops responded to a report of the animals - a smaller cousin of the kangaroo - hopping on a motorway in Kerkrade.

Given the slip by car snake

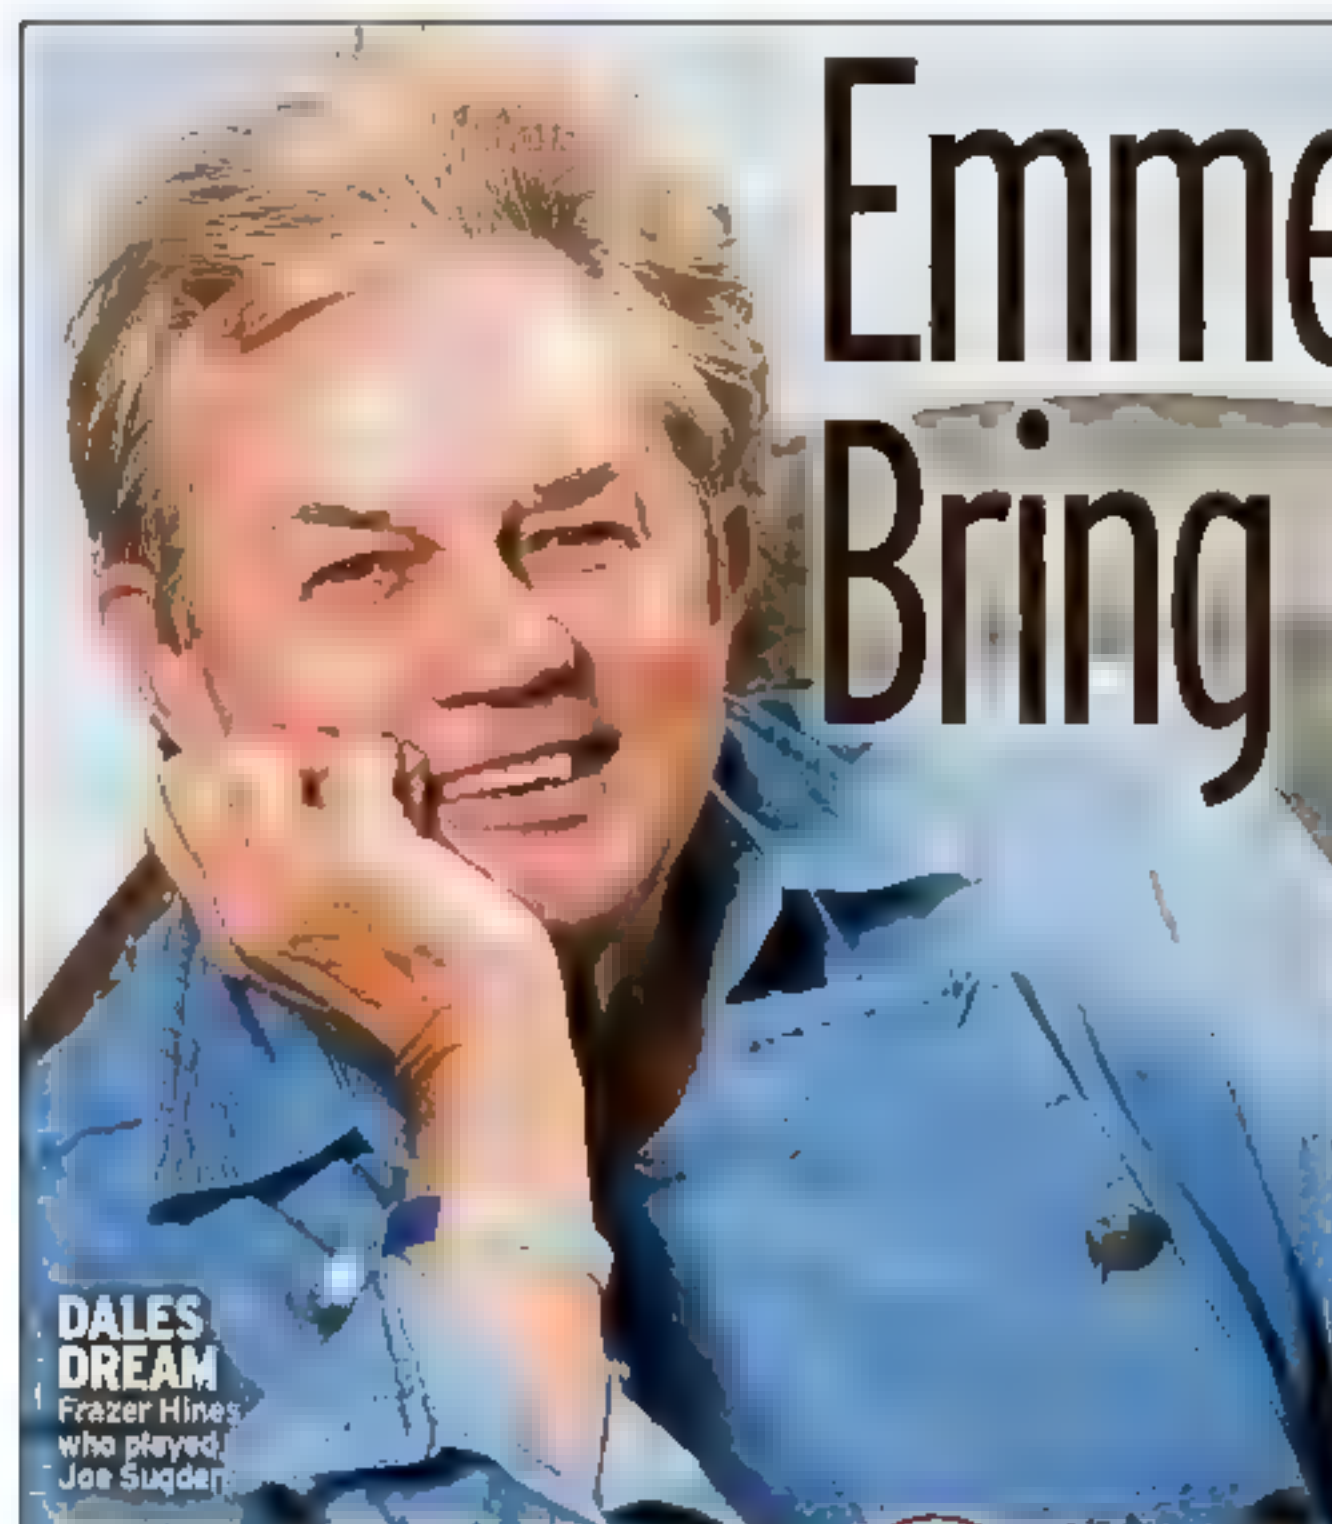

AN Australian family were left in shock after a snake slithered out from their car bonnet.

It slithered on to windscreens as they were heading to the airport.

The driver pulled over and called cops but they were unable to find it.

Four pages of puzzles inside

Emmerdale's Frazer: Bring me back to life

Star hopes to return to TV soap

DALES DREAM

Frazer Hines who played Joe Sugden

ORIGINAL CAST, 1972

Frazer, circled, when soap was called Emmerdale Farm

EXCLUSIVE
BY MARK JEFFERIES
Showbiz Editor

ORIGINAL Emmerdale cast member Frazer Hines says he wants to come back from the dead and return to the soap.

The actor, 74, played Joe Sugden in 1,500 episodes from the premiere in 1972 until he quit in 1994.

Bosses killed Joe off in a car crash in Spain in 1995, despite Frazer begging them to keep him alive.

He said: "The fans always want me back, they say. 'Why don't you come back for six months as a guest.' And I would do that."

Frazer admits he would be up for a short comeback as he has always been disappointed that he was not able to bow out on screen, and insists it would be believable.

He said: "I left Emmerdale because I got sick of going to work when it was dark and coming home when it was dark. I'd just got married and owned a stud farm. And so I said I would leave."

"Then, 18 months later, I met the producer and he said, 'We are thinking of bringing you back in six months' time. And I said, 'Well, I'm doing this, that and the other.' And he went, 'Well if you don't come back we'll kill you off.' So I said, 'Don't kill him off, leave him in Spain.' And they killed him off in a car crash."

He added: "Fans say 'because it was the Spanish police investigating, it might not have been your body'."

Twice-married Frazer appeared in TV shows such as Dalziel and Pascoe and Outlander after leaving Emmerdale. He still acts and has been in a number of independent films.

When not acting, he attends Dr Who conventions to meet fans and sign autographs.

He played companion Jamie with second Doctor Patrick Troughton between 1966 and 1969. Frazer admitted he does not watch current episodes of Emmerdale but enjoys the repeats on ITV3.

He said: "I just don't want to do five episodes a week, on a treadmill all the time. I have a great life."

mark.jefferies@
mirror.co.uk
Twitter: @MirrorJeffers

"They killed Joe off but fans say 'it may not be your body'"

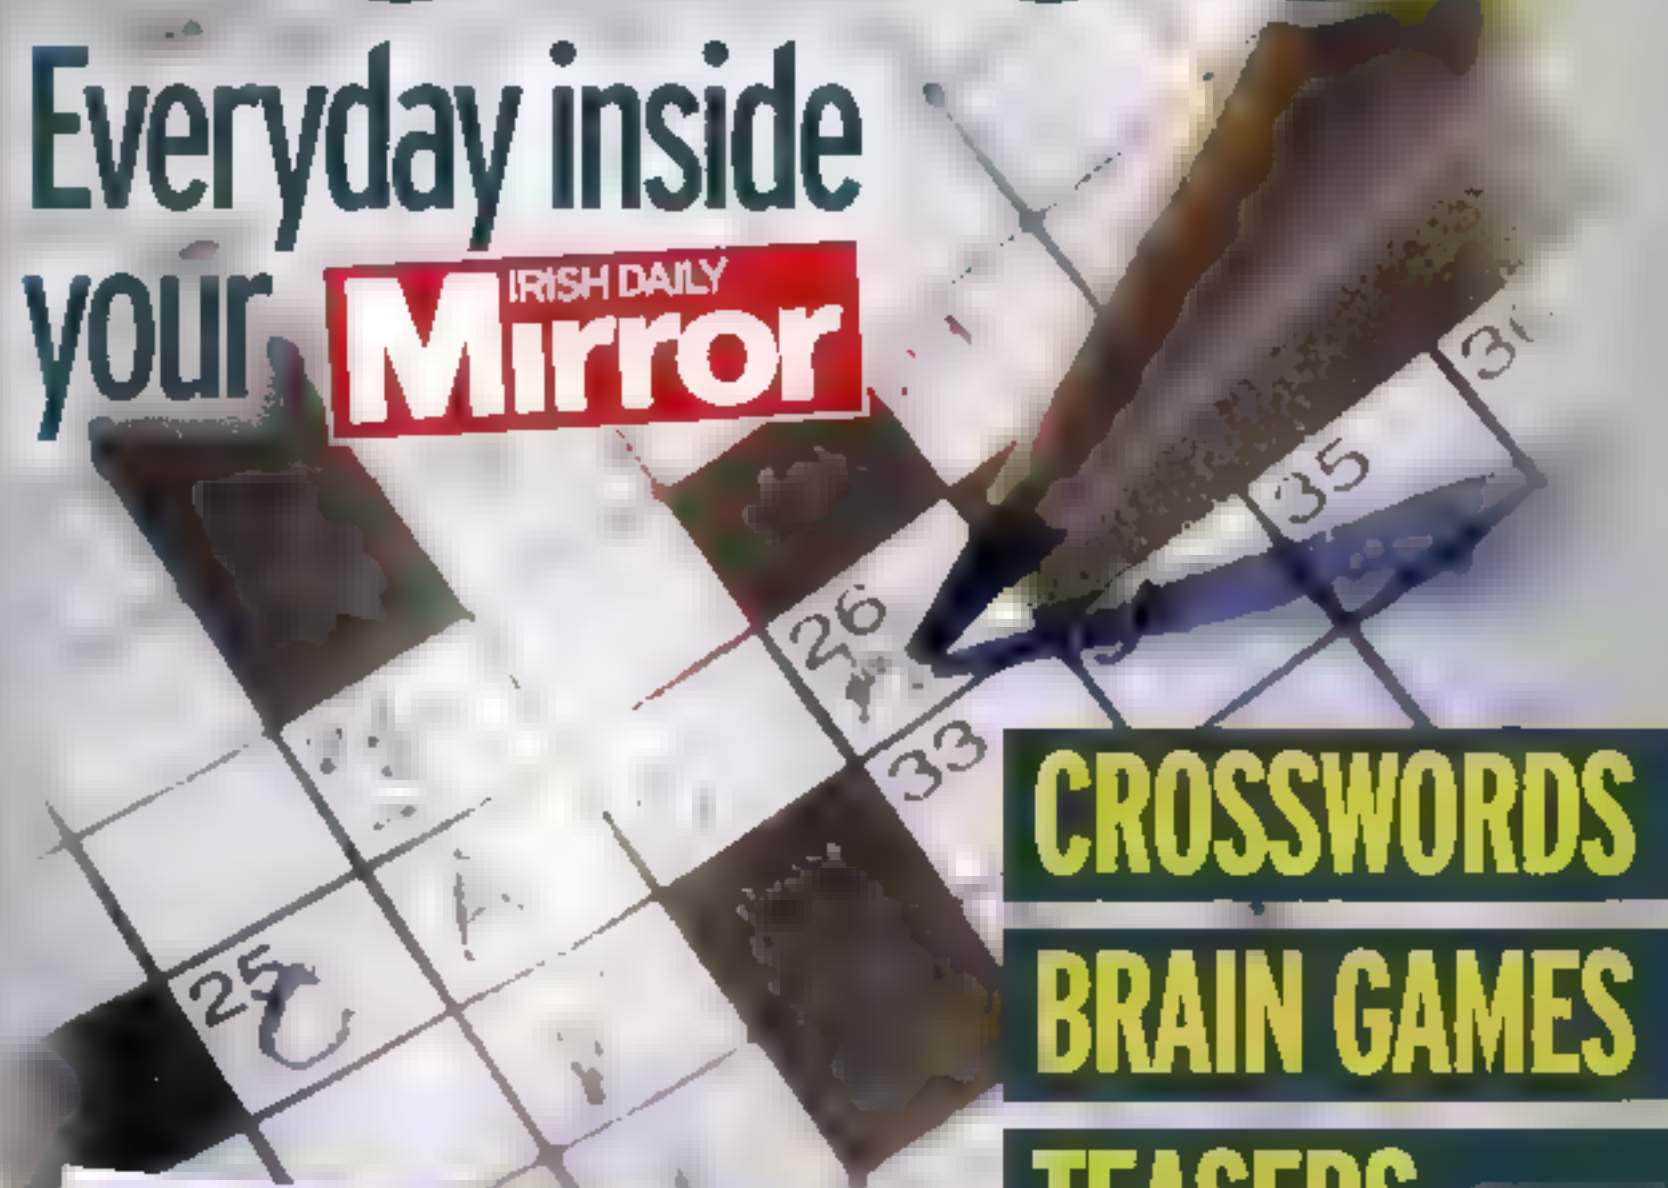

FRAZER HINES ON HOW COMEBACK COULD WORK

FLAT CAP Joe, right, with Alan Turner in soap

FREE PUZZLES PULLOUT

Everyday inside your IRISH DAILY Mirror

CROSSWORDS

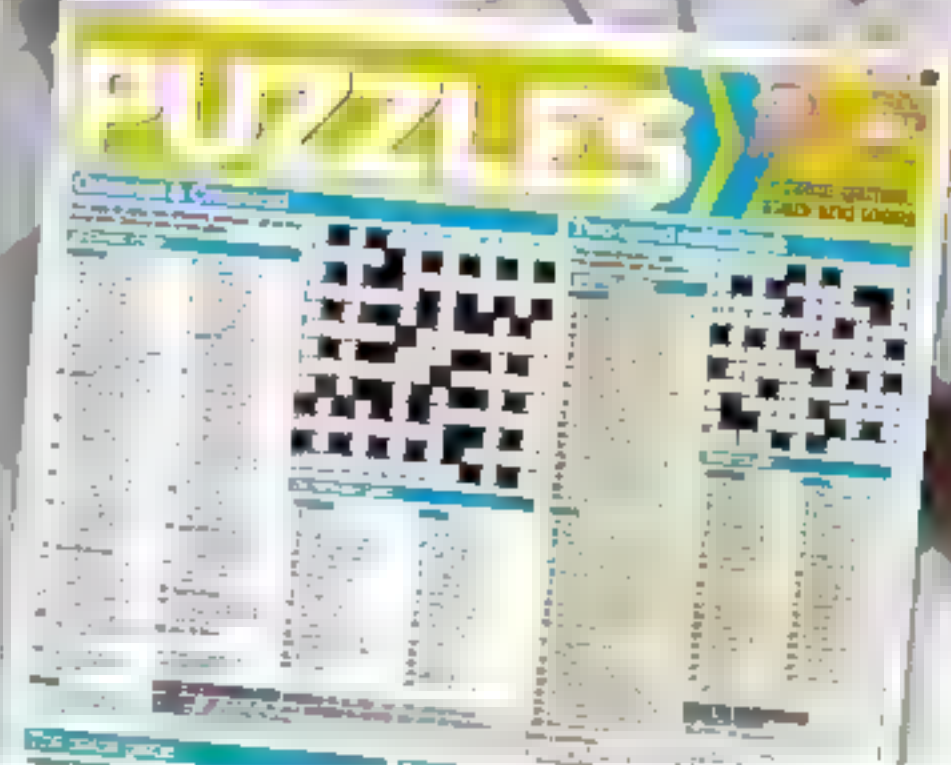

BRAIN GAMES

TEASERS

SUDUKO

CARTOONS

YOUR STARS

ELDERLY SIBLINGS WHO SHOW NO

EXCLUSIVE
BY LUCY THORNTON

Here are six elderly siblings, aged 67 to 90, who think retirement is a dirty word and still work up to 18 hours a day, seven days a week.

Joan Ward, 90, is the nation's oldest greengrocer. Gordon Bird, 84, is a newsagent. Gilbert Bird, 80, has a carpet shop. Patricia Luhrs, 79, runs a cafe. Alwyn Bird, 75, is a hotelier and the baby of the family. Melvyn Bird, 67, is a motorbike riding instructor.

One still chases thieves from his shop, another is planning a motorbike trip across Russia and the eldest won't let broken bones stop her gruffing.

But ask any of these Barnsley-born siblings when they plan to retire and they burst into fits of laughter and tell you to "stop swearing".

Alwyn says: "Retiring is not a word to us. We can't stop working until our older sister does."

All the clan, who between them have 15 children, 18 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, still drive, own their own homes and have never claimed benefits.

They put their work ethic down to a "tough childhood". Some started work aged three and six on their dad's horse-drawn greengrocery cart.

They were so poor they couldn't afford toothbrushes or underwear and used old sag packets to block up the holes in their shoes. It has been a hard life, but their positive mental attitude drives them on, even now.

The chatty gang couldn't stop laughing as they spoke to us about their "infectious" addiction to work.

Joan, a mum of three, runs her stall single-handedly and has worked six days a week for 67 years. She still drives her Ford van collecting her produce and refuses to take time off. A few weeks ago she fell but was soon back at work despite having 10 stitches in a bad head wound.

She says: "People like coming in here because they get a smile and I like chatting to people. What's 90? I feel 60."

Her daughter, Kate, 60, runs a card shop at the same market in Wath upon Dearne, South Yorks, where her mum works.

Kate says: "Nobody can retire until my mum retires because she'd frown on us."

"I once watched her packing apples with a broken arm. I really had to persuade her to let me take her to the hospital."

Gordon was a miner for almost 20 years, working at the coal face, before starting his newsagent business. He starts work at Mellors News in Cudworth, South Yorks, at 4.45am.

WAR BABIES
Joan and brother Gilbert in 1941

NEWSAGENT GORDON, 84

HOTELIER ALWYN, 75

GREENGROCER JOAN, 90

MOTORBIKE INST

Industrious

seven days a week. Gordon says: "I've sold the Daily Mirror for 52 years and I've never been late with the papers and never not delivered. I've two members of staff who are the best in the world. I trust them with my life."

Talking about his upbringing, he says: "My father was brought out of the pit, near dead after an accident. He had a head injury and couldn't work. You couldn't get social security then so he took up a horse and cart and started as a greengrocer."

"Our childhood was very tough, basically we had very little to eat because it was wartime."

"I was six when I started going on the horse and cart with him to Barnsley Market for produce. The only thing we knew was work."

Gordon admits he is the joker of the family, but crooks targeting his business don't find him that funny.

Just a few weeks ago he chased a youth for 100 yards after he tried to pass him a forged £20 note.

He says: "I told him I was going to confiscate it and he snatched it out of my hand and ran out of the shop with a girl. I chased them through the car park, shouting, 'He's a bloody thief'. There was video of them so the police got their car number."

On another occasion thieves fleeing his shop were pelted with objects, including a vase, from the flat above. Gordon says: "My wife was worried she was going to be next out the window."

Dad-of-one Gilbert has run G & E Carpet Shop in Glossop, Derbys, for 48 years after starting out as a slaughterman and then sheepskin salesman.

He says: "I work six days a week, if I'm lucky. Sometimes I only work five if my grandson helps out on a Saturday." Asked what he loves about his job, he says: "The lifting. It keeps you fit picking up carpet and underlay."

SELLING POINT Joan's daughter Kate at work in her shop selling greeting cards

Big sister Joan still keeps him on his toes. He says: "If I'm out doing a measure and she rings up and speaks to my wife, she says, 'Why's he not working?'" Gilbert also started work young. He says: "I was only three when

SIGN OF RETIRING...

DUCTOR MELVYN, 67

CARPET SHOP OWNER GILBERT, 80

CAFE OWNER PATRICIA, 79

"I was ~~sex~~ when I started on the cart. All we knew was work"

GORDON BIRD NEWSAGENT

relations

went on the horse and cart. My job was to keep the tomatoes warm to stop them cracking with the frost."

His sister Pat carries on serving in the cafe as we all chat. She worked with children with learning difficulties and was kept on until she was 70. Gilbert had persuaded her to retire, but weeks later she was back at work. She says: "It was like waiting for God. I watched as someone weeded their very garden and decided it wasn't for me. After I finished my garden, I thought, 'What now?' Then Joan told me someone had walked out of the cafe and I said, 'I'll take it.'"

She now works six days a week from 9am to 4pm before starting on her second job, making wedding cakes. She too started work young. By the time she was 11, her parents had got themselves a fish and chip shop, and Pat was put to work frying spuds.

Dad-of-four, Alwyn, who was in the Navy and served in the Falklands, now runs the Oakleigh Hotel in Blackpool, Lancs, with his wife Muriel, 74.

They work seven days a week, starting with breakfasts, then cleaning and then running the bar, an 18-hour day in times. Alwyn, who started work aged eight, peeling spuds in the chippie like Pat, says: "When we see these kids and the teachers closing schools down because of snow, we wonder why. Because our dad would say, 'Here's a shovel' and we used to have to dig our way to school."

Melvyn, who spent 24 years in the Army, owns the Birds Bike Academy in Barnsley, South Yorks, working 12 to 13 hours a day, seven days a week.

But he will have time off soon as he is planning a 7,000-mile ride across Russia to the Pacific Ocean. He arrives at the cafe carrying his helmet, chilled after booking a client on his way in.

His brothers tease him, saying he had it easy as he was "the baby".

But Melvyn was just three when their mum Kitty died of a stroke.

He says: "Everybody is here to support you in this family. They won't carry you, they'll give you a kick up the arse and say, 'Get your act together'."

"But we're millionaires because we're happy."

lucy.thornton@mirror.co.uk @lucythornton

SQUARE EYES

with Nicola Methven & Mark Jefferies

Nadia Sawalha says the Loose Women are preparing for their naughtiest show yet - a live late-night show.

Insiders at ITV say show bosses will monitor the live gig to see if there is any chance it might work on screen in future - after the 9pm watershed.

Ahead of the show at Birmingham NEC on May 17 Nadia said: "I mean there's bound to be a sex topic and we will be far naughtier. But again we don't want to be crude."

"It's the Loose you love, but with a bit of an edge. It could be easy to go really extreme but we don't want it to be tacky. It's about turning the volume up a couple of notches. Full Fat Loose, not Light Loose. We're not going to suddenly lose all sense of decency."

Andrea McLean will head up the panel and make sure there is some kind of order. She said: "People want the familiarity, if it's too different to the TV show, people will feel a bit disorientated."

The Loose Women also revealed their dream guests for the future on ITV with Nadia adding: "I always want to say somebody that will make my kids think I'm cool. So maybe Drake? Or Millie Bobby Brown, she is just amazing. She is 16, she is producing a movie, she is so smart and a good role model."

Andrea said: "If we could get Adele, that would be great." You can get tickets at www.thismorninglive.co.uk.

DREAM ACTRESS
Millie Bobby Brown

FAVOURITE
Brenda as ITV's Vera

No sex is turning on Vera viewers

Brenda Blethyn believes the secret of Vera's success is no sex, swearing or gore and people always want to hug her.

Filming starts this month for the 10th series of the ITV crime drama. Brenda said: "I think Vera is successful because it makes you feel good about yourself and because Vera is a woman of a certain age I find families watch it."

"There's no gore, no swearing, or it's very mild. It's classic Sunday night viewing, there's a real warmth and you know dad, he's watching, isn't lusting after Vera... well, he might be. So it's a family show."

WELL I NEVER!

Line of Duty actress Maya Soudhi says actor Adrian Dunbar, pictured, sings on set between takes - and joked it could lead to a dramatic change in genre for the hit BBC show.

She said: "When Adrian starts singing on set it's a beautiful moment. He sings folk stuff. 'He's got an amazing voice.'"

"Did you not know that's what series six is? It's Line of Duty the Musical."

Number of viewers who have watched Black Mirror on Netflix. Creator Charlie Brooker admits bosses won't reveal audience figures.

dearcoleen@mirror.co.uk

DEAR COLEEN

Ireland's most straight-talking problem page

SHOULD I GIVE CHEATING EX 2ND CHANCE?

Dear Coleen

I split up with the father of my children four years ago after he had an affair with a mutual friend. The affair didn't last and he moved to Spain where he now lives.

He's been in a serious relationship for two years, but that's now ended and he's been in touch with me recently to say he regrets cheating on me and wants to move back home to give our relationship another go. Because of arrangements for the children, we've seen each other quite regularly over the past four years.

I've had boyfriends but not a serious relationship in that time. I still have feelings for him, but he hurt me very badly. He's always been emotionally immature, but maybe he's grown up. Would I be mad to give him another chance?

I still cry every day three years after he walked out

Dear Coleen

Please can you help me before I destroy my life? I'm 53 and was married for nearly 32 years before my ex left me for a woman 20 years younger than him with two young kids.

I met him at school when I was 13 and he was 15, and it was love at first sight. We've had some brilliant years and some difficult ones too, with redundancy, money, health and bereavement issues.

We were very much in love and he was my best friend, lover and soul mate. Then he left me three years ago at Christmas and I just can't get over it and move on.

I'm desperately sad. I cry every day and I had to take two months off work because I had a meltdown and I am seriously destroying myself.

I've had several sessions of counselling, but it's not really helping. I just want my life to go back to how it was with my husband.

He's engaged to this new woman now and I'm dreading him getting married. But why can't I get over this and move on with my life? I feel like it's over for me and he just doesn't care.

Why did he do this to me? I didn't deserve it and I can't see any light at the end of the tunnel.

I'd really welcome your advice.

Coleen says

I can't answer why he left the marriage, but I do know that you can't expect your life to go back to how it was. It's really tough, but you have to accept that he's getting married and, from what you've said, it doesn't seem as if there's any way back.

I think you can't move on because you're not allowing yourself to do so. You really have to close the door on the past and focus on the future. Stop putting all your energy into thinking about him and what he's doing and think about yourself.

You're right - he won't be spending all his time considering you.

Look, I know it's not easy. You can either let it ruin the rest of your life or you can fight back and be happy again. And there is light at the end of the tunnel - even if it's just a speck at the moment. You've survived the worst of it and now you need to stop just surviving and start living again.

I think it's extra hard in your case because you met when you were so young and you've never really known anything different. But, I promise, you can make another life for yourself and you should accept all the support going from friends and family.

Counselling can also take time to make a breakthrough - so stick with it.

Coleen says

If you give him another chance, it should be on your terms and you should take it very slowly. He must prove he's trustworthy and serious about his commitment. If it's what he really wants, he should move back home, find his own place and you should date again.

Don't jump straight back into a relationship (or bed). You need to give yourself time to judge if it's right for you. He can't expect to waltz back into your life after what happened just because things haven't gone well for him.

Think about the impact on the kids too, and managing their expectations. What if he moved in and things turned pear-shaped? That would be confusing for them and they'd have to go through the trauma of their dad moving out all over again.

YOU SAY

“The siblings arguing over who to do with their dad's ashes should divide them up between them and, of course, consult their dad!”

Coleen, April 9:

You can scatter ashes anywhere in the UK, as long as you need the permission of the landowner. Environmental guidelines prohibit locations such as rivers or mountains.

Christine, via email

MY SECRET SEX WITH BEST FRIEND

Dear Coleen

I met my best friend four years ago and we recently had sex. I'm not gay and nor is she - we've always been attracted to men and are married to men.

Right from the beginning, I felt we were soulmates, but I didn't ever think about her sexually. I just loved spending time with her. Sex for her is a purely physical thing, whereas I need to feel an emotional connection.

I started to feel that emotional connection with her and fantasised about us having sex, but never thought it would happen, and it happened very fast. I loved every second of it and can't wait to be with her again.

The problem is, I'm not sure if this is how she feels. I love her so much and don't want to lose her - what should I do?

Coleen says

It might be that it's just about sex for her - thrilling and great fun - but I'm afraid the only way of knowing is to ask her where she sees it going.

You need to have a bigger discussion here that involves talking about your marriages and the impact on those relationships. Whether you carry on this affair in secret - because, let's be honest, that's what it is - or end up coming out and being together, it's going to have an effect.

So ask yourself if you're willing to risk what you have with your husband and imagine what it would be like in the cold light of day if you weren't with him.

I also think you have to be careful that your judgment isn't being clouded by the excitement of this affair - at the moment you're caught up in quite extreme emotions, which makes it hard to be logical.

So your first step should be to have an honest conversation with your friend, who might have no intention of leaving her marriage to have a relationship with you.

MirrorDating
Find the perfect date online

Sign up now at mirrordating.co.uk

JOIN
FREE
TODAY

PROBLEMS? Tell Coleen Nolan about them and she'll give you an honest answer... every weekday in the Irish Mirror

EMAIL: dearcoleen@mirror.co.uk

WRITE TO: Coleen Nolan, The Daily Mirror, One Canada Square, London E14 5AP.

- sorry, but Coleen can't reply personally.

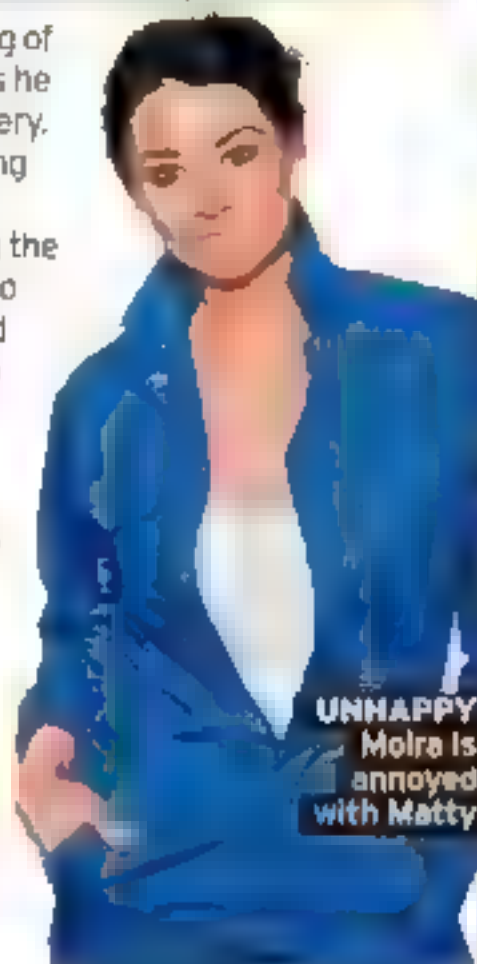

EMMERDALE

Virgin Media One, 7pm

Matty's been a bag of nerves all week as he prepares for surgery.

Molra goes along with him to the appointment with the consultant, not too happy that he and Victoria had been boozing the night before.

During the meeting she does the talking as the doctor explains the procedure, but Matty is left fuming at her interference and makes it clear he doesn't want her at the hospital.

UNHAPPY Molra is annoyed with Matty

DODGY DEALINGS Gary's doing debt collections for Rick

CORONATION STREET

Virgin Media One, 7.30pm and 8.30pm

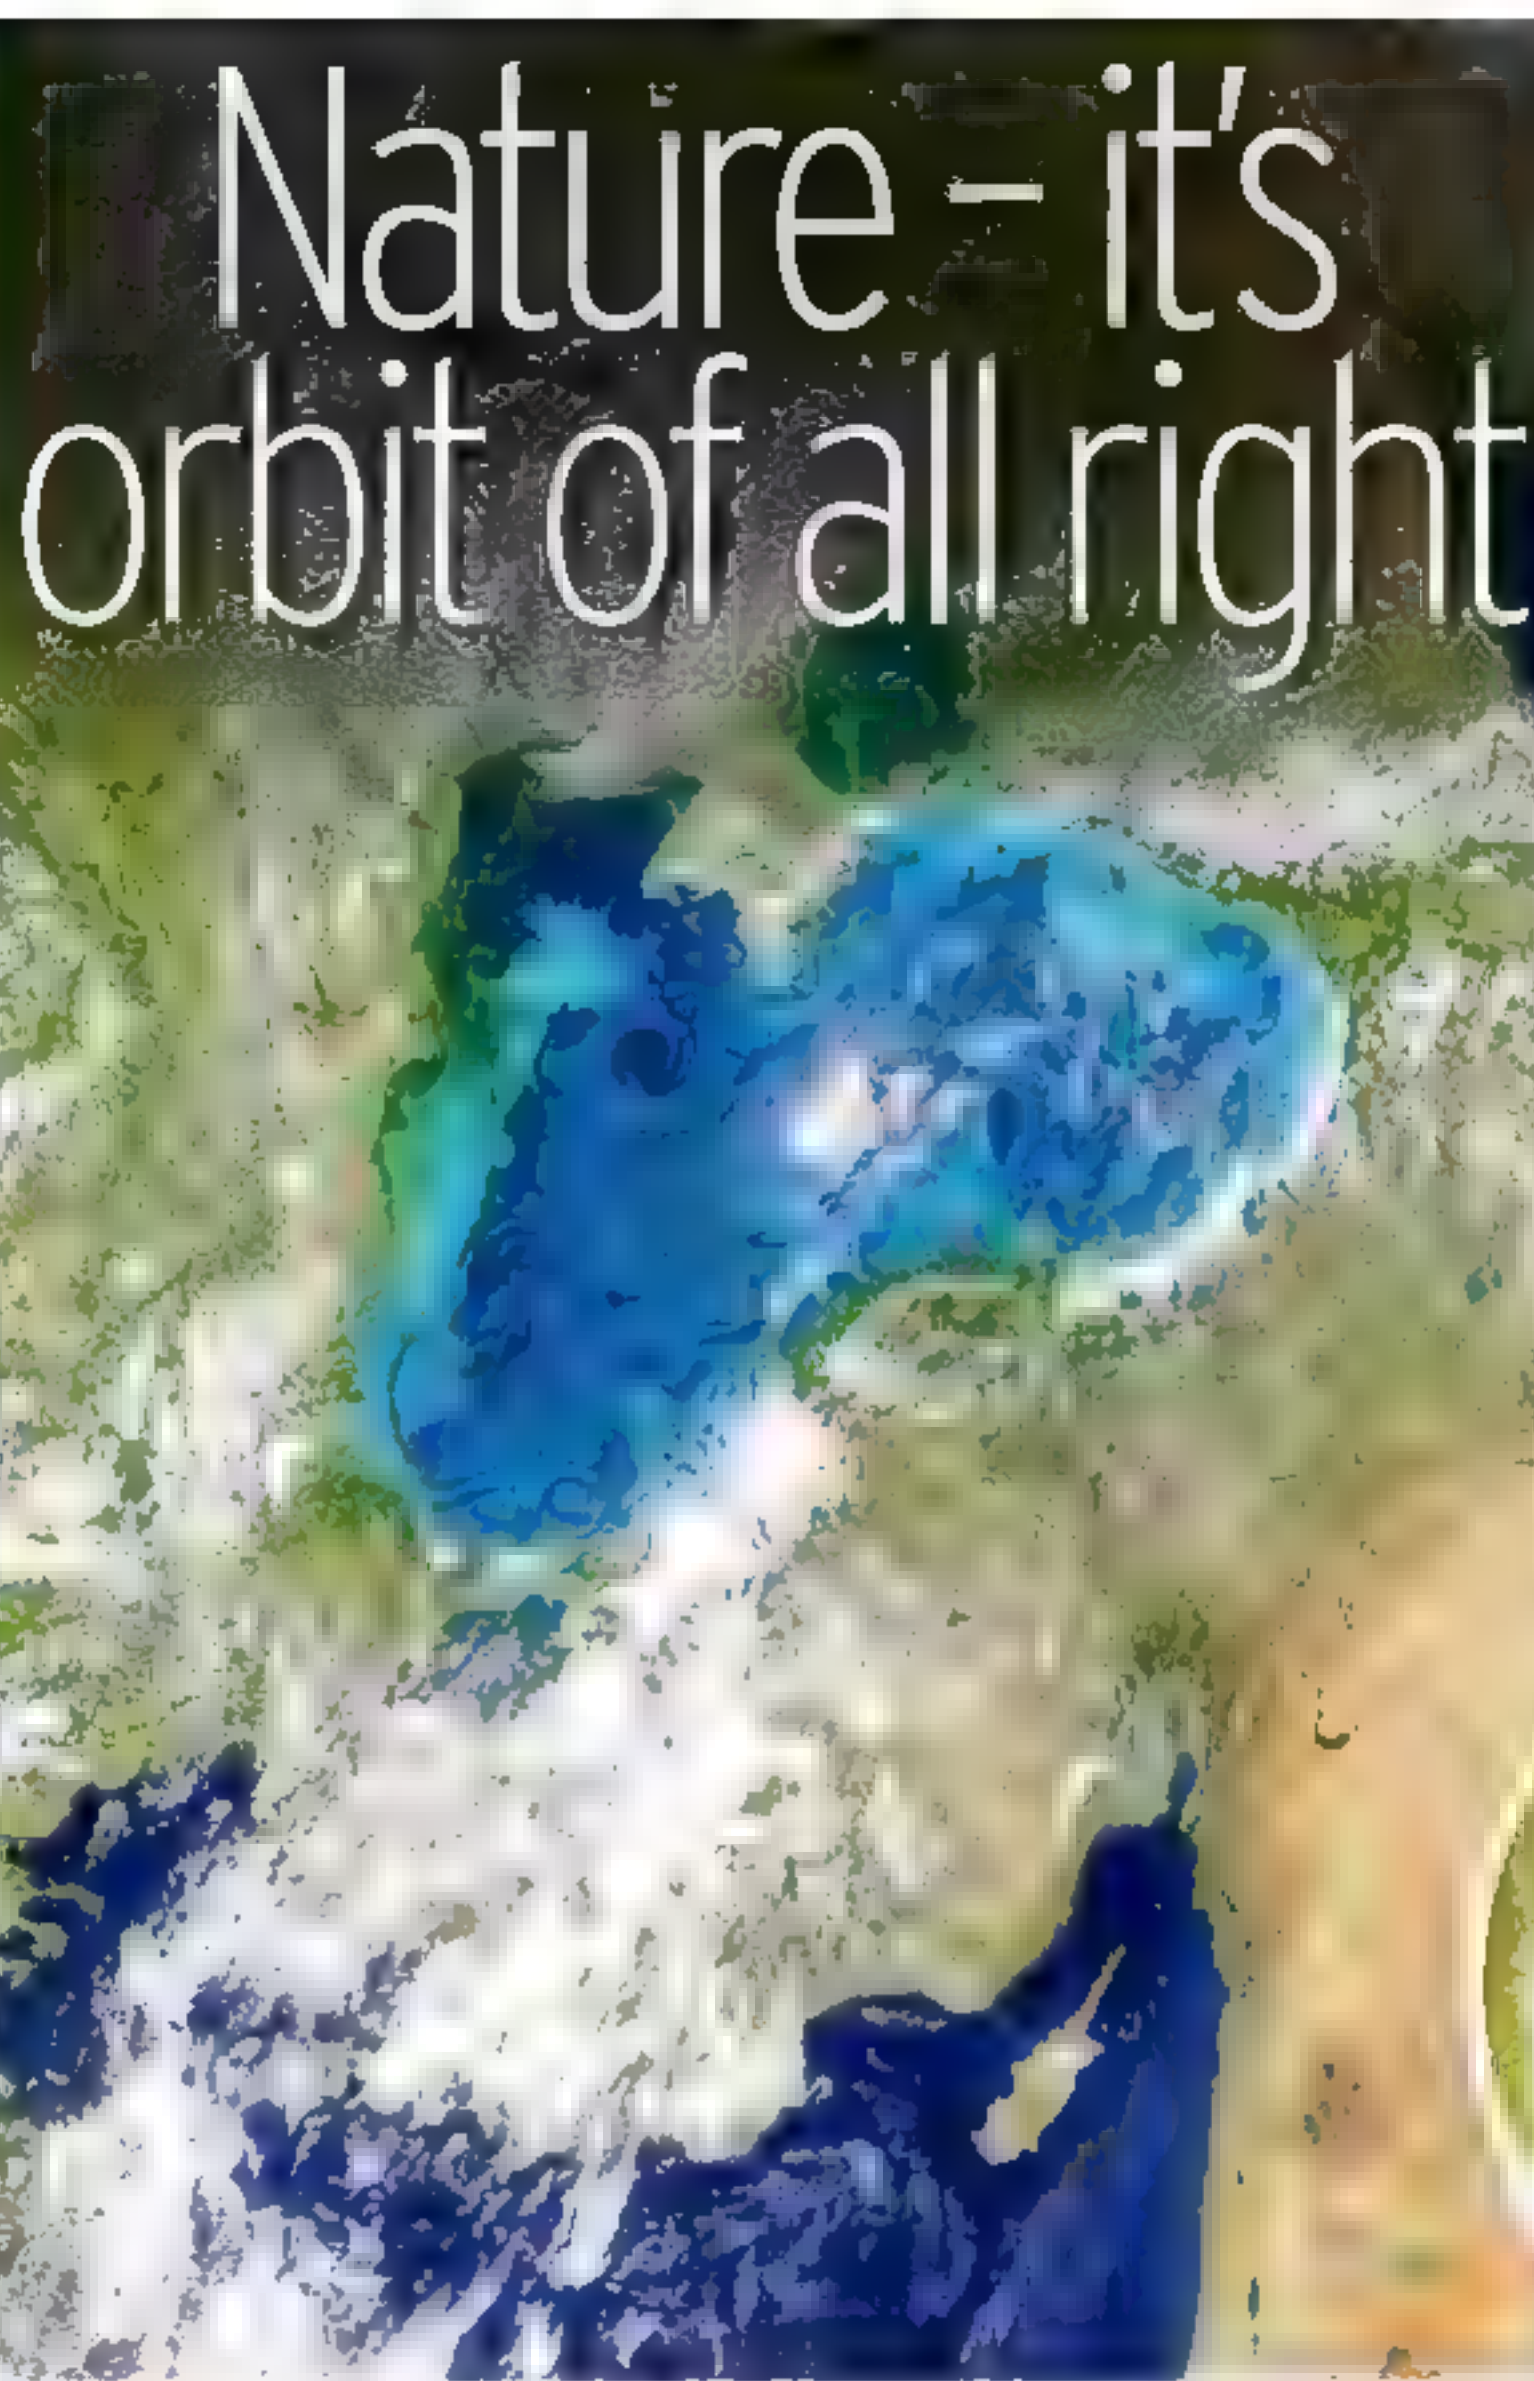

You'd think Gary Windass would have learned his lesson by now. But nope, he continues to lie to the woman he loves and get himself caught up in even more trouble.

Keen to find out what he's up to, Sarah follows him and sees him getting into a van with a woman. He's not having an affair, but is working for dodgy geezer Rick doing debt collections. Looks as if things are about to turn violent.

IN THE IRISH MIRROR SATURDAY

More TV and film news online at irishmirror.ie

EARTH FROM SPACE

BBC1, 9pm

YOU have to hand it to the BBC's Natural History Unit - it keeps pushing the boundaries of incredible telly.

It has transported us up mountains, across deserts, into the clouds, deep under the ocean - pretty much everywhere.

So it stands to reason that the next dimension to conquer is space. And thanks to the dozens of satellites that circle the earth, now that can be done too.

It's like having another camera crew hundreds of miles up in the sky. Thanks to incredible technology, we can see vast swathes of our planet which have been previously hidden, and also zoom right down on those areas to see individual animals and humans.

It can do things like track a herd of elephants through North Kenya from orbit, while also following them closely on the ground. That meta-perspective gives us a chance to view the ever-changing landscape, and unfortunately also see the damage being caused, as well as tell the story of the natural world like never before.

Time-lapse photography shows how the land is transformed after the first rain following a drought, how underwater volcanoes have shaped the landscape, and even how new penguin colonies have been identified thanks to their poo!

There are some remarkable sights which can be viewed from space in fascinating detail.

Narrated by actor Chiwetel Ejiofor (nope, no Sir David Attenborough this time - we'll just have to deal with it), this is epic and mind-blowing telly.

HEAVENS ABOVE Snub nose monkey in China tracked from space

GARDEN PARTY Karen and Michael

GROW, COOK, EAT

RTE One, 8.30pm

This week, Michael Kelly shows viewers how to grow their own French Beans while Karen O'Donoghue visits Ireland's new festival, All Together Now.

Michael says French beans are one of the most straight forward vegetables to grow.

This week he shows viewers how to get their own.

Meanwhile, Karen heads to the festival held in Portlaoise, Co Waterford with sustainability as well as art and music at its core.

Organisers made the festival a plastic-free zone with traders directed to only use compostable packaging with strictly no single-use plastics allowed.

Michael then visits Tramore Educate Together to serve pupils lunch as part of Eat Together.

The social eating programme, co-developed by GIY with the school, aims to help children connect with food by sitting down to eat at a table instead of wolfing down half a sandwich.

Later, chef Katie Sanderson makes beans on toast - but in a whole new way.

STACEY DOOLEY INVESTIGATES - SHOT BY MY NEIGHBOUR

RTE Two, 10.30pm

The terror between communities in the North during the Troubles may have passed, but violence within communities goes on.

Stacey Dooley meets victims of "kneecappings", as well as those who are standing up to the attackers.

There's a significantly growing number of punishment attacks inside republican and loyalist neighbourhoods

- and the main victims are young people. Focusing on republican areas, Strictly Come Dancing star Stacey discovers how paramilitary gangs dish out their own rough justice for anti-social behaviour like drug dealing and vandalism.

Those who commit these crimes might expect to be shot in the legs by people who live in the same neighbourhood.

Stacey meets people living in these areas to try and understand why some defend the armed gangs who act as judge and jury.

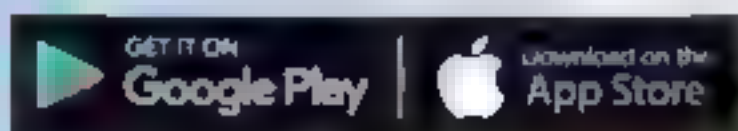

QUESTIONS Stacey Dooley

RTE ONE	RTE TWO	VIRGIN ONE	VIRGIN TWO	BBC1	BBC2
6.00am EuroNews 7.35 Teleshopping 8.10 Today with Maura and Dailhi Magazine show (R) 10.05 The Ellen DeGeneres Show 11.00 Dr Phil 11.55 Shortland Street 12.25pm Doctors Mrs Tembe faces a great challenge, while Ayesha meets an old friend 1.00 RTE News 1.30 Home and Away Dean breaks into the mailbox, while Ben questions his commitment 2.00 Neighbours Mark begins an investigation into the identity of the hit-and-run driver, and Miranda is suspected 2.25 EastEnders Kathy is surprised to learn Lola's news, and Sash makes an announcement (R) 3.00 Fair City Doug feels betrayed by Ray's lack of trust (R) 3.30 Today with Maura and Dailhi Magazine show 5.40 Nuacht 6.00 The Angelus 6.01 RTE News	6.00am EuroNews 7.00 Living with a Fairy 7.05 Bing Bunny 7.20 Peek Zoo 7.30 Everything's Rosie 7.40 Dream Street 8.00 Curious George 8.25 Matt Hatter Chronicles 8.50 Pig, Goat, Banana, Cricket 9.15 Jamie Johnson 9.45 Horrible Histories 10.20 Deadly Top Tens 10.50 ALM Free Willy 2: The Adventure Home (1995/U) Family adventure, starring Jason James Richter and Michael Madsen ★★ ★★ 12.35pm Pig, Goat, Banana, Cricket 1.00 Scooby-Doo 1.25 Teen Titans Go! 1.50 Matt Hatter Chronicles 2.35 Strange Hill High 2.40 The Next Step 3.05 The Bagel and Becky Show 3.20 Austin & Ally 3.45 Corneli and Bernie 4.00 The Ellen DeGeneres Show Light-hearted chat show 5.00 The Simpsons (R) 6.00 Neighbours Bea and Karl question their judgement (R) 6.30 Home and Away Raffy decides to quit school (R)	6.10am The Tonight Show Matt Cooper and Ivan Yates give their take on major stories (R) 7.00 Ireland AM A topical mixture of interviews, lifestyle features and news stories 10.30 This Morning Lifestyle magazine, featuring celebrity interviews and showbiz news 12.30pm News at 12.30 1.00 The Chase Two editions of the quiz show where Bradley Walsh hosts as four players take on a trivia genius (R) 3.00 Elaine Host Elaine Crowley presents in-depth interviews 4.00 The Lazy Chef Simon Lamont rustles up a lazy chicken pasta roast that packs the flavour but cuts the time (R) 4.30 Judge Judy Judge Judith Sheindlin presides over family cases, small claims disputes and marital dissensions 5.30 News 5.30 6.00 The Six O'Clock Show Featuring some of Ireland's celebrities and sampling food from the country's best chefs	7.20am Big Star's Little Star Stephen Mulhern invites youngsters to spill the beans about their parents (R) 8.20 Tipping Point Four players take on the coin-drop quiz (R) 9.20 The Jeremy Kyle Show Double bill of the talk show, featuring confrontations (R) 11.30 Ireland AM A topical mix of lifestyle interviews, features and leading headlines (R) 12.30pm Loose Women The panel show welcomes a famous face for topical discussion 1.30 Bondi Rescue Cameras follow lifeguards in Australia (R) 2.00 Emmerdale Robert and Aaron are offered hope (R) 2.30 Emmerdale Falth's attempt to help goes awry, while Matty confides in Victoria (R) 3.00 Xpose The team presents entertainment updates and the newest fashion trends (R) 4.00 Tipping Point Two editions of the coin-drop quiz (R) 6.00 The Chase Bradley Walsh presents the quiz show (R)	6.00am Breakfast Headlines 9.15 Animal Park Easter Special Two hippos are grumpy (R) 10.00 Homes Under the Hammer Property programme (R) 11.00 The Sheriffs Are Coming (R) 11.45 Close Calls: On Camera 12.35pm Bargain Hunt A contest at Newbury Racecourse (R) 1.00 BBC News 1.30 BBC Newsline 1.45 Doctors Karen takes on a lot of work with her VPAS visits 2.15 Curiosity Paul Martin hosts the collectibles competition 3.00 Escape to the Country In the rural East Midlands (R) 3.45 Home Is Where the Art Is The artists are heading to an art-loving home in Cheshire 4.30 The Repair Shop Suzie Fletcher tackles the repair of a worn out leather pouffe 5.15 Pointless Low-scoring quiz 6.00 BBC News 6.30 BBC Newsline 6.55 Party Election Broadcast by the UK Independence Party	6.30am The Repair Shop (R) 7.15 Home Is Where the Art Is (R) 8.00 Mary Berry's Quick Cooking At the HMS Defender (R) 8.30 Gardeners' World Monty Don tends the veg plot (R) 9.00 BBC News: Weather 10.00 Victoria Derbyshire Topical news and in-depth discussion 11.00 BBC Newsroom Live 1.00pm The Boss Presented by Susan Calman (R) 1.45 Back in Time for Dinner Double bill: the family experience the 1970s; the clan enter the 1980s (R) 3.45 The Hairy Builder Two editions: Dave Myers visits Ampleforth, North Yorkshire; Dave Myers is in Leicester (R) 4.45 Eggheads Jeremy Vine hosts the long-running quiz (R) 5.15 Flog It! Paul Martin and the team are in Gloucester (R) 6.00 Richard Osman's House of Games With Hugh Dennis and Beattie Edmondson (R) 6.30 Island Medics At the Gilbert Bain Hospital in Shetland (R)

Don't miss this month's RSVP magazine...

DOWNLOAD OUR NEW FABULOUS FREE APP

ON SALE NOW

7.00 Nationwide The team presents an eclectic round-up of the latest news and events from across the country 7.30 Desperate Houses Roisin Murphy meets a family of seven at their three-bedroom house in Leiklip, Co. Kildare (R) 8.00 Fair City Doug and Sean get off to a rocky start until Ray smooths things over, while Sharon turns down Lee's offer 8.30 Grow, Cook, Eat Karen O'Donoghue visits All Together Now, a new festival held in Portlaoise, Co. Waterford 9.00 RTE News 9.35 Brendan O'Connor's Cutting Edge The presenter is joined by guests Mike Ross, Malread Ronan and Niamh Horan as they take a look at the main stories making the headlines this week at home and abroad, as well as anything else under the radar 10.35 All Round to Mrs Brown's Agnes and the family open their doors to special guests sports presenter Clare Balding and comedian Johnny Vegas and his mammy. Plus, Made in Chelsea stars Jamie Laing and Spencer Matthews stop by (R) 11.45 In the Club After walking away from her high-flying career, Roanna is struggling to find a new job, she reluctantly turns to ex-husband Ray for help 12.55am Creedon's Road Less Travelled. John Creedon journeys from Dublin to Galway (R) 1.55 Ireland's Fittest Family (R) 2.50 Operation Transformation (R) 3.45 Say Yes to the Dress (R) 4.10 Daniel and Majella's B&B Road Trip (R) 4.40 Getaways 5.05 At Your Service (R) 5.35-6.00am EuroNews. Global updates	7.00 The Big Bang Theory A sick Sheldon annoys the gang, so they determine to have a weekend without him (R) 7.25 Saving Lives At Sea The team is called out to help a climber who has fallen in a remote cave on the Gower Peninsula, while the life of a teenager who ignored red warning flags to continue surfing is in serious danger (R) 8.35 Grand Designs: House of the Year Kevin McCloud hosts as the Royal Institute of British Architects seeks the best new home in Britain. This edition features a farmhouse in Somerset and a villa with a spectacular jagged roof (R) 9.35 Killing Eve Carolyn introduces Eve to her new team before Eve briefs them on the Villanelle case. Villanelle, needing to lie low while she recovers, finds a Good Samaritan to take her in and care for her. Eve finds out a secret that Carolyn has been hiding from her 10.30 Stacey Dooley Investigates The host meets victims of 'kneecappings', as well as communities who are standing up to the attackers, and tries to speak to some of those behind the attacks 11.25 Home from Home Neil organises a family walk to Helvellyn via Striding Edge (R) 12.05am The Handmaid's Tale. Offred adjusts to a new way of life, the arrival of an unexpected person disrupts the Colonies, and a family is torn apart by the rise of Gilead (R) 1.15 Elementary. Holmes and Watson investigate when a reality TV star is killed (R) 2.05 Lethal Weapon (R) 2.55-6.00am EuroNews	7.00 Emmerdale Moira oversteps the mark, while Priya feels pushed out by Alesha, and Harriet makes a discovery 7.30 Coronation Street Gary meets a familiar face on his first day collecting debts, and Michelle lashes out at Robert 8.00 News at 8 A look at the day's main news headlines from a regional, national and international perspective 8.30 Coronation Street Nick diverts the police's attention, while Chesney catches Gemma fleeing Joseph 9.00 Doctor in the House Peter and Catherine live in Cloyne, Co. Cork with their children Sarah, Roisin and Peadar. The couple learn about the effect that alcohol and poor diet has had on their health, before they revamp their lifestyle 10.00 UEFA Champions League Highlights Action from the night's two quarter-final matches, which were the all-Premier League tie between Manchester City and Tottenham, plus Liverpool's trip to Portugal to face Porto 11.00 The Tonight Show Presenters Matt Cooper and Ivan Yates are joined by a panel of guests from politics, comedy, sport and more, to offer their unique take on the big national and international stories making the headlines 12.00am Moorside. After the discovery of Shannon Matthews, the police and her friends attempt to discover the truth behind her disappearance (R) 1.15 Trauma. Dan takes matters into his own hands to try to uncover the truth (R) 2.15 Teleshopping 5.25-6.10am The Six O'Clock Show. Witty chat show (R)	7.00 The Chase Presenter Bradley Walsh introduces the general knowledge quiz show, as four contestants join forces in an attempt to outsmart a ruthless trivia genius who is determined to prevent them from winning big money (R) 8.00 Renovation Nation Laura Woods presents the show that gives a helping hand to charitable organisations and local groups across the country by refitting, revamping and reviving their much-loved spaces in a day (R) 9.00 Locked Up Strangers Prison The final edition of the three-part documentary offering an intimate look at life inside one of Britain's most notorious maximum security prisons, following both inmates and staff (R) 10.00 News on Two A look at the day's main news headlines from a regional, national and international perspective 10.30 Coronation Street Double bill: Gary meets a familiar face on his first day collecting debts, and Michelle lashes out at Robert; Nick diverts the police's attention, and Chesney catches Gemma fleeing Joseph at poker (R) 11.30 Emmerdale Moira oversteps the mark, while Priya feels pushed out by Alesha, and Harriet makes a discovery (R) 12.00am Ibiza Weekenders. Double bill: resort head Imogen causes problems with her new team of reps when she bonds with one, and Ben over-indulges in his quest; Ben's non-stop party attitude raises tensions, the male reps are excited by the arrival of a pair of Playboy bunny guests (R)	7.00 The One Show Matt Baker and Alex Jones introduce a selection of some of the UK's biggest topical stories. The hosts are also joined by celebrity guests from the eclectic worlds of music, television and entertainment 8.00 Supermarket Secrets Gregg Wallace sees how Ocado are using robots to revolutionise online delivery. Meanwhile, Nikki tests out the Co-op's new pay in the aisle technology as we move towards a checkout future 9.00 NEW Earth from Space Four-part documentary using mainly satellite images to illustrate the interconnectivity of our planet. Here, elephants struggle through drought, and previously unknown penguin colonies are revealed 10.00 BBC News 10.25 BBC Newsline 10.35 Glow Up: Britain's Next Make-Up Star The four semi-finalists head to Carnaby Street for an event to celebrate the history of music, fashion and make-up on the street, with each allocated a different decade from its colourful musical past 11.35 A Question of Sport Sue Barker hosts a special episode featuring some of the best bits from the series. Captains Matt Dawson and Phil Tufnell are joined by guests, including Sam Quek, Kelly Sotherton, Nick Pope, Chris Robshaw and Stuart Pearce (R) 12.05am Celebrity Painting Challenge (R) 1.05 Weather for the Week Ahead 1.10-6.00am BBC News. Headlines	7.00 Antiques Road Trip Another edition of the documentary series in which antiques experts search for treasures and compete to make the most money at auction - but how much cash will they accumulate? (R) 8.00 Great British Menu The heats for the Scottish chefs begin as Gordon Jones, Lorna McNeer and Ben Reade compete to impress the judges with their starter and fish course for this year's music-themed menu 9.00 MotherFatherSon Max under the spotlight as a nation stands on the brink, and Kathryn must decide whether to make a huge sacrifice in order to expose the truth and bring down Max's empire for good 10.00 Island of Dreams Comedy special set on Necker Island, starring Harry Enfield as Sir Richard Branson (R) 10.30 Newsnight In-depth investigation and analysis of national and international stories, with Emma Barnett 11.15 The Murder that Changed a Nation Documentary examining the infamous murder of Stephen Lawrence. Here, the focus is on the run-up to Stephen's murder and the police investigation that follows (R) 12.15am DRY SOS: The Big Build. In Hestie near Hull, the team and hundreds of volunteers step up to help roofer Darren and his sons (R) 1.15 Race Across the World. The five teams leave Delphi for the next checkpoint - Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan (R) 2.15-6.30am This Is BBC Two
---	--	---	--	---	--

DAVE

6.00am Teleshopping 7.10 Dara O'Brain's Go 8.00 Bit 8.00 Top Gear 9.00 Red Bull Soapbox 2016 10.00 American Pickers 10.55 World's Most Dangerous Roads 11.55 Red Bull Soapbox Race 2018 12.55pm Top Gear: India Special 2.50 Top Gear: Winter Olympics Special 3.50 Top Gear Middle East Special 5.30 Red Bull Soapbox 2016

7.00 World's Most Dangerous Roads Hugh Bonneville and Jessica Hynes drive through the mountains of Georgia

8.00 Last Stop Garage Double bill: the team attempts to repair a hovercraft; the CRB crew helps a man get into the paving business by building a recycling truck

9.00 QI XL Stephen Fry docks Jenny Eclair, Johnny Vegas, Bill Bailey and Alan Davies points in this Christmas special

10.00 Have I Got a Bit More News for You Featuring guest host Katherine Ryan

11.00 Porters Simon turns to sperm donation

11.40 Have I Got a Bit More News for You

12.40am QI XL 1.40 Have I Got a Bit More News for You 2.40 Go 8 Bit 3.05 The Last Man on Earth 4.00-6.00am Teleshopping

W

6.15am Extreme Makeover: Home Edition 8.00 Tipping Point 10.00 The Bill 11.00 Inside the Ambulance 12.00noon Tipping Point 2.00 My Dream Home Double bill 4.00 Renovate My Home: Leave It to Bryan Two editions 5.00 Tipping Point: Coin-drop quiz show 6.00 John Torode's Australia In Tasmania

7.00 Fantasy Homes by the Sea Craig and Jo look how move from London to north Cornwall on their £750,000 budget

8.00 Inside the Ambulance Paramedics help a student with a dislocated knee and a child who has drunk a toxic liquid

9.00 Alex Jones - Fertility Me The host delves into issues affecting so many people, having decided the age of 38 to try for a baby with her new husband

10.00 The World According to Kids Children in Gloucester, Liverpool and the Isle of Mull discuss fear and danger

11.00 The Shift: Women on the Force Senior crime scene investigator Jade is called out to a death in Keighley

12.00m't 999 Rescue Squad 1.00 Rent a Cop 1.30 Judge Faith 1.50 John Bishop: In Conversation with... 3.00-6.15am Shopping

REALLY

6.00am Fantasy Homes by the Sea 7.00 Cruise TV 8.00 Homes Under the Hammer 10.00 Tipping Point 12.00noon Escape to the Country 2.00 Fantasy Homes by the Sea 3.00 Sarah Beeny's Renovate Don't Relocate 4.00 Most Haunted 5.00 Ghost Adventures 6.00 Antiques Road Trip

7.00 Escape to the Country An ex-pat couple seek a new home in Somerset

8.00 Sarah Beeny's Renovate Don't Relocate With Hannah and Rob, who have returned to the UK from the US to start a family

9.00 One Born Every Minute Being unable to control her labour heightens first-time mother Natasha's anxiety

10.00 Nightwatch: Emergency After Dark Robb and Bethany rush to the scene of a man shot by police, while Tony and Dave treat a stab victim. Last in series

11.00 Inside the Ambulance A man has life-threatening injuries after being viciously stabbed during a gang attack

12.00m't Partners in Crime 1.00 Crime Stories 2.00 Shopping 4.00 Nightwatch: Emergency After Dark 4.45 My Extreme Weight Loss Journey 5.30-6.00am Give a Dog a Home

ALIBI

6.00am Shopping 7.20 Murdoch Mysteries 9.05 Rizzoli & Isles 10.00 Sue Thomas: FBEye 11.00 Unforgettable 12.00noon Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries 1.00 Motive 2.00 Murdoch Mysteries 4.00 Rizzoli & Isles 5.00 Rush 6.00 Motive 7.00 Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries 8.00 Murdoch Mysteries 9.00 Ms Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries 10.00 The Coroner A man is found dead in a shipwrecked container on the beach 11.00 New Tricks 12.20am Crossing Lines 2.30 Murdoch Mysteries 4.00-6.00am Shopping

DRAMA

6.00am Teleshopping 7.10 Bergerac 8.00 Juliet Bravo 9.00 Pie in the Sky 10.00 Classic Holby City 11.00 The Bill 1.00pm Classic EastEnders 2.20 Bergerac 3.20 Lovejoy 4.20 Pie in the Sky 5.20 Birds of a Feather 6.00 Brush Strokes 6.40 Bread Billy is in trouble

7.20 Last of the Summer Wine Clegg and Foggy come up with some interesting creations when they try to build a bike

8.00 Rosemary & Thyme Double bill: a barrister employing the pair to spruce up his overgrown garden discovers his cousin has been drowned; the steuthing duo continue their enquiries after their client Martin Frazer's cousin, who supposedly drowned, is spotted alive

10.00 New Tricks The team investigates a supposed government cover-up which conspiracy theorists think is connected to a crash-landed UFO

11.15 Taggart Two skulls are found on the site of a bypass road near Glasgow, and Taggart believes one could be that of a 19-year-old who disappeared

2.20am The Bill 3.10 Birds of a Feather Classic sitcom 4.00-6.00am Teleshopping

GOLD

6.00am Teleshopping 7.40 The Piglet Files 8.40 Goodnight Sweetheart 10.00 Last of the Summer Wine 12.00noon 2Point4 Children 1.20 Hi-de-Hi! 2.00 dinnerladies 2.40 2Point4 Children 4.00 Last of the Summer Wine 6.00 Hi-de-Hi! 6.40 dinnerladies Sitcom

7.20 Dad's Army Double bill: Mainwaring and Wilson end up holding a bomb in the bank; Captain Mainwaring is horrified to discover that he is not actually a commissioned officer

8.40 Blackadder Double bill: an ostrich feather and a puritanical aunt cause chaos; the evil Prince Ludwig kidnaps Blackadder and Lord Melchett

10.00 Live at the Apollo Jack Whitehall performs, before introducing routines by Canadian comic Katherine Ryan and deadpan American jokester Rich Hall

11.00 Black Books Double bill: the shop has a new security system that no one can work; Manny runs away and takes up with a photographer

12.10am Inside No 9 1.30 The Rebel 2.10 Live at the Apollo Stand-up comedy 3.00 Harry Hill's TV Burp 4.00-6.00am Teleshopping

YESTERDAY

6.00am Raiders of the Lost Past 8.00 Time Team 9.00 The World at War 10.00 Murder Maps 11.00 Forbidden History 12.00noon Time Team 2.00 The Life of Mammals 3.00 Attenborough's Natural Curiosities 4.00 Murder Maps 5.00 Wartime Crime 6.00 The World at War Historical documentary

7.00 Impossible Engineering An in-depth look at the construction of Perdido, the world's deepest oil platform

8.00 Hitler's Most Wanted James Ellis explores how Hermann Goering could emerge as a psychopathic war criminal in the Second World War

9.00 Porridge Double bill: veteran lag Fletcher makes friends with newcomer Lennie Godber; Fletcher dreams up a novel way to relieve the boredom

10.20 Steptoe and Son Albert tries to contact his wife on the 'other side'

11.00 Open All Hours Double bill: Granville advertises for some female company and is gobsmacked; Arkwright offloads some stock to a rival shopkeeper

12.20am Open All Hours 1.00 Raiders of the Lost Past 3.00-6.00am Teleshopping

ITV2

8.55am You've Been Framed! Gold 9.25 The Ellen DeGeneres Show 10.15 Britain's Got Talent: Top 10 Comedy Cokers 11.15 The Guide to You've Been Framed! Gold 12.15pm Emmerdale 1.15 You've Been Framed! Gold 1.40 The Ellen DeGeneres Show 2.35 The Jeremy Kyle Show 6.00 Take Me Out 7.30 You've Been Framed! Gold 9.00 FLUX American Pie (1999/15) ★★★★★ 11.05 Family Guy 12.00m't American Dad! 12.55 The Cleveland Show 1.50 Totally Bonkers Guinness World Records 2.20-5.50am Shopping

CHANNEL 4

6.25am Cheers 7.45 Fraser 9.10 Everybody Loves Raymond 10.10 Ramsay's Kitchen Nightmares USA 11.05 Car SOS 12.00noon Channel 4 News 12.05 Come Dine with Me 1.05 Escape to the Chateau: DIY 2.10 Countdown 3.00 A Place in the Sun 4.00 A New Life in the Sun 5.00 Four in a Bed 5.30 Extreme Cake Makers 6.00 The Simpsons Animated comedy 6.30 Hollyoaks

7.00 Channel 4 News

8.00 NEW Location, Location, Location

9.00 NEW Chimerica Four-part thriller

10.00 Gogglebox TV reviews

11.05 First Dates Reality series

12.10am The Great British School Swap 1.05 FLUX Love, Rosie (2014/15) Comedy, starring Lily Collins and Sam Claflin ★★★★★ 2.50 Coast vs Country 3.45 French Collection 4.35 Kirstie's Handmade Treasures 4.11 The £100k Drop 5.50-6.25am Countdown

TG4

7.00am Cula 4 Kids' TV 9.30 Ainmhi 999 10.00 Little House on the Prairie 10.55 Gilmore Girls 11.45 Cheese Slices 12.15pm Logainm 12.45 Garraí Glas 1.15 The West Wing 2.05 Weakest Link 3.00 Cula 4 na nOg 5.00 Whiz sa Chistin 5.30 Irish Paint Magic 6.00 Weakest Link

7.00 Nuacht TG4

7.30 Realta agus Gaolta

8.30 Ar SMI na Fírinne

9.00 Glor Tíre Togha & Rogha Featuring Johnny Brady and Patrick Feeney

9.30 Sceal na Beatha Profiling Seosamh O'Conchuir, who only realised how important he was to others when faced with his own mortality

10.30 The Sinner Cora recalls the past

11.20 Bothar Buck A trip to Turkey

11.50 FLUX Unleashing Mr Darcy (2016/PG) Drama, with Cindy Busby ★★★★★

12.5am Dail Eireann 1.50-7.00am France 24

VIRGIN THREE

6.00am Teletubbies 6.30 Bob the Builder 7.00 In the Night Garden 7.30 The Adventures of Paddington Bear 8.00 The Sparticle Mystery 8.30 Total Drama Action 9.00 Elaine 10.00 Dress to Impress 11.00 Dress to Impress 12.00noon The Jeremy Kyle Show USA 1.00 Nanny 911 2.00 Judge Rinder 3.00 Judge Rinder 4.00 The Royal 5.00 Long Lost Family Australia 6.00 Heartbeat

7.00 Jeremy Kyle's Emergency Room

8.00 Hell's Kitchen Australia The apprentice chefs face challenges under the immense pressure of delivering a complete dinner service

9.15 Bull A nine-year-old child wants Jason to help divorce her parents

10.15 Law & Order: Special Victims Unit An infant suddenly goes missing

11.15 Victoria Historical drama series

12.15am Sun, Sex and Suspicious Parents 1.30 Big Heads 2.30-3.20am Elaine

Don't miss this month's RSVP magazine...

- Storm Keating at home in London with adorable baby Cooper
- Mairéad Ronan: From winning Dancing with the Stars to moving into her dream home
- Kathryn Thomas on love for Baby Ellie, pressures of motherhood and turning 40
- Eilish O'Carroll and partner Marian O'Sullivan on growing older together and why they will never marry
- The Garrinys open up about weddings, babies & a bond that binds them.
- Glamorous Georgina Ahern: fabulous at 40

All this plus food, fashion, beauty and more!

ON SALE NOW

RSVP

GET IT ON Google Play

Download on the App Store

Sport

SKY SPORTS MAIN EVENT

6.00am Good Morning Sports Fans 8.30 Rugby Gold
8.40 LIVE ANZ Premiership Netball: Central Pulse v Northern Mystics Action from New Zealand
10.15 Boxing Gold 10.30 Sky Sports News
12.30pm LIVE One-Day Cup Cricket: Kent v
Hampshire Action from The Spitfire Ground
9.00 Sky Sports Tonight 10.00 The Debate Live
11.00 Sky Sports News 2.00am NBA Gametime
1.30 LIVE NBA: Houston Rockets v Utah Jazz
5.00 NBA Gametime 5.30-6.00am Sporting Records

SKY SPORTS PREMIER LEAGUE

6.00am Premier League Greatest Games 7.00
Premier League Highlights 7.30 Premier League
Legends 8.00 Best Premier League Goals 8.30
Premier League Highlights 9.00 The Debate.
The latest news 10.00 Premier League Years
12.00noon The Debate 1.00 Premier League Years
3.00 Best Premier League Goals 4.00 Premier League Greatest Games. Four editions 5.00
Premier League Highlights 5.30 Premier League
100 Club 6.00 Premier League Review Highlights
7.00 Premier League World 7.30 As 9.30pm 8.00
Premier League Review 9.00 Premier League
World 9.30 Premier League Highlights 10.00 The Debate Live 11.00 Best Premier League Goals
12.00m The Debate 1.00 Premier League Years
3.00 Premier League Greatest Games 4.00 Best
Premier League Goals 5.30-6.00am As 5.30pm

SKY SPORTS ARENA

6.00am Sporting Greats 7.00 WWE Experience 8.00
Great Sporting Moments 9.00 Sporting Records
10.00 Sporting Greats 10.30 Top 14 Round-Up
Show 11.00 Super League Greatest Games
12.00noon WWE From the Vault 1.00 Top 14
Round-Up Show 1.30 NBA The Starters 2.00
Sporting Greats 3.00 WWE Experience 4.00
WWE Main Event 5.00 NRL: Try Time 6.00 NBA
Gametime Discussion 6.30 NBA The Starters
7.00 My Icon 7.10 ANZ Premiership Netball 8.45
Great Sporting Moments 9.00 NRL: Try Time
10.00 WWE Late Night Smackdown
12.00m The Great Sporting Moments 12.30 Super League Greatest Games Highlights 12.45 NBA
1.30 LIVE NBA: Houston Rockets v Utah Jazz
5.00 NBA Gametime 5.30-6.00am Sporting Records

EIR SPORT 1

6.00am GAA Classics 9.00 Fishing Odyssey Dick
Hefferty Paul Bourke 10.00 Classic Premier League
12.00noon Masters Golf Round four 4.00
GAA Classics 5.30 Classic Premier League
6.00 Golf Central 7.00 Outdoor Sports Show 7.30
On the Limit Sport 8.00 Peak Performance
Horse Racing 8.30 Classic Premier League
9.00 The Pro14 Hour 10.00 The Back Row 10.30
Classic Premier League 11.00 On the Limit Sport
12.00m The Golf Central 1.00 Classic Premier League
3.00-6.00am GAA Classics Two editions

EIR SPORT 2

6.00am NASCAR 7.00 Eredvise Highlights 8.00 Pro14
Highlights 9.00 Pro14 Highlights 10.00 La Liga
12.00noon NHL Tonight 1.00 Serie A Highlights
2.00 La Liga Highlights 3.00 Serie A 5.00 La Liga
World 5.30 Serie A: Full Impact The latest action
5.55 LIVE Serie A: Lazio v Udinese
8.00 NASCAR 9.00 This is Sport 2 10.00 Serie A
Highlights 11.00 NHL Tonight. Analysis and scores
12.00m The 6.00am LIVE NHL

BT SPORT 1

6.00am Premiership Rugby Highlights 8.30 Premier League Reload 8.45 Premier League Tonight 9.15
A-League Highlights 10.15 MotoGP 11.15 MotoGP
11.55pm MotoGP Chequered Flag. Featuring analysis and highlights 2.15 Indian Premier League Cricket
Sunrisers Hyderabad v Chennai Super Kings
7.30 BT Sport Reload Including exclusive interviews
8.00 LIVE MLB: Milwaukee Brewers v St Louis Cardinals Coverage from Miller Park
11.00 Rugby Tonight on Tour In-depth discussion
11.30 UFC Connected 12.00m Dan Hardy's Open
Mat 12.30 UFC 216 3.30 UFC Greatest Fights
4.00-6.00am The Big Match Revisited Highlights

BT SPORT 2

6.00am AFL Three editions 12.00noon The Big Match Revisited 2.00 Premier League Reload 2.15
Goals Reload 2.30 Premiership Rugby Highlights
5.00 MotoGP Highlights 6.00 Bundesliga
Behind the Team 6.30 Premier League World
7.00 LIVE UEFA Champions League: Manchester
City v Tottenham Hotspur (Kick-off 8.00pm)
See CHOICE
10.30 UEFA Champions League Highlights 11.30 No
Filter Boxing 12.00m Indian Premier League
Cricket 1.00 The Outdoor Sports Show 1.30 Fan
TV - Call Yourself a Fan 3.00 No Filter Boxing 3.30
The Two Escobars 5.30-6.00am WTA All Access

EUROSPORT 1

7.30am British Superbikes 8.30 British Supersport
9.00 World Superbikes 10.00 Tour of Turkey Cycling
11.00 LIVE Tour of Turkey Cycling Stage two - a 180km course from Tekirdag to Eceabat
1.00pm Masters Golf 2.00 Tour of Turkey Cycling
3.00 LIVE Brabantse Pijl Cycling In Belgium
4.45 Cycling: Get to Know 5.00 UK Championship
Snooker 7.00 Tour of Turkey Cycling 8.30
Brabantse Pijl Cycling 9.30 Amstel Gold Race
Cycling 10.30 Tour of Turkey Cycling 11.30
Brabantse Pijl Cycling. Action from today's race
12.40am Eurosport News 1.05-7.30am This is Eurosport

CHOICE

Live UEFA Champions League
BT Sport 2, 7pm
Sergio Aguero, left, will hope to help Manchester City overturn a 1-0 deficit as they play Tottenham in the second leg of the quarter-final at the Etihad.

Station 19
Sky Witness, 10pm
Andy (Jaime) Lee Ortiz, left, and the team are in a race against time after an RV slams into the side of the station. Now they must quickly save lives and secure the structure's failing integrity.

Eddie the Eagle
Film4, 9pm
Michael Edwards (Taron Egerton, left) looks to win gold at the 1988 Winter Olympics and enters the ski jump competition - despite no signs of talent when he comes to the sport.

Entertainment & Factual

BBC4 Freeview 82

7.00pm Beyond 100 Days 7.30 Secrets of Bones
8.00 Kolkata with Sue Perkins 9.00 Julius Caesar Revealed Mary Beard takes a look at the history of the famous Roman and challenges public misconceptions of him 10.00 The Normans.
Robert Bartlett asks how the tribe grew from ragtag warriors to formidable conquerors 11.00
Blazes and Brigades: The Story of the Fire
Service 12.00m The Joy of Stats 1.00 Buddha:
Genius of the Ancient World 2.00 Kolkata with Sue Perkins 3.00-4.00am Julius Caesar Revealed

E4 Freeview 41

6.00am Hollyoaks 7.00 Rules of Engagement
8.00 Sabrina the Teenage Witch 9.00 Baby
Daddy 10.00 The Big Bang Theory 11.00 The Goldbergs 12.00noon Brooklyn Nine-Nine 1.00
The Big Bang Theory 2.00 Baby Daddy 3.00
Brooklyn Nine-Nine 4.00 The Goldbergs 5.00
The Crystal Maze 6.00 The Big Bang Theory 7.00
Hollyoaks 7.30 Speechless 8.00 The Goldbergs
8.30 Schooled 9.00 Tattoo Fixers Extreme 10.00
First Dates Hotel 11.05 The Hangover Games
11.40 The Big Bang Theory 12.35am Tattoo Fixers
Extreme 1.40 First Dates Hotel 2.00 Celebs Go
Dating 3.30 The Goldbergs 3.50 Schooled 4.15
The Big Bang Theory 4.55-6.00am 2 Broke Girls

MORE4 Freeview 11

8.55am A Place in the Sun Winter Sun 10.55 The Great British Bake Off 12.15pm Find It Fix It Flog
It 1.15 Four in a Bed 3.50 Food Unwrapped 4.55
The Secret Life of the Zoo 5.55 The Supert
6.55 999: On the Frontline 7.55 Grand Designs
9.00 Find It Fix It Drive It Featuring a 1968 Morris ambulance 10.00 Car SOS 11.00 24 Hours in A&E
12.00m 999: On the Frontline 1.05 Find It Fix It
Drive It 2.10 Ramsay's Kitchen Nightmares USA
3.10-3.50am 8 Out of 10 Cats Christmas Special

ITV3 Freeview 11

6.00am Classic Coronation Street 6.55
Heartbeat 8.00 Murder: She Wrote 9.00 Judge
Judy 10.10 Agatha Christie's Poirot 12.40pm
Heartbeat 1.45 Classic Emmerdale 2.50 Classic
Coronation Street 3.55 Agatha Christie's Poirot
5.55 Heartbeat 7.00 Murder: She Wrote 8.00
Agatha Christie's Poirot 10.05 The Bletchley
Circle: San Francisco 12.05am Law and Order: UK
2.00 ITV3 Nightscreen 2.30-6.00am Shopping

ITV4 Freeview 24

6.00am The Chase 6.45 The Avengers 7.40 Kojak
8.40 Quincy ME 9.40 Minder 10.45 The Sweeney
11.50 The Professionals 12.55pm The Protectors
1.30 Live ITV Racing: Newmarket. The second day of the Craven meeting is headlined by the feature race the meeting - the Craven Stakes
4.00 Minder 5.00 The Professionals 6.00 The Car
Chasers 7.00 The Chase 8.00 River Monsters
9.00 FILM Magnum Force (1973/18) Action starring Clint Eastwood ★★★★★ 11.35 FILM The Usual Suspects (1995/18) Thriller starring Gabriel
Byrne ★★★★★ 1.50am Lethal Weapon 2.45
ITV4 Nightscreen 3.00-6.00am Teleshopping

RTE 2FM

90-92MHz 6.00am Breakfast Republic
10.00 Louise McSharry on 2FM 1.00pm Tracy
Clifford 4.00 The Eoghan McDermott Show
7.00 Game On 8.00 Night Time on 2FM with
Conor Behan 10.00 Dan Hegarty - The
Alternative 12.00m-6.00am 2fm Overnight

RTE LYRIC FM

96-99MHz 7.00am Marty in the Morning 10.00
Niall Caroll's Classical Daytime 1.00pm The
Full Score with Liz Nolan 4.00 Lorcan Murray's
Classic Drive 7.02 Mystery Train with John
Kelly 9.00 The Blue of the Night with Bernard
Clarke. The presenter connects musical landscapes through an array of centuries and genres. 12.00m-6.00am Through the Night

ITV8e Freeview 26

6.00am Teleshopping 9.00 Engie Benji 9.15 Sooty
9.30 The Hive 9.50 BabyRin 10.10 Animalimals
10.15 Pingu in the City 10.35 The Oddbods Show
10.55 Flame's Dragons 11.05 Lily's Driftwood Bay
11.30 Pip Ahoy! 12.00noon Income Property 12.25
The Real Housewives of New Jersey 1.20 The Bachelor 2.15 Million Dollar Listing 3.10 The Real Housewives of Orange County 4.05 The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills Double bill
6.00 Buyer's Bootcamp 7.00 Buying and Selling
8.00 Dinner Date 9.00 Sam and Billie Faiers
The Mummy Diaries Reality series 10.00 The Only Way is Essex 11.00 Celebrity Showmance
12.00m Selling It in the ATL 12.55 Teleshopping
4.00 Nightscreen 4.25-6.00am Teleshopping

5 STAR Freeview 31

6.00am Teleshopping 8.00 Will & Grace 8.25
Dance Moms 11.05 My Wife and Kids 12.00noon
Two and a Half Men 1.00 3rd Rock from the Sun
2.00 Will & Grace 3.00 Neighbours 3.30 Home and Away 4.00 My Wife and Kids 5.00 Fresh Off the Boat 6.00 Neighbours 6.30 Home and Away
7.00 Two and a Half Men 8.00 Greatest Ever
Movie Blunders 9.00 When Rush Kids Go
Homeless New series 10.00 FILM Elysium
(2013/15) Action starring Matt Damon ★★★★★
12.15am Last Man Standing 12.40 Last Man
Standing 1.10 Dirty Tricks Magic Man 2.15 Empire
3.05 Star 3.50 Access 4.00-6.00am Teleshopping

5 USA Freeview 21

6.00am Teleshopping 9.00 Access 9.10 Catch a
Contractor 9.30 CSI: NY 11.10 Law & Order 11.00pm
FILM Jesse Stone: Death in Paradise (2006/15)
Drama starring Tom Selleck ★★★★★ 3.00 Murder.
She Wrote 5.00 NCIS 6.00 Law & Order 8.00
NCIS 9.00 Gone 10.00 Law & Order Special
Victims Unit Drama series 12.55am CSI NY 2.50
Taken 3.50 Access 4.00-6.00am Teleshopping

5 SPIKE Freeview 17

6.00am Teleshopping 9.00 Access 9.10 Criminals:
Caught on Camera 9.40 The Virginian: Men from Shiloh 11.00 Can't Pay? We'll Take It Away!
12.20pm Police Interceptors L25 FILM Suicide
Battalion (1958/PG) Drama starring Mike
Connors ★★★★★ 3.05 FILM Submarine Seahawk
(1958/PG) Drama starring John Bentley ★★★★★
5.00 The A-Team 7.00 Police Interceptors 9.00
FILM Resident Evil (2002/15) Action starring
Milla Jovovich and Michelle Rodriguez ★★★★★
11.00 Spartacus: War of the Damned 12.00am
Wynonna Earp 2.20 Criminals: Caught on Camera 2.50 Access 3.00-6.00am Teleshopping

PICK Freeview 11

6.00am Road Wars 7.00 Motorway Patrol 8.00
Highway Patrol 9.00 Police Force Australia 10.00
Police Ten 7.10 Air Rescue 12.00noon Border
Patrol 1.00 Police Force Australia 2.00 Border
Security: Australia's Front Line 3.00 Nothing
3.10 Declare 4.00 Stomp Seize 5.00 Without a Trace 6.00 Stargate SG-1 7.00 Warehouse 13 8.00
Lost Girl 9.00 Murders That Shocked the Nation

Radio

RTE RADIO 1 FM

88-89MHz 7.00am Morning Ireland 9.00 The Ryan Tubridy Show 10.00 Today with Sean
O'Rourke 12.00noon The Ronan Collins Show
1.00 News at One 1.45 Ueline 3.00 The Ray
D'Arcy Show. Music and discussion 4.30
Drivetime 7.00 Arena 8.00 The John Creedon
Show 10.00 The Late Debate 11.00 Late Date
2.00am RTE Radio 1 Replay 3.00 RTE Gold on RTE Radio 1 5.30-7.00am Rising Time

RTE 2FM

90-92MHz 6.00am Breakfast Republic
10.00 Louise McSharry on 2FM 1.00pm Tracy
Clifford 4.00 The Eoghan McDermott Show
7.00 Game On 8.00 Night Time on 2FM with
Conor Behan 10.00 Dan Hegarty - The
Alternative 12.00m-6.00am 2fm Overnight

RTE LYRIC FM

96-99MHz 7.00am Marty in the Morning 10.00
Niall Caroll's Classical Daytime 1.00pm The
Full Score with Liz Nolan 4.00 Lorcan Murray's
Classic Drive 7.02 Mystery Train with John
Kelly 9.00 The Blue of the Night with Bernard
Clarke. The presenter connects musical landscapes through an array of centuries and genres. 12.00m-6.00am Through the Night

RTE RADIO NA GAELTACHTA

92-94MHz 6.05am Tus Aite 7.00 Nead na
Ruiseolige 8.00 Adhmhaidin 9.00 Priomscealta na Nuacht 9.15 Iris Aniar 10.15 Sinead ar Maidin 11.00 Barriscealta 12.00noon
Priomscealta na Nuacht 12.08 An Saol
Dheas 1.00 Nuacht 2.00 Ardtrathnna 3.00
Binneas Beil 5.00 Tus Aite 5.55 Tuairisc Spoir
6.00 Nuacht a Se 6.30 Fograí an Lae 7.00 Ceol
Binn o na Beanna 9.00 Ru-Ra ar RnaG 10.00 An Taobh Tuathail 12.00m Iris Aniar 12.55 Sinead ar Maidin 1.35 Barriscealta 2.30 An Saol o Dheas
3.15 Ardtrathnna 4.15-6.05am Binneas Beil

CORK'S 96 FM

95.8-96.8MHz 6.00am KC & Ross in the Morning 9.00 PJ Coogan 12.00noon Ken
Tobin in the Afternoon 4.00 The Big Drive
Home 8.00 Total Access 12.00m The Best
Music Mix Non Stop 3.00-6.00am PJ Coogan

TODAY FM

100-102MHz 7.00am The Ian Dempsey
Breakfast Show 9.00 Dermot and Dave
12.00noon Muireann O'Connell 2.00 Fergal
D'Arcy 4.30 The Last Word 7.00 Lost in Music
9.00 Paul McDermott 12.00m Overnight Music
5.00-7.00am Early Breakfast with Pamela Joyce

BBC RADIO 4

FM: 92.4-94.6MHz LW: 198kHz 6.00am Today
9.00 New Ways of Seeing 9.30 The Curious Cases of Rutherford & Fry 9.45 Book of the Week 10.00 Woman's Hour 10.41 15 Minute
Drama 10.55 The Listening Project 11.00 My Name Is 11.30 Ability 12.00noon News
Summary 12.04 The Diaries of Adrian Mole
12.28 You and Yours 12.57 Weather 1.00 World at One 1.45 One to One 2.00 The Archers
2.15 Death in the Airport: The Plot Against Kim Jong-nam 3.00 Money Box 3.30 In Their Element 4.00 Thinking Allowed 4.30 The Media Show 5.00 PM 6.00 Six O'Clock News
6.30 Fags, Mags and Bags 7.00 The Archers
7.15 Front Row 7.45 15 Minute Drama 8.00
FutureProofing 8.45 Lent Talks 9.00 Costing the Earth Tom Heap hosts a debate 9.30 New Ways of Seeing 10.00 The World Tonight 10.45
The Diaries of Adrian Mole 11.00 Bunk Bed 11.35
Kieran Hodgson's Earworms 11.30 The Untold 12.00m Midnight News 12.30 Book of the Week 12.48 Shipping Forecast 1.00 Selection of BBC World Service Programmes 5.20
Shipping Forecast 5.30 News Briefing. Latest headlines 5.43 Prayer for the Day 5.45 Farming
Today 5.58-6.00am Tweet of the Day

Movies

FILM4

11.00am Garfield 2: A Tale of Two Kitties
(2006/U) Comedy, with Breckin Meyer, Jennifer Love Hewitt and Billy Connolly ★★★★★
12.35pm Ice Age (2002/U) Animation, with Denis Leary and John Leguizamo ★★★★★
2.10 Over the Hedge (2006/U) Animation, with Bruce Willis and Garry Shandling ★★★★★
3.50 Back to the Future Part III (1990/PG)
Comedy, starring Michael J. Fox, Christopher
Lloyd and Mary Steenburgen ★★★★★
6.10 Exodus: Gods and Kings (2014/12) Action, starring Christian Bale, Joel Edgerton, Ben Kingsley and John Turturro ★★★★★
9.00 Eddie the Eagle (2016/PG)
See CHOICE ★★★★★
11.10 Commando (1985/18) Action, starring
Arnold Schwarzenegger, Alyssa Milano,
Dan Hedaya and Rae Dawn Chong ★★★★★
12.55-3.20am Monsters: Dark Continent
(2014/15) Drama starring Johnny Harris, Sam
Keeley Joe Dempsey and Kyle Solter ★★★★★

SKY CINEMA PREMIERE

6.00am Serpent (2017/12) Thriller, starring Tom Ainsley and Sarah Dumont ★★★★★
7.35 Dusty and Me (2016/12)
See 5.20pm for details ★★★★★
9.25 The Whiskey Bandit (2017/15)
See 10.45pm for details ★★★★★
11.35 Christopher Robin (2018/PG)
See 7.00pm for details ★★★★★
1.35pm Super Troopers 2 (2018/15)
See 9.00pm for details ★★★★★
3.20 Lu Over the Wall (2017/PG) Animation, with Kanon Tani and Shota Shimoda ★★★★★
5.20 Dusty and Me (2016/12) Comedy, starring Luke Newberry and Genevieve Gaunt ★★★★★
7.00 Christopher Robin (2018/PG) Drama, starring Ewan McGregor Hayley Atwell, Jim Cummings and Bronte Carmichael ★★★★★
9.00 Super Troopers 2 (2018/15) Comedy, starring Jay Chandrasekhar and Kevin Heffernan ★★★★★
10.45 The Whiskey Bandit (2017/15) Action, starring Ben Szalay, Zoltan Schneider,
Viktor Klem and Proskia Moga ★★★★★
1.00am Blame (2017/15) Drama, starring Quinn
Shepherd and Tate Donovan ★★★★★
2.45 Incident in a Ghostland (2018/18) Horror, with Crystal Reed and Mylene Farmer ★★★★★
4.20-6.15am Lu Over the Wall (2017/PG)
See 3.20pm for details ★★★★★

SKY CINEMA DRAMA & ROMANCE

5.35pm Jerry Maguire (1996/15) Comedy starring Tom Cruise and Cuba Gooding Jr ★★★★★
8.00 Jolly (2018/15) Comedy, starring Charlie Theron and Mackenzie Davis ★★★★★
9.45 My Friend Dahmer (2017/15) Drama, starring Ross Lynch and Alex Wolff ★★★★★
11.40 Marshall (2017/15) Drama, starring Chadwick Boseman and Josh Gad ★★★★★
1.45am Notorious (2009/15) Drama starring Jama Woodard and Anthony Mackie ★★★★★
4.00-6.00am Tommy's Honour (2016/PG) Drama, starring Peter Mullan and Jack Lowden ★★★★★

SKY CINEMA FAMILY

4.25pm The Lego Movie (2014/PG) Animation, with Chris Pratt and Will Ferrell ★★★★★
6.10 Ferdinand (2017/U) Animation, with John Cena and Kate McKinnon ★★★★★
8.00 The Lego Ninjago Movie (2017/PG)
Animation, with the voices of Dave Franco,
Justin Theroux and Jackie Chan ★★★★★
9.50 Mary and the Witch's Flower (2017/U)
Animation, with the voices of Ruby Barnhill,
Kate Winslet and Jim Broadbent ★★★★★
11.40 Maya the Bee: The Honey Games (2018/U)
Animation, with the voices of Coco Jack
Gilles and Benson Jack Anthony ★★★★★
1.15am The Time Team (2018/PG) Animation, with the voices of George Bailey, William Hackett-Jones and Sonda James ★★★★★
2.50 A Wizard's Tale (2018/U) Animation, with Toby Kebbell and Lily Collins ★★★★★
4.35-6.30am Mary and the Witch's Flower
(2017/U) See 9.50pm for details ★★★★★

TCM

4.45pm The Unforgiven (1960/PG) Western, with Burt Lancaster and Audrey Hepburn ★★★★★
7.15 The Gun Runners (1958/U) Action, starring Eddie Albert and Patricia Owens ★★★★★
9.00 Enter the Dragon (1973/18) Action, starring Bruce Lee and John Saxon ★★★★★
11.30 Tango & Cash (1989/18) Action, starring Sylvester Stallone and Kurt Russell ★★★★★
12.00am The Last Detail (1973/18) Drama, starring Jack Nicholson and Otis Young ★★★★★
3.30-6.00am Hollywood's Best Film Directors

SONY MOVIE CHANNEL

5.25pm The Forger (2012/12) Thriller, starring Lauren Bacall and Josh Hutcherson ★★★★★
7.15 Meteor Storm (2010/15) Action, starring Tibor Takacs and Michael Trucco ★★★★★
9.00 The Calling (2014/15) Thriller, starring Susan Sarandon and Tophir Grace ★★★★★
11.15 The Night Listener (2006/15) Thriller, with Robin Williams and Toni Collette ★★★★★
1.00am Brim (1999/15) Drama, starring Nicolas
Cage and Joaquin Phoenix ★★★★★
3.30-5.50am Mr Jones (1993/15) Romantic drama, starring Richard Gere and Lena Olin ★★★★★

IRISH MIRROR Classified

TURN YOUR UNWANTED HOUSEHOLD ITEMS OR YOUR CAR INTO CASH FOR FREE*
*Private advertisers only

PRIVATE ADVERTISING:

Post:
Irish Mirror Classifieds, 2nd Floor, 9a Beckett Way, Park West Industrial Park, Clondalkin, Dublin 12

Email:
classifieds@irishmirror.ie

Private advertisements will only be accepted by e-mail or posted coupons.
All ads will run for at least 1 week in Irish Daily Mirror.
Terms & Conditions apply, available on request.

Classifieds

Want to sell your unwanted goods?
Let us do it for you!

(Private advertisers only)

FREE
FREE
FREE

AD COUPON 1

Line 1
Line 2
Line 3
Line 4

AD COUPON 2

Line 1
Line 2
Line 3
Line 4

Name
Address
Telephone:

YOUR AD WILL APPEAR FOR AT LEAST ONE WEEK IN THE IRISH MIRROR

*ALL ADVERTS WILL APPEAR SUBJECT TO SPACE AVAILABILITY AND STRICTLY PRIVATE ADVERTISERS ONLY.
TERMS & CONDITIONS APPLY, AVAILABLE ON REQUEST.

To place your advert
Send your details complete with your address and telephone number by post or email.

Post: Irish Mirror Classifieds,
2nd Floor, 9a Beckett Way, Park West Industrial Park, Clondalkin, Dublin 12

Email: classifieds@irishmirror.ie

OMNIPLEX RATHMINES

5 screen cinema
with OmniplexMAAC
(Next to the 20th Avenue Cinema)

Entrance via Rathmines Road (Beside Swan Centre)

FOR FULL REAL-TIME FILM LISTINGS & BOOKING

VISIT www.omnplex.ie

OR DOWNLOAD OUR APP

LIKE RATHMINES OMNIPLEX ON FACEBOOK
FOR FILM INFO, OFFERS & COMPETITIONS

CARS FOR SALE

FABULOUS MERCEDES BENZ 180cc Coupe, Speed 6 Long Mile, 2005 Silver, Many Extras, Low Mileage, PMO, Owner, Relaxed, £3000, Regent, And Good Condition, TEL: 083 307002

REMYLT KANGOO 1200 Van, 1000 cc, DDE, PMO, Dublin Area, £2500, TEL: 086 300 409

ARTICLES FOR SALE

ARTICLES FOR SALE Hard Cover Copy, Walter Pyre Surgical Handcraft, 36 Pages, 1853/1892, £30. Childrens Fairy Story Books In Full Colour & Novelty Pages, Pristine Condition £250 Each. Join Baby Buggy, Red Black In Excellent Condition For Baby, £50. Mamas Baby Basket Good Condition, £40. TEL: 086 189 157

BIG AND MILING For Sale, 15 in Road, 10 in Good Condition, £150 For All, TEL: 086 054626

COLLECTORS EDITION Elvis DVDs, 7 in Total, A Man And His Music, The Hollywood Years, The Army Years, Elvis And Priscilla, Come Back, The Many Loves Of Elvis, The Day The Music Died, Elvis Gone, £150. Open To Offers. TEL: 086 300 127

FOR SALE 37" Flat Screen TV in Good Condition, £120, TEL: 086 728 415

ARTICLES FOR SALE

FOR SALE 1 Year Old Vinter Baker Litta £2500, Also 2 Year Old Home Mowing Machine, £1000 Each Or £2000 For Both, Text Only To, TEL: 087 339 888

FOR SALE 3 x 14 1 Cream Leather Suite In Hardwood Frame In Good Condition, £1000. Dark Brown Leatherette Dining Chair In Good Condition, £100. A New 5050 Hotpoint Fridge Freezer, £250. TEL: 086 1607 927

FOR SALE Baby Buggy, Make Join Red Top, Black Beautiful Condition, Ready For Baby Only £100. Childrens Fairy Story Books In Full Colour, And Novelty Pages, All New, £2 Each, TEL: 086 189 157

FOR SALE Book Corded Grass Trimmer With Wheels, £20. Colour Surveillance Camera For House, £100. £100. TEL: 086 1607 927

FOR SALE Cast Iron Fireplace Tiled Antique Old 3x22, Polished and Restored, £75. Restaurant Kitchen Contents, Fryer, Soup Pots, Dishes, £100. S.S. Pots x 100, Scales, Trays, From £10. TEL: 087 6129 500

FOR SALE Full Size Free Standing Cooler Fully Guaranteed, A Real Bargain, TEL: 086 338 782

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO BE DISSOLVED FROM THE REGISTER OF COMPANIES

(a) THE WISE INSTITUTE LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at 2 Strand Mews, Leix Road, Sandymount, Dublin 4 and its principal place of business at 2 Strand Mews, Leix Road, Sandymount, Dublin 4 and
(b) KACE ENGINEERING LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at 37 Seapoint, Wicklow Town, Co. Wicklow and its principal place of business at 37 Seapoint, Wicklow Town, Co. Wicklow and
(c) WEST TALLAGHT TOTS TO TEENS LIMITED, having never traded, having its registered office at St Thomas Junior School, Jobstown, Tallaght, Dublin 24 and its principal place of business at St Thomas Junior School, Jobstown, Tallaght, Dublin 24 and
(d) O'CONNELL HARLEY O'DWYER LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at Unit E4 Nutgrove Office Park, Nutgrove Avenue, Dublin 14 and its principal place of business at E4 Nutgrove Office Park, Nutgrove Avenue, Dublin 14
And each of which has no assets exceeding £150 and/or having no liabilities exceeding £150, has resolved to notify the Registrar of Companies, that the Company is not carrying on business and to request the Registrar on that basis to exercise her powers pursuant to Section 733 of the Companies Act 2014 to strike the name of the Company off the register.
Dated this 17th day of April 2019
By Order of the Board
(a) Cedric Chou
Director
(b) Ken McElhinney
Director
(c) Fionnuala Wallace
Director
(d) Richard Crowe
Director

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO BE DISSOLVED FROM THE REGISTER OF COMPANIES

(a) BRENNAN MINING AND SERVICES LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at 22 Northumberland Road, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4 and its principal place of business 22 Northumberland Road, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4 and
(b) GALAXY CHINESE RESTAURANT & TAKEAWAY LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at 11 Aspen Avenue, Clonsilla, Dublin 15 its principal place of business at 11 Aspen Avenue, Clonsilla, Dublin 15 and
(c) UBST 3 BAR LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at Setanta Club, Ballyman, Dublin 11 and its principal place of business at Suite A, Ashdown Business Centre, Navan Road, Dublin 15 and
(d) PAPPIN MANAGEMENT CONSULTING LIMITED, having ceased to trade, having its registered office at Meadowlands, Prospect, Newcastle, Co. Wicklow and its principal place of business at Meadowlands, Prospect, Newcastle, Co. Wicklow
And each of which has no assets exceeding £150 and/or having no liabilities exceeding £150, has resolved to notify the Registrar of Companies, that the Company is not carrying on business and to request the Registrar on that basis to exercise her powers pursuant to Section 733 of the Companies Act 2014 to strike the name of the Company off the register.
Dated this 17th day of April 2019
By Order of the Board
(a) Michael Brennan
Director
(b) Suk Man Mak
Director
(c) Brendan Gibson
Director
(d) Norman Ebbs
Director

ARTICLES FOR SALE

FOR SALE Dublin Millennium Large Book - 3 Small Glasses, 2000th China Bell In Box, Crystal Rally Bowl, Large Crystal Book, £20, 2 Bell Book, Candle Sticks, Round, 2 Trays, £20, Large Royal Platter, £10, 2 Lotto Glasses, £10, TEL: 086 300 731

FOR SALE Fire Place Cast Iron, 16 x 12" With 16" Open Tiled Insert, Cost £750 Sell £350, Restaurant Kitchen Contents, Fryers, Pots, Bain Marie, Soup Kettle, Cutlery x 100 S.S. T.Pots x 60, TEL: 087 1609 906

FOR SALE Glass Top Kitchen, Dining Room Table And 4 Chairs In Very Good Condition, v.m. Has To Be Collected, TEL: 083 3036 494

LOUTH COUNTY COUNCIL Further Information Applicant: PAKEN PROPERTIES LIMITED

Site address of proposed works: Rookmaker's Pub, 39 Park Street, Dundalk, Co. Louth. Planning Reference Number: 18/1037.
Significant further information in relation to the application has been furnished to the planning authority, and is available for inspection or purchase at a fee not exceeding the reasonable cost of making a copy, in the offices of the authority during its public opening hours, and a submission or observation in relation to the further information may be made in writing to the planning authority on payment of the prescribed fee of £20.00, not later than two weeks after receipt of this newspaper notice and site notice by the planning authority.

Creative Assets Limited, having never traded, having its registered office and principal place of business at 19 Meadowlands, Abbeyside, Dungarvon, Co. Waterford and having no assets exceeding £150 and/or liabilities, has resolved to notify the Registrar of Companies that the company is not carrying on business and to request the Registrar on that basis to exercise her powers pursuant to section 733 of the Companies Act 2014 to strike the name of the company off the register.

By Order of the Board

J. Hyland (Secretary)

REVERLY - DE	Good Angel	6.30 SO	Charles Des Bois	3.50 CH	Sebastian	2.25 NE	Jack's Point	1.50 NE	Mary Carter	5.30 CH	Onions	4.95 NE	Script Sales	6.30 SO	The Glazer Ballet	2.15 BE
NEEDHAM - CH	Baywatch	3.25 BE	Darcel Brother	2.85 CH	Gail Hunter	1.80 NE	Jackman	4.80 NE	Mary Lee	2.30 SO	One Vision	4.45 NE	Scotchless Art	6.00 SO	The Welsh Paddles	4.25 CH
NEEDHAM - CH	Brands	3.80 NE	Belmont City	5.00 CH	Gia Gaster	2.50 NE	Archer	3.35 NE	Reggie Leo	4.30 SO	Only Spending	7.50 SO	Search For Light	4.00 NE	Theaters-Horton	6.00 SO
SOUTHWELL - SO	Breath of Air	1.50 NE	Becerra	6.30 SO	Global Spectrum	3.35 NE	Amend	2.50 NE	Maestros Wood	6.30 SO	Over The Fence	5.20 NE	Seerch	5.30 BE	Thine De Healy	2.85 CH
Arson Ltd	Arson (psom)	5.25 NE	Drury Iron	2.25 NE	Drury Iron	6.30 SO	John Scilla	4.45 NE	Woe In Motion	4.30 NE	Pacific	4.00 NE	Secret Images	7.30 SO	Thomas Campbell	4.25 CH
Academy Angel	Academy Angel	4.25 CH	Earl Paul	7.30 SO	Gail Des Bois	5.20 NE	John Scilla	4.45 NE	Mama Africa	6.30 SO	Paradise	6.00 SO	Secret Images	4.00 NE	Therese Bider	6.30 SO
Accoray	Accoray	5.10 NE	Bump Butler	5.80 CH	George Gines	6.00 SO	Jonah	3.25 CH	Maria Di Caralua	5.00 CH	Paradise	4.45 SO	True Assessment	5.20 NE	Vanessa Bider	3.50 SO
Alphina	Alphina	5.10 NE	Borisovna	4.30 NE	Gump At Night	5.20 NE	Joseph	2.25 NE	Maryann	1.30 SO	Perfect Of Gator	5.20 NE	Secret At Midnight	3.50 NE	Wendy's Grove	3.00 CH
Alphina	Alphina	4.25 NE	Blaz De Warming	4.30 NE	Joe Armada	1.35 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	People	4.00 NE	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tracy	4.00 CH
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	2.25 NE	Borjovna	4.30 NE	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Perfect Candidate	5.00 CH	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tobacco	4.25 CH
Alexander/Alphina	Alexander/Alphina	6.10 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall	5.20 NE	Midnight Walks	2.00 SO	Place Des Drogas	6.00 SO	Shirley Prince	5.20 NE	Tomorrow	6.00 SO
Ally Boyer	Ally Boyer	1.50 NE	Can I See	2.85 CH	Goodbye Brother	4.25 CH	Jack Wall

GARY MURPHY

@Garrymurphy62

Ireland's best golf pundit

Tiger's back, golf's back & Portrush will benefit from the return of the Master

UNBRIDLED JOY
Tiger Woods can't hide his emotions after winning his 15th Major in Augusta on Sunday.

AFTER his Masters fairytale, there is no greater sporting superstar strolling the fairways of planet earth than Tiger Woods. No greater golfing redemption either.

In years to come, fans who cheered from the galleries at Augusta will say: I was there, I saw it with my own eyes.

After everything Woods has endured, to end an 11-year wait for his 15th Major at the age of 43 was electrifying.

Unfathomable, almost. This is a man who experienced one of the most painful – roller coaster timelines of sporting history. Not just physically, emotionally too.

Four back surgeries and a sex scandal tend to do that to you.

There's no doubt his well documented infidelities and failings saw his appeal take a hit with the wider public.

But his legacy and credibility within the golfing fraternity remained undiminished.

His fans, devoted and dewy eyed on Sunday, never deserted him.

They held firm to the belief that one day their hero would revisit a golden past that delivered 14 majors between 1997 and 2008.

And how Woods 2.0 delivered on that promise with his fifth Green Jacket amidst emotional scenes at Augusta.

Hard to believe he underwent back fusion surgery less than two years ago; a layoff and injury that saw him plummet to 1,199th in the world.

Back in 2017, few gave Woods a chance of adding to his haul of majors, the last of which came as a 32-year-old in the 2008 US Open.

But there he was on Sunday, serene and statuesque on the 18th green, awaiting the putt that would transport him back to his heyday.

Many will wonder if he has the desire to keep bringing his A-game in his 40s, but you only have to look at his unbridled joy on Sunday to know a deep passion remains.

He's also old fashioned tough. Money and fame can derail athletes walking into the autumn of their careers, but not Tiger.

His focus is timeless. He has the ability to block everything out on a golf course.

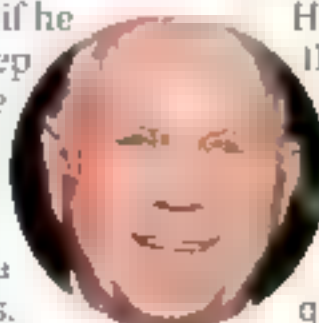

The reaction to his win on social media and in the mainstream media proved yet again he is the most recognisable sports star on the planet.

And Butch Harmon, inset, got it right when he remarked: "Tiger's back, golf's back."

His renaissance is great for the sport and the added bonus for Irish fans is that Tiger Mania will descend on Royal Portrush in July.

First up on his Major quest though is next month's PGA at Bethpage and the US Open at Pebble Beach in June, both venues he has shredded and won at in the past.

After his Hollywood comeback at Augusta, the summer hype around Woods will be at fever pitch.

BETTING SLIP

RBC HERITAGE

JORDAN SPIETH - 20/1 EW
Maybe blinded by the light at Augusta, but still showed great signs.

IAN Poulter - 10/1 EW
Should carry positive Masters form - T12 - into this week.

SHANE LOWRY - 50/1 EW
A disappointing Masters, but this is a chance to return to form.

AUSTIN COOK - 500/1 EW
Let me down at the Texas Open, but this week's format will suit him.

2019 OPEN COURSE
Magnificent Royal Portrush

Top kids cooking on gas

I HAD the pleasure of playing Royal Portrush alongside Flogas Irish Junior Open winners Harry O'Hara and Parker Bonnes last week.

Harry, from Clondeboy and Hollywood, is the Gary Player champion, while Parker, from Galgorm Castle, is the reigning Winter Series champion.

I was teamed up on the famous links with Harry, who is 10 years old, while Parker, only seven, was partnered by Cormac Sharvin.

Cormac and I played Portrush as normal, but the two boys played in the junior format, from 150 yards and 170 yards respectively.

Harry birdied the last for us to win one-up, but overall it was a real treat for both kids to play a course that plays host to this year's Open.

It was also a treat for Cormac and me to see the boys play - not only were we impressed by their skill levels, but also their demeanour around the course. They were a credit to their families.

Respect also to Michael Gallagher, the brainchild behind the Irish Junior Open and someone who has done an amazing job for young golfers across the island.

Duo get painful lesson

It was a disappointing week for the Irish at Augusta.

Rory McIlroy, left, didn't deliver on recent form and Shane Lowry's game simply wasn't there after putting in so much effort into qualifying for the tournament.

Hopefully it's a valuable lesson for Shane - that he needs to stay in the present a bit more.

Golf is about weeks and the only tournament that matters is the one staring you in the face.

While Lowry, right, missed the cut, Rory was never really in contention and was largely playing on fumes.

At Augusta, it's crucial to stay in touch, because it's so dangerous playing catch-up golf there.

A course of that magnitude and quality cannot be bullied. Take too many chances and you'll end up looking foolish.

Frustration all round for McIlroy, but seeing Tiger win at 43 should give him encouragement he has many more years and chances to complete a career grand slam.

GOLF

A BIT OF FAMILY TIME Shane Lowry with his daughter at Augusta last week

SHANE HAS NOT FACED THE EYE OF THE TIGER..

BY EAMON DOGGETT

SHANE LOWRY has admitted to still not having the courage to talk to his idol Tiger Woods.

The Offaly man was en route to South Carolina last Sunday ahead of this week's RBC Heritage tournament when Woods turned back time at the Masters.

But, a little sore ■ having missed the cut at Augusta, Lowry still got sucked into the radio commentary of the final round as Woods dramatically won his first major in 11 years.

Lowry said: "It's phenomenal what Tiger did at the weekend - the whole world was probably rooting for him."

"I certainly was. I was going to stay on until Monday. I'd said if Tiger was winning, I would go up to the clubhouse to try and watch it there."

"But with the storms forecast we drove down from Augusta on Sunday afternoon to Harbour Town and I listened ■ the back nine in the car.

"I never thought golf could be so exciting to listen ■ on the radio, but it was!"

The 32-year-old, like so many of his contemporaries, grew up trying ■ mimic the 15-time major winner.

But, despite sticking a world golf championship in his trophy cabinet and having gone close ■ winning the US Open, Lowry is still starstruck around Woods (inset).

He told Paddy Power News: "Tiger Woods was my idol growing up and the main reason I got into golf."

"One of the first tournaments I remember watching was probably Tiger's first Masters win in 1997. I was about 10 years old and watched on the BBC at the time."

"Then, every weekend when I was a teenager and Tiger was playing, I'd sit in front of the TV on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday night, watching him."

"I'd watch him at night and then go out and play the next day, imagining I was Tiger having a putt on the last to win the Masters!"

"I remember even trying to swing the club like him - trying to do the different finishes that he does and stuff like that."

"It's funny though, I've never even met him properly. I never had the balls to go up, say hello and ask him for ■ picture or anything."

"Hopefully, I get a knock at him in the near future and we get the right time to do it!"

"It ■ happen when it happens."

GAA MAYO & LIMERICK ACES REVEAL

THE FEAR

Keegan: James is a far more frightening prospect this time

BY PAT NOLAN

LEE KEEGAN says the 2019 version of James Horan is scarier than the one that left the Mayo job in 2014.

Horan has made the best possible start to his second coming as Mayo boss by winning the League, with a national title proving elusive during his first stint.

Last year the county endured their worst showing since 2010, but Mayo fans are now optimistic that they can launch another All-Ireland tilt.

They can see that Horan is playing from a stronger hand, having introduced a number of young players over the course ■ the spring.

Yet Keegan says the Ballintubber is also a much more rounded manager than when he last was in charge, something that was also apparent ■ the 2016 Footballer of the Year when Horan managed his club, Westport, last year.

"He's definitely more scary," Keegan smiled. "He's probably more of a coach now than he was then [in 2014]. He's more involved with the training side ■ things. He has more ■ an input with the session."

"I had him for club last year ■ that was scary as well. But the big thing with James is, he's bringing the style with him where he doesn't care what you've done before as a player and that's keeping a lot of us on our toes and keeping us fresh."

"If you have one bad game, you could be on the bench the next day. That's the biggest difference between now and 2014. If you're not playing well, you're not getting picked. That's definitely added to a spike in training."

Horan acted as a pundit for the four years he was out of inter-county management and Keegan believes he has a sharper tactical edge to him now.

"James has brought a new knowledge and background to the game that we probably didn't see back in 2012, '13, '14. We were probably very much a gung-ho team."

"Now we're very much tactically aware of what we need to do, how to approach different teams and styles. That's been a new challenge, to implement a new game plan. It's been very interesting."

Lifting a cup in the Hogan Stand after so many near misses may have helped Mayo ■ break a significant mental barrier, though Keegan isn't making any declarations on future ■ success just yet.

"Only time will tell. To win any national title in Croke Park is a significant moment."

"People are saying, 'How is that going to colour our approach?' And boring as the answer is, we can only look ■ New York the next couple of weeks."

"As much as we want to dwell and say, 'We won a national title', ■ you're not in the frame of mind to be looking forward to New York and playing well, you're not going to get picked."

NO DRINKING BAN

BY PAT NOLAN

THERE'S no alcohol ban in Mayo and James Horan (inset) knows well enough not to introduce one, reckons Lee Keegan.

"He treats us like adults," the Mayo defender said.

"This whole myth around you're nearly a 30-year-old lad, you can't go drinking, you have to debunk that because ■ you can't be treated like an adult then you're not going to act like one in training. There's no drink ban."

Yet Keegan revealed that even being seen in a pub is enough to attract disapproving glances.

"You sit in the pub even having a Mil Wall and the heads are staring over at you. 'Why is he in here?'"

"I always look at professional sports and particularly rugby; they have their few beers after their game and they train two days later and perform at the highest level the week after. That's the way the GAA should look at it as well."

FIRST TITLE
Keegan relished Mayo's League win back in March

DRIVING FORCES FOR SUMMER AHEAD

FACTOR...

HELPING HAND
Mayo footballer Lee Keegan and Limerick hurler Aaron Gillane were in Croke Park yesterday to launch the 2019 John West National Féile

Gillane: I'd drive myself mad trying to perfect things but I'm just so scared of failure

BY PAT NOLAN
AARON GILLANE admits his League final performance drove him to practise his shooting - despite hitting 1-9.

The Limerick star struck 1-5 of that haul from play in the comfortable 1-24 to 0-19 win over Waterford that secured the county's first title since 1997, yet he might have doubled his tally.

As well as hitting a number of wides, he also had a goal effort saved by Stephen O'Keefe but was still named man of the match by TG4.

He said: "I watched it back. I'd say it could have been the Wednesday after. I was actually cringing watching it."

"I had eight or nine wides and I was like, 'jeez, how did he get man of the match in this?'"

"But it was good from the point of view that after every match you always have stuff to work on."

"So I watched it and threw on a pair of shorts and then went straight up to the field and hit a few shots."

"I'd drive myself mad trying to perfect things but it's good to have things to work on."

As for what he'd put the wayward shooting down to, Gillane said: "I don't know. I suppose for a lot of them I was hitting them off the back foot. That's not something I'd usually do. I'd usually try to take on my man as much as I can."

"Maybe I had an extra yard or two space and said I'd shoot. I don't know. maybe I just snatched at them. I had enough wides anyway."

"I got an earful off Cian [Lynch] during the match."

But sure he'd be roaring and shouting. I'd take no notice of him!"

His goal was something to behold, however, and will be played long after his wastefulness on the day is forgotten.

The instinctive first-time strike from Tom Morrissey's arrowed delivery left O'Keefe with little chance and is unlikely to be overtaken as goal of the year.

Gillane explained: "Noel Connors was out in front of me, I was like, 'jeez, he has this now and he's going to break it down in front of him'."

"I was actually going to run out to the side first and then Tom was slow lifting his head. I don't know why he drilled the ball so hard either."

"It was all a fluke. He never hits the ball in like that, and Noel Connors is never going to miss the ball like that again either."

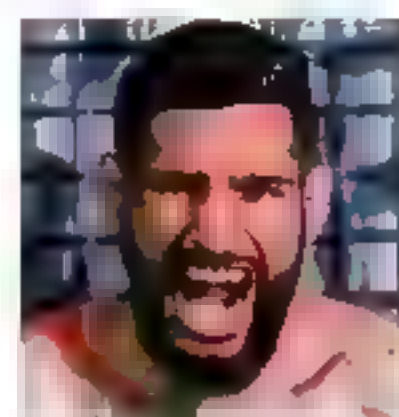

"I don't know. I think it was just instinct and I was lucky. I got a little touch on it."

It drew comparisons with Jimmy Barry-Murphy's famous strike into the same end in the 1983 All-Ireland semi-final, though Gillane added: "You'd see that on TG4 and clips and stuff. His goal just pips my one now!"

The Limerick players have been back with their clubs since the League success, which narrows their preparation time for the Munster Championship opener against Cork on May 19. Gillane has no complaints, though.

"I think it's better off that way too. You could be training and it's very easy get sick of it but if you have a focus in the short-term, it's way easier to prepare yourself mentally and physically so I prefer it the way it is now anyway."

WORK OF ART
Gillane's goal in the final of the League

UNFULFILLED Amir Khan

He's Amir footnote in history

BY DAVID ANDERSON
AMIR KHAN'S trainer Virgil Hunter believes his man "could have achieved more" in a brutally frank assessment of the fighter's career.

Khan may be an Olympic silver medallist and former unified world light-welterweight champ, but Hunter feels he had "too much, too soon" in a career which peaked seven years ago when the Brit last held a world title.

That frustrates Hunter because he believes Khan had the talent to be a multi-weight world champion, like Saturday's opponent at Madison Square Garden, Terence Crawford.

While Khan's career has tapered off, Crawford's has gone supersonic since he won his first world title against Ricky Burns in Glasgow in 2014.

"Of course, he could have achieved more, his ability is insane," said Hunter. "What he was gifted

BAD MOVE Canelo Alvarez

with, you take that and max it out."

"But I think he had too much, too soon. You don't think you have to work any more. You think you've arrived, when you haven't."

Hunter feels Khan's brutal KO by Saul 'Canelo' Alvarez in May 2016 was a shattering blow, not just for his body, but for his career.

Khan, 32, lost two years out of the ring as he battled a hand injury, which nearly forced him to quit.

"I think if the decision had not been made to make the Canelo fight, things might have been different," said Hunter.

"He had the option of other fights. Instead, they took the Canelo fight, which I was totally against, and that was a major setback."

"It broke my heart to see him lying there, and it didn't have to happen."

Judge has lot to do

BY NEIL GOULDING

FORMER pro Michael Judge will have to come from behind to keep his dreams of a Crucible return alive.

The Dubliner (above) is bidding to become the first amateur ever to play at snooker's spiritual Sheffield home.

But he will return today 6-3 down against fellow amateur James Cahill.

Judge struggled early on as Cahill raced 4-0 up with 50, 82, 96 and 103 breaks. The former ranking semi-finalist got on the board before the Englishman opened up a commanding 6-1 cushion.

But Judge dug deep to win the last two of the session with a top run of 71 to keep himself in contention.

The 44-year-old has already pocketed a welcome £15,000 for his progress in the qualifiers - which only came as a result of a dropout.

The last of the veteran's three Crucible appearances came back in 2008.

DELTA'S A DANGER

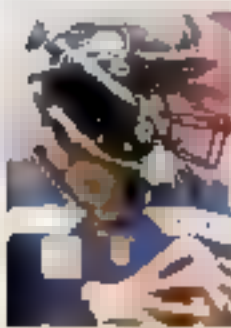

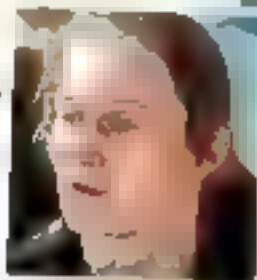

DELFINA PERSEON'S manager Filipe Tampere believes Katie Taylor's team are underestimating the WBC lightweight champion.

Tampere revealed yesterday the Belgian (above) is two weeks into her training camp and is sparring top male lightweight only.

Perseon meets Taylor, the IBF, WBO and WBA title holder, at Madison Square Garden on the Anthony Joshua versus Jarrell Miller undercard on June 1 with all the major 135lbs belts up for grabs.

Tampere said: "I think they underestimate Delfina. She is sparring with some good lightweight fighters, just male fighters."

Perseon added: "I expect this will be a very tough and honest fight and that the best boxer may win this title fight - I expect that to be me."

Russell's NFL deal is biggest

RUSSELL WILSON became the highest-paid player in NFL history - then announced his $140million (£107m) deal by video while in bed with his wife.

The Seattle Seahawks handed the 30-year-old quarterback (above) a four-year extension, including a $65m (£50m) signing bonus.

And Wilson immediately took to Twitter, posting a video message to fans, with wife Ciara in his arms.

He told Seahawks supporters: "Hey Seattle, we got a deal. Go Hawks. But I'ma see y'all in the morning. Time for y'all to go to bed."

Wilson's annual average of $35m (£26.8m) tops the extension signed last summer by Green Bay quarterback Aaron Rodgers at $33.5m (£25.6m).

Wilson is coming off his best year as a pro, with 35 touchdowns last season.

CHAMPIONS CUP SEMI-FINALS

HE CAN BE A SEAN SATION

Lancaster backing O'Brien to have big impact

BY MICHAEL SCULLY

STUART LANCASTER predicts Sean O'Brien will finally take flight on Saturday after a long road back to finding his best form and fitness.

O'Brien's arm break in November was the latest in a series of debilitating injuries suffered by the Tullow Tank and, since his return to action with Leinster in February, he has struggled to make the impact expected for club and country.

Indeed, there are fears that the Lions player of the 2017 tour to New Zealand might never hit those dizzy heights again.

But Lancaster, Leinster's senior coach, believes O'Brien will step up in the province's time of need as they try to make do without the injured Dan Leavy and Josh van der Flier.

"The key thing with Sean, the surgery that he had, it does take to get back from," said the former England boss.

"As a player you're fighting to get back to training, you're fighting to get back into the team, you're fighting to find your form in the team."

"I think he's on that final stage now but certainly for me the way he played against Glasgow last weekend - particularly in the last 20 minutes of the first half and the first 20 of the second before we took him off - was a lot more where he wants to be and where we think he should be. It's good for him now because he knows that without Dan or Josh there we need him."

"We need him playing in that No.7 role so he can completely focus the attention on that. And the good thing is that on the bench you've got the likes of Max Deegan or Caelan Doris who are young players but who have great experience as well."

"But I think he's getting there. Another good week this week and I'll think he'll be flying on Sunday."

"When I look at him now moving in training and at his collision impact it was much better in the Glasgow game, particularly his carry in the latter half of his 60 minutes - that's what Sean O'Brien does well."

"We need some stoppers in our defensive line and Seanie can be that player as well because Toulouse have Faumuina, Tekori, Kaino, Arnold and Gray - some big guys."

Leinster are seriously boosted by the return to full training of Johnny Sexton (inset yesterday), who hasn't played since suffering a quad injury in Ireland's Six Nations loss to Wales a month ago.

Lancaster admits it was "different" this year in the aftermath of the championship compared to last, when Leinster's large Ireland contingent returned with a Grand Slam secured.

But Ireland star Sexton's timely return to full fitness is a massive lift after he missed the narrow quarter-final win over Ulster.

"He trained at the end of last week, trained Thursday and we had a non-23 session on Friday between 20 players," said Lancaster.

"He's very much in leadership mode. We'll wait and see how he plays at the weekend."

And while Devin Toner and Robbie Henshaw came through their first game since February unscathed last Saturday, Tadhg Furlong has recovered from a worrying knock he suffered in that defeat to Glasgow.

Lancaster added: "I was hoping he's OK because he's such a big player for us."

"Fortunately, if you saw the game live he gingerly got up but he seemed to be fine and he was fine in the changing room after the game."

"Now he's talking away at meetings and he's good to go."

JAMIE: WE DIDN'T FEEL

BY MICHAEL SCULLY

OUT of the ashes of Saracens' exit at the hands of Leinster last year came a desire that has made Europe's top sides fear their return to Champions Cup dominance.

Having conquered the continent in 2016 and 2017, Sarries were a shadow of their former selves in last season's quarter-final at the Aviva Stadium. But hooker Jamie

George has revealed how they picked themselves up, dusted themselves off and quickly returned a stronger force - claiming the Premiership crown in 2018 before charging unbeaten out of the pool stages and past Glasgow in the Champions Cup quarter-finals this campaign.

"We were incredibly disappointed with the Leinster result," George said of the 30-19 defeat at Aviva Stadium (left).

"But the important thing for us was that we were able to focus on the domestic competition - and we were able to go on and win that. That was a huge sign regarding us as a club."

"Sometimes when you lose games you learn a huge amount about yourselves and we realised that last year - that we weren't at our best at all, that we were actually quite a long way off that."

SARACENS v MUNSTER RICOH ARENA, SATURDAY 3PM
LEINSTER v TOULOUSE AVIVA STADIUM, SUNDAY 3.15PM

LONG ROAD BACK

Flanker Sean O'Brien is battling to find his old form after series of injuries

WORDS OF WISDOM Lancaster with Jordan Larmour during training session yesterday

TRUE PRO Tyler Bleyendaal has kept his focus despite injuries

LATE PUSH Jofra Archer is eyeing place at finals

Jofra bid for finals is queried

BY DEAN WILSON

JOFFRA ARCHER faces a battle on and off the pitch to claim his place at next month's World Cup.

England will announce their initial squad of 15 at Lord's today, with T20 pace star Archer and fellow Barbados-born star Chris Jordan expected to be named in an extended group to face Ireland and Pakistan next month.

But fast bowler Chris Woakes claims it "wouldn't be fair, morally" if Archer was parachuted into a settled team.

"We've been a tight-knit group for the last two to three years, played some really strong cricket, won a lot of series," said Woakes at a launch of One Day 4 Children with the ICC and UNICEF.

"Apart from a personal level, I wouldn't want to see any of my mates and

TOUGH CALLS Morgan has big choices to make team-mates miss out. But it's the nature of international cricket that there is always someone knocking on the door.

"It probably wouldn't be fair, morally, but at the same time it's the nature of international sport."

Woakes' comments follow those of fellow England fast bowler Mark Wood, who questioned whether a late arrival like Archer could change the dynamic of the squad.

All of which leaves a huge amount of man-management for skipper Eoin Morgan and coach Trevor Bayliss to cope with on the eve of a tournament.

But Morgan is confident he can handle the issues.

He said: "The situation will need managing and that will fall on myself and Trevor's shoulders.

"But I don't mind bearing the brunt of whatever challenge it might be."

KEEPING TYLER A GRAAN GESTURE

BY MICHAEL SCULLY
JOHANN VAN GRAAN decided to keep Tyler Bleyendaal for big weeks, exactly like this one.

The Munster boss admits questions were asked when the province handed the Kiwi a new two-year contract in February, despite a series of injuries that had severely limited his game time.

But with Joey Carbery highly unlikely to return from a hamstring problem in time for Saturday's crunch semi-final against Saracens, Bleyendaal returns to centre stage.

And those that have seen the 28-year-old go about his business behind the scenes believe that he's a ready-made coach in the waiting.

"He's incredibly intelligent," said backline colleague Rory Scannell. "He's one of these guys who could go straight into coaching if you asked him today."

But Bleyendaal has unfinished business to attend to as a player before that.

"He was one of the first people I met when I came here in that first week of the Racing game two years ago."

"His composure and calmness impressed me straight away, Tyler is a very consistent guy. Whether injured or not, he gives the same amount of input every week.

"He sits in on every meeting and is just one of those guys that is a real energy giver.

"He doesn't say that much but what he says has got some real value and he is a massive influence at Munster.

"There was a lot of questions asked as to why I re-signed him and it is specifically for weeks like this.

"He is a great man, a very good rugby player, he understands the game of rugby - we're very lucky to have him."

Two serious neck injuries and quad problems have badly disrupted Bleyendaal's time at Munster but he didn't miss a beat when he stepped in during the first half of the quarter-final win in Edinburgh.

And Keith Earls' second try wouldn't have happened if the Ireland-qualified back hadn't put his body on the line to win back possession.

"It proved to all that Bleyendaal is well and truly over the effects of his injuries.

"I've never had a neck injury but to go through what he has gone through, I don't think everyone understands how tough it really is and it takes time."

acknowledged van Graan.

"He's fought his way back in his own quiet way."

Bank of Ireland

SARRIE FOR OURSELVES

That became apparent in that Leinster game when we were out-played and out-classed.

"But that galvanised us, made us closer and certainly a better squad on the back of it.

"We were made aware of what it took to be the best in Europe and we then took that into the domestic competition.

"I think we saw history repeating itself in terms of what happened in the final and then the way we started this season."

Munster, in their 14th semi-final, stand in the way of Sarries and a third final appearance in four years. This is also their sixth semi-final appearance in just seven years.

"I don't know about legacy," said England international George, when asked about just that. "We don't speak about it at the start of season but we're fully aware we are here to win titles. And if we don't, like last season, that is so disappointing for us.

"We know what rides on this game but we know we have to beat some very good teams along the way and Munster are certainly one of those."

LESSON LEARNED England hooker Jamie George says Sarries have used last year's hurt

FAI SHAMBLES

Will there come a point in this Euro campaign where the FAI struggles to pay hotel bills?

"WE are beginning to see the beginning of the end of the old FAI."

Those were Minister for Sport Shane Ross' parting words at yesterday's Oireachtas hearing on another damaging day for the Football Association of Ireland.

Its brand, the reputation of its top brass and the confidence in both has been utterly obliterated after a remarkable month of scandal and revelation.

So much of the focus has centred on the grassroots, after Sport Ireland cut its funding to the FAI.

And drawdown of larger, more valuable sports capital grants is now dependent on the FAI addressing its serious governance issues once the board resigns within the next two months.

But amid all this chaos, what of the Ireland senior team, the manager Mick McCarthy, his staff, Stephen Kenny and all the underage teams below them?

After all, FAI chiefs said the association's cash flow problems were so serious in April 2017 that generous John Delaney had to loan it €100,000 from his own pocket.

And that, the FAI claim, was to prevent it exceeding its €1.5million overdraft limit.

PAUL O'HEHIR

On that basis – and the fact there's been little or no mention in the meantime of any sudden upturn in financial fortunes – it must be a concern going forward.

Should McCarthy wonder if the FAI can afford the overheads associated with sending his team abroad for matches this year, for instance?

It's not that long ago that players from the Irish women's team were humiliated by having to change into – and then out of – their team tracksuits in airport toilets.

Should Seamus Coleman (right) and the lads fear this sort of stuff? In the wake of recent revelations about FAI finances, it's not unreasonable to ask. Will there come a point later in the Euro 2020 campaign where the FAI struggles to pay the hotel bill in Tbilisi or Geneva?

Dramatic as that may sound, these are legitimate questions now worth asking of football's governing body.

Not least when the FAI must also shell out for the cost of the respective Mazers and Grant Thornton investigations... into its own affairs! It's madness.

At the Oireachtas hearing last week, McCarthy was namechecked by former CEO Delaney during his controversial appearance.

He said: "All you have to do is speak to Mick McCarthy who said he couldn't recognise the association he left to the one he walked back into. He said that."

McCarthy may not recognise the association he saw three weeks ago after the Georgia game, never mind 17 years.

In March 2018, the businessman Denis O'Brien stopped part-funding the salaries of the Irish management having forked out almost €10m over a 10-year period.

That began with Giovanni Trapattoni and Marco Tardelli and carried through until the final year of Martin O'Neill and Roy Keane's reign.

Announcing O'Brien would no longer be stumping up, Delaney said 13 months ago: "We're strong enough now to stand on our own two feet."

McCarthy, Stephen Kenny, Robbie Keane, Terry Connor and all the backroom staff and underage management teams below them hope that's the case.

But we leave the last word to Sport Ireland chief John Treacy, speaking after the Oireachtas committee hearing.

"Cashflow was always an issue with (the FAI) and we're aware of that. But they always seem to manage and get there in the end."

That maybe so but suddenly everything is being questioned. Delaney allowed it come to this under his watch. And not even his staunchest supporters can defend that.

CITY SLICKER McNamee is loving second Derry spell

Barry eyes up Rovers scalp next

BY PAUL BUTTNER

BARRY McNAMEE wants the Brandywell rocking on Friday night as revitalised Derry City go gunning for Shamrock Rovers.

His Candystripes blitzed St Pat's 3-1 at Richmond Park on Monday night.

And the fourth league win on the bounce edged Declan Devine's side up to second in the table to perfectly set up leaders Rovers' visit north.

Boss Devine rotated his squad in Inchicore, making three changes from last Friday's 2-0 win at UCD.

Skipper McNamee was on the bench, coming on to calm things down over the last 20 minutes.

But the midfielder was full of praise for his teammates' first half display.

"The first half-hour was probably the best we've played this season," said McNamee. "A few boys

PREMIER LEAGUE TABLE

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Shamrock Rovers	11	9	1	1	20	5	28
Derry City	10	6	2	2	17	10	20
Bohemians	10	6	2	2	9	4	20
Donkalk	10	5	3	2	17	6	18
St Patrick's	10	3	3	4	6	9	12
Walter	10	3	2	5	13	15	11
Cork City	10	3	2	5	11	14	11
Sligo Rovers	10	3	2	5	7	13	11
UCD	10	3	1	6	12	16	10
Finn Harps	11	0	2	9	7	23	2

came in on the night. They had a point to prove and they were excellent.

"We're in great form which is good as we bring momentum into the games coming thick and fast. We've shown a great attitude.

"We went to St Pat's on Monday having been in Dublin on Friday night and we treated the game with respect, worked hard and got our rewards."

After a season at Cork City where he was played out of position, McNamee is back where he wants to be both on and off the pitch.

"In years gone by, when I was here before, some teams might have seen Derry as a soft touch," said 27-year-old McNamee.

"Deccie has come in and changed that. First things first is your attitude and that's been spot on since the first day of the season.

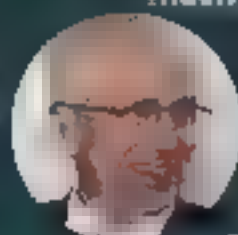

"We're in a good bit of form now and hopefully that continues."

DELANEY'S GONE BUT 'STILL ON PAYROLL'

FROM BACK PAGE

his role as executive vice president Monday, pending an internal investigation.

At the Oireachtas Committee hearing yesterday, Sport Ireland chief executive John Treacy (right) claimed Delaney was doing so on full pay. Delaney reportedly earns €120,000 a year for his new role and Treacy said: "I believe he's still on the payroll while the investigation is going on. That's as much as I know."

Sport Ireland met FAI representatives for crisis talks on Monday evening.

And chairman Kieran Mulvey said yesterday: "From my experience of employment law, there's a term that an individual is on gardening leave and I assume that's where Mr Delaney is." Mulvey also said the 60-strong FAI Council had the power to force an FAI EGM to remove the board earlier than July.

"They elect the board so it's up for them to act if they wish to so act," he said, adding that Sport Ireland cannot prevent current board members from running again.

Treacy said there are similarities between the FAI and the old Olympic Council of Ireland (OCI) when it was under Pat Hickey's watch during the Olympic ticket scandal in Rio.

Now with new people in charge, the OCI has re-branded to the Olympic Federation of Ireland and the FAI is being urged to go down a similar route.

But former Ireland star Niall Quinn distanced himself once again from becoming FAI chief, claiming he was "certainly not the person to lead that"

BRIGHTON 0 CARDIFF 2

Mendez-Laing 22, Morrison 50

PREMIER LEAGUE
AMEX STADIUM

RATINGS by MIKE WALTERS mirror.co.uk/sport/football

BRIGHTON

RYAN
No chance with Cardiff goals, could have done with more protection

BRUNO
Sign of times when Seagulls turn to the 38-year-old for help

DUFFY
Tried in vain to restore matters following Bournemouth debacle

DUNK
Lost track of Morrison at set-piece for second Bluebirds goal

BERNARDO
Steady enough, but lacked any real attacking incision

GROSS
Struggled to find pockets of space, no surprise he was hooked

STEPHENS
Ponderous in possession, looked short of confidence

PROPPER
Alert, but anxious and looked way below his best form

JAHANBAKHS
No disrespect, but what exactly does he bring to the party?

MURRAY
Too often was left to forage for scraps down the channels

MARCH
Promising approach work, but overhit too many crosses

SUBS: Andone (Gross 54) 6 Izquierdo (Jahanbakhsh 69)

CARDIFF

ETHERIDGE
Can hold his head high after producing an impressive season

PELTIER
Stuck rigidly to his task - not pretty, but effective

MORRISON MOTM.
Led by example, and a thumping header to make it 2-0

ECUELE MANGA
Very lucky not to concede penalty for headlock on Dunk

BENNETT Booked.
Gave Jahanbakhsh less change than a fruit machine

GUNNARSSON
There's more to life in the Premier League than long throws

RALLS
Decent set-piece delivery was always a likely source of joy

MENDEZ-LAING
Superb opener bent into the top corner from 20 yards

CAMARASA
Grafted intelligently, immaculate delivery for Morrison's goal

HOILETT
Teed up Mendez-Laing goal and put in huge shift defensively

NIASSE
Few clear-cut openings, but always ready to give Dunk a gallop

SUBS: Bacuna (Gunnarsson 54) 5, K Harris (Mendez-Laing 80) 6, Zohore (Niasse 85)

NEIL & PRAY

Still hope for Warnock's battlers and sad Brighton face fight for survival

HAVE SOME OF NAT.
Nathanial Mendez-Laing hits the opener from 20 yards for Cardiff

REMAINING GAMES..

BRIGHTON
Saturday	Wolves	(away)
Apr 23	Tottenham	(away)
Apr 27	Newcastle	(home)
May 4	Arsenal	(away)
May 12	Man City	(home)
CARDIFF
Sun	Liverpool	(home)
Apr 27	Fulham	(away)
May 4	C Palace	(home)
May 12	Man United	(away)

BY MIKE WALTERS
@MikeWaltersMGM

BRIGHTON are rocking - and they can't find the emergency handbrake.

As goals from Nathaniel Mendez-Laing and Sean Morrison closed the gap between the Bluebirds and safety to just two points, Albion manager Chris Hughton cut a lonely and dispirited figure on the Amex touchline.

Booted off, after a second calamitous home defeat in four days, Brighton have lost the plot.

And with a daunting run-in, culminating in a home date with Quadruple-hunting Manchester City, it is hard to see where their next point is coming from.

Cardiff are short on quality but love a scrap. A squad of Championship players under the stewardship of that shy and studious academic, Mr Neil Warnock, was never going to give up.

Warnock has a record eight promotions to his name, but he has never guided any of his teams to Premier League safety - and if the drayman's hatch awaits him again, he ain't going quietly.

City have been forced to play since January with the trauma of record £15million signing Emiliano Sala's tragic fate on their minds.

Warnock had called on his players to draw on the spirit of Tiger Woods because "nobody gave him a chance either."

But the five-times Green Jacket winner had a formidable set of clubs in his bag at the US

Masters: Cardiff have been trying to shoot level-par with cocktail sticks.

It would be an astonishing feat survival. Bear Grylls-plus, if they stay up.

Brighton, 12 points from a possible 51 after Saturday's meltdown against Bournemouth, had been going downhill faster than the Cresta Run.

These Seagulls are no tame they wouldn't even nick your chips on the promenade.

It says much for their collapsing form and haemorrhaging confidence that Hughton turned to 38-year-old club captain Bruno Salto to apply the emergency tourniquet.

Warnock has never settled for artistic merit where earnest scuffling is available, but occasionally Cardiff surprise us by putting out a Da Vinci masterpiece with the recycling.

And Men of Harlech was in full cry among the visiting contingent when Mendez-Laing collected a return pass from Junior Hoilett to curl a superb opener beyond Mat Ryan from 20 yards.

If you couldn't hear the alarm bells ringing in Brighton, there was nobody home in the belfry.

Albion justifiably felt aggrieved when referee Andre Marriner ignored their penalty appeal for Bruno Ecuele Manganas headlock on Lewis Dunk.

But Dunk was at fault when Cardiff struck again five minutes after the break, Morrison (left) escaping his marker to head Victor Camarasa's free-kick emphatically beyond Ryan.

PREMIER LEAGUE TABLE

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Liverpool	34	26	7	1	77	20	85
Man City	33	27	2	4	86	22	83
Tottenham	33	22	1	10	64	34	67
Arsenal	33	20	6	7	66	49	66
Chelsea	34	20	6	8	57	36	66
Man Utd	33	19	7	7	63	44	64
Leicester	34	11	5	18	47	66	47
Wolves	33	13	8	12	41	41	47
Everton	33	13	7	14	46	44	46
Watford	33	13	7	13	47	48	46
West Ham	34	12	6	16	42	52	42
Bournemouth	34	12	5	17	49	61	41
C Palace	34	11	6	17	40	46	39
Burnley	34	11	6	17	42	60	39
Newcastle	34	10	8	16	32	43	38
Southampton	33	9	9	15	39	54	36
Brighton	33	9	6	18	32	53	33
Cardiff	34	9	4	21	30	63	31
Fulham (R)	34	5	5	24	32	76	20
Hudders' (R)	34	3	5	26	26	67	14

MATCH STATS

54%	POSSESSION	36%
8	SHOTS ON TARGET	3
8	SHOTS OFF TARGET	3
11	CORNERS	4
2	OFFSIDE	0
11	FOULS	13
0	CARDS	1

REF: Andre Marriner ATT: 30,226

FOOTBALL SPY

THE ORIGINAL GOSSIP COLUMN

YOURI THE MAN FOR RODGERS

BY DAVE ARMITAGE

BRENDAN RODGERS is urging Leicester to wrap up a £40million deal for loan Belgium midfielder Youri Tielemans.

The 21-year-old (below) has proved a hit and is on the radar of a number of rival clubs including Spurs. Monaco star Tielemans is receptive to signing permanently and the one bargaining tool that Foxes boss Rodgers has is City midfielder Adrien Silva who went to the French club in a loan 'swap' deal.

Tielemans said: "I'll be back this summer. I am open to everything. For Monaco, Leicester or another team."

SWANSONG FOR COACH CURTIS

SWANSEA legend Alan Curtis will retire from the club's coaching staff at the end of the season.

Curtis, 65, scored 110 goals in 400 Swans appearances, and has been caretaker boss three times.

"After over 40 years serving the club I felt this was the right time to step back from day-to-day involvement," said Curtis (right), who will take up a new role as honorary club president.

PORTO v LIVERPOOL

BELIEVE

If you don't think we can do the Double you might as well stay at home says Virgil

BY DAVID MADDOCK
@MaddockMirror

VIRGIL VAN DIJK has told his team-mates: "You have to believe we'll do the double - otherwise you can stay home next time."

The Dutch colossus arrived in Porto with his team-mates yesterday, insisting it is a great time to be a Red.

They aim to complete the demolition of the Portuguese after a 2-0 victory at Anfield in the first leg, to reach a second consecutive Champions League semi-final.

But the Liverpool defender insists his team must now dare dream they can go further and complete a memorable double by also lifting the Premier League trophy.

"For us now it is about belief. And if you think about it, what is eight games? Fingers crossed. You have to give everything you have got," he explained.

"It is going to be tough, we know that. But it is a great time to be a Liverpool player. We have to, you know, just go for it."

Liverpool really are in touching distance of the ultimate domestic and European double - a feat they have achieved twice before in their glorious history, in 1977 and 1984.

Those teams were considered the greatest of all time in Reds legend, and Van Dijk is not scared of the challenge of attempting to join those greats in Anfield folklore.

In a rousing call to his team, he said: "You have to believe, otherwise you can stay home next time. You need that belief."

And asked if suggesting they have eight games left shows the club's belief, he added: "Yes...you have to keep that in mind, think that way, that's what we are aiming for."

"But I did say fingers crossed as well! It is still something we need to believe in, but of course we still need to do it too."

"We are going to believe in ourselves to keep going, reach the final again, because that is what we are here for."

"That's what we have to do, just focus on ourselves, give it everything, see where it takes us."

Van Dijk (above) refuses to underestimate Porto though, and he explained that Liverpool will show them the respect of playing their strongest side - and their natural game.

And he reckons the Reds must be brave enough to attack in search of an away goal to kill the tie.

"Porto will still have the belief, but we obviously believe we are going there to finish the job," added the centre-back.

"We have to play our game. We are not going to defend the 2-0, we want to attack and play like we have been playing this season...hopefully create chances to score a goal maybe two."

"If we score one we know they will need four to go through."

"We must play our game, create chances and then finish the tie."

TIME TO STAND UP
Virgil van Dijk says
Liverpool can join the legends of 1977
and 1984

STAY AHEAD OF THE CURVE

Download the free
Irish Mirror App

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE, QUARTER-FINAL, SECOND LEG
DRAGON STADIUM, KO 8PM (LIVERPOOL LEAD 2-0)

Scholes in bets probe

FROM BACK PAGE
 between August 2015 and January 2019 when the stakes were placed, and FA rules prevent anyone working within the game from gambling on football.

The former England midfielder, 44, is the latest high-profile star to fall foul of the FA's strict rules, although he is more likely to face a fine or warning rather than a suspension.

While Scholes' bets potentially break the rules, they are believed to have been placed for personal enjoyment and without using insider knowledge.

Liverpool striker Daniel Sturridge is being investigated over bets placed on possible loan moves, while Joey Barton was banned for placing 1,260 bets on matches.

Puel 'upset cosy Foxes'

BY DARREN LEWIS
 CLAUDE PUEL believes he lost his job at Leicester because he forced players out of their comfort zone.

The Frenchman - axed in February - tried to oversee a transition from City's ageing title-winners of 2016 to a young, vibrant group good enough to challenge for a return to Europe.

But the younger players struggled, while his experienced campaigners fumed at being left out.

Puel said: "When you take players out of comfort or ask something else, there are tensions.

"I put myself in difficulty, knowingly. It hurts players who have been there for a long time. But it must be done, I have no regrets, I'm happy with the job I did."

MATCH FACTS

Two of the three teams that lost their first leg by two or more goals in the last 16 of the Champions League this season managed to turn around the tie in the second leg - with Manchester United knocking out Paris Saint-Germain and Juventus defeating Atletico Madrid.

Porto have lost the first leg of a Champions League/European Cup knockout tie by two or more goals on six occasions - and in all six of those they have been eliminated from the competition.

Liverpool have never lost a European match against Porto in their seven previous encounters (W4 D3 L0), keeping three successive clean sheets against them.

Porto suffered their heaviest ever home defeat in European competition against Liverpool during last season's Champions League, with the Anfield side winning 5-0 in a last-16 tie.

Sadio Mane hit a hat-trick for the Reds at Porto's ground in last season's tournament; no player has ever scored two hat-tricks away from home against one club.

TEAMS

PORTO: Casillas, Corona, Pepe, Militao, Telles, Danilo, Torres, Herrera, Marega, Soares, Brahimi
LIVERPOOL: Alisson, Alexander-Arnold, Lovren, Van Dijk, Robertson, Henderson, Fabinho, Wijnaldum, Salah, Firmino, Mane

OR LEAVE

MILNER: WE MUST DELIVER

BY DAVID MADDOCK

JAMES MILNER pulled no punches as he insisted Liverpool must win a trophy this season to be bracketed with the best in the world.

The Reds veteran was responding to Porto coach Sergio Conceicao, who was gushing in his praise of the Kop squad ahead of tonight's second leg.

Conceicao admitted: "Liverpool give me all I like about football.

"I like the dynamics. I like the game model.

"It's how I see football and in a lot of moments, they are the best team in the world."

Yet Milner, who twice won the league with Manchester City but has been in three finals with Liverpool without raising a trophy, said: "You get those compliments by playing good football over a sustained period of time, so we can take that as a compliment.

"But to be the best in the world you have to win trophies.

"There are a lot of good teams left in the Champions League and it's down for us to prove that, and hopefully win at least one trophy this season.

"There are also a lot of good teams between us and the last game of the season and we have to keep improving and playing like we are doing at the moment.

"Getting to three finals has helped a lot, and given us a lot of experience. You can see that with the way we have been able to grind out wins even when we have not been at our best."

But boss Jurgen Klopp (above, in high spirits with his squad) joked about Conceicao's words being a trap.

"My players are not silly they don't misunderstand things like this - we have to play at our limit 100 per cent, and not just try to go through, because we can not underestimate the power they have," said the German.

Klopp revealed Dejan Lovren didn't travel because he was ill, but Joe Gomez is ready to play a part from the bench.

NEW BOOK OUT NOW

What Des didn't see isn't worth knowing...

From All-Ireland finals to World Cups, Olympic Games, the Tour de France and the Six Nations... A lifetime of golden memories from our man inside sport

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY SPORTS FANS CAN'T MISS... OUT NOW

Happy days for accused Joey

BY JOHN CROSS

LAUGHING Joey Barton looked like he did not have a care in the world, taking training at Fleetwood just three days after his alleged assault on Barnsley boss Daniel Stendel.

The Tykes have made a formal complaint to the Football League over the incident, which occurred in the tunnel after their 4-2 League One victory over Barton's side.

The FA are watching developments with interest, but are unlikely to get involved because of an ongoing police investigation, which may result in formal charges being brought against Barton (above). According to witnesses, Saturday's flare-up left Stendel with "blood pouring from his face".

HENNESSEY 'IGNORANT ON HITLER'

WAYNE HENNESSEY claimed he "did not know" what a Nazi salute was, as the Crystal Palace star escaped punishment.

He was told by an FA panel he showed a "lamentable degree of ignorance" about Adolf Hitler, fascism and the Nazi regime after his case of making an offensive gesture was found unproven.

Hennessey (left) was pictured with his arm in the air and hand above his mouth, but said he "waved and shouted at the person taking the picture to get on with it".

The panel said the goalkeeper "displayed a very considerable - one might even say lamentable - degree of ignorance about Hitler, fascism and the Nazi regime... We do not feel we should find [him] was not telling the truth."

Boss' job in the Bag for Shan

ROOKIE boss Jimmy Shan has been handed the task of trying to get managerless West Brom back into the big time.

The 40-year-old former academy head coach has been given the job until the end of the season. Albion are fourth in the table and look to be in a strong enough position to get over the line for the play-offs.

Shan (above) has been in charge of first-team affairs for six matches - taking 12 points - following the shock sacking of Baggies boss Darren Moore just over a month ago.

He said: "I'm happy we can now move forward with clear direction for the remainder of the season."

"It won't change the work ethic and application of the players and the staff, but it enables us to crack on with a target in our sights."

MANCHESTER CITY v TOTTENHAM

DON'T MENTION THE FOUR

Stones ignores Pep's cagey approach and admit he's dreaming of the Quadruple

BY ANDY DUNN

Chief Sports Writer

@andydunnmirror

JOHN STONES has not got the Quadruple memo from the manager. Clearly.

While Pep Guardiola has often played down Manchester City's chances of an unprecedented clean sweep, Stones is positively bullish about the prospect.

And as Guardiola cut a pressurised figure ahead of the Champions League second leg against Tottenham, Stones was relaxed and relishing the brutally tough challenges that lie ahead.

Guardiola (right) would only go as far as saying that the guarantee of a top-four Premier League finish was an incredible success. Stones, on the other hand, is targeting the maximum haul of silverware.

The England defender said: "We are still on for the Quadruple and that is the dream we are trying to achieve and fighting every day for. If you don't dream then you are not going to get anywhere near it. It comes from within everyone, we have this belief and ambition to do it. I don't think a lot of things are impossible."

Stones used the example of last season's record-breaking Premier League points total as evidence of City's iron will to set new benchmarks.

He added: "Last season, we won the league quite early but 100 points had never been done before. So we had the belief and desire to go on and do it and we went on to do it. That is the mindset."

Stones is not a guaranteed starter as City look to overturn a

1-0 deficit from the first leg and make it through to the last four in a competition he desperately wants to win.

He said: "It is something we are all dreaming of and all want to achieve. The Premier League and Champions League are both so important for our history as a club."

"The Champions League is something we have not got and something we want to put in the trophy cabinet."

Stones has not been an automatic choice but insists he will be ready to deal with the intensity of the two games against Spurs and next Wednesday's derby at Old Trafford.

He said: "You get the best out of yourself when you are under this sort of scrutiny and you find within yourself who you are as a player."

"To be involved in those big games, it is a privileged position and we have got to take every opportunity."

As he spoke on the eve of the showdown with Spurs, Stones had not been told whether he will feature from the off.

He might well get his chance if Guardiola decides to shift Aymeric Laporte into the problematic left-back slot.

Whatever his role, Stones will be ready, adding: "If it is five minutes, 20 minutes, full game, whatever, you have to be ready to fight for the team, to be unselfish."

"Everyone is together here. Everyone knows how big the game is and how important it is to us as a club. It is a massive occasion."

"For the rest of the season we have everything to play for and we have to enjoy the pressure and roll with it and believe in ourselves."

And in Stones' case, that means believing in the Quadruple.

FANS TOLD TO RAISE GAME

FROM BACK PAGE

this season, as they welcome Spurs in the second leg of the Champions League quarter-final.

The same opponents return in the Premier League on Saturday before City visit neighbours United at Old Trafford next Wednesday. And Blues boss

Guardiola issued a rare rallying call to the crowd, saying: "The players are human, they will have bad moments in the games and, at that moment, we need our supporters."

"Without the supporters, we cannot go through. I'm really curious to how our fans are going to react. Really curious."

Guardiola has not reached a

Champions League final since 2011 - and he wants the sort of febrile atmosphere he has experienced at other grounds.

He said: "Many times I played in the semi-finals and quarter-finals and every time I played away, the atmosphere was really incredible. They support their teams. Now we really need it."

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE QUARTER-FINAL 2ND LEG ETIHAD STADIUM, 8PM

Blues in need of a Pepe talk

Chelsea v Slavia Prague
Europa League quarter-final second leg, tomorrow, 8pm (Chelsea lead 1-0)

BY DARREN LEWIS
CHELSEA are ready to return to Eden Hazard's former club Lille for his replacement, Nicolas Pepe.

The Ivory Coast winger (above) has made it clear to the French outfit he wants to leave this summer. Lille have responded by slapping a £70million price tag on his head.

The 23-year-old has been a smash hit in Ligue 1 this season, scoring 11 times and assisting a further 11 goals in just 17 matches. The sensational run in form has helped lift Lille up to second in the table.

Chelsea, who meet Slavia Prague in the Europa League at Stamford Bridge tomorrow night, are resigned to losing Hazard at the end of the season as the Belgian has just a year left on his contract.

The Blues are fighting against the transfer ban they have had imposed on them by FIFA and have lined up Pepe in case their appeal is successful.

Hazard spent five years at Lille before leaving for London in a stunning £32m deal in 2012. The 28-year-old has since lifted two Premier Leagues, the FA Cup, League Cup and Europa League.

With the club languishing outside the Premier League's top four, however, Hazard is set to follow up his well-documented wish to work with Zinedine Zidane at Real Madrid.

Gary Cahill is continuing to attract interest from West Ham. The former England centre-back has been out in the cold at Chelsea, and is desperate for regular first-team football.

He could get his wish this week with Antonio Rudiger a big doubt for the quarter-final, second leg.

Rudiger is having a scan to determine the extent of the knee injury he suffered in Sunday's 2-0 defeat at Liverpool.

Cahill, 33, has made just seven appearances this term, the last of which was against PAOK Salonika five months ago.

SAVING THE DAY Lloris was a hero in the first leg when he denied Sergio Aguero from the penalty spot early in the tie

Hugo first...but we'll fight back

LLORIS EXPECTS CITY ONSLAUGHT, BUT SAYS SPURS WILL ATTACK ON COUNTER AND COME OUT ON TOP

BY GIDEON BROOKS
HUGO LLORIS says Spurs are braced for an early onslaught from a fired-up Manchester City - insisting that they are "ready to suffer".

The keeper, whose penalty save from Sergio Aguero in last week's Champions League quarter-final denied City, before Son Heung-min (below) got the first-leg winner for the Londoners, is prepared for a busy evening.

But he fired a warning to Pep Guardiola's men that Tottenham remain capable of hurting them on the counter attack on a night when the home side cannot afford to concede.

"From one game to another, the football can change very quickly," said Lloris.

"It is all about the mentality, the spirit. To have the same idea of football together and then of course we are ready to suffer because tomorrow we are going to suffer."

"But we know we can make the game difficult for them, too. It is just about enjoying being at this stage of the competition, being ready to compete. Momentum is very important."

Lloris' penalty save after 13 minutes proved a key moment in the first leg, with Ilkay Gundogan admitting City reacted badly to the setback.

"I don't think it is the only reason because we made such an effort to win this game, but it was a key moment," added Lloris.

"But it is going to be a different game. We have a small advantage, but everything can turn quickly."

"It is important to come here with ambition, to stick with our basics and, if we come here with the mentality to score goals, it will make it harder for Man City. We know we will have to suffer."

"We know in the Champions League in a double confrontation it is always important not to concede a goal at home. It can help you for the return game."

"But we are going to face one of the best teams in Europe, they can make the difference at any moment and score a lot of goals."

"One-nil was a good result, but we need to forget it. We are going to have to use our brains as well, but it doesn't mean we are not going to have to run as well. We have to finish the game with the feeling we have given everything."

Spurs are missing Harry Kane for the second leg after the striker injured an ankle last week.

But Lloris maintained they are not a one-man team.

He said: "He is very difficult to replace, but the good thing is everyone is ready to help the team."

"We have a different profile up front and they are ready to fight and give the maximum for the team. It is all about team performance."

Spurs would be reaching fresh ground in Champions League football should they make it through to the semi-final stage.

And Lloris said it would be further evidence of progress in north London under manager Mauricio Pochettino.

"We are in a good position and it is a massive opportunity for the club to make a big step forward," he said.

"But no matter what happens tomorrow, I think we can be very proud of everything."

Pochettino believes there are still big steps to be made, but said: "With our new stadium, we need to be contenders to fight for the Champions League and the Premier League because we need the tools to be there."

"It is going to be tough to find a way to be on the same level as Real Madrid and Barcelona."

"For us there is a lot of work to be on the level we want in the future."

MATCH FACTS

■ Manchester City trail 1-0 after losing the first leg against Tottenham of the 32 previous occasions of a side losing the first leg of a two-legged Champions League tie 1-0 away from home, 10 went on to progress (31).

■ Tottenham were eliminated the last time they won 1-0 in the first leg of a two-legged European tie at home, being knocked out by Kaiserslautern in the second round of the 1999-2000 UEFA Cup (2-1 on aggregate).

■ SPURS have only won one of their last eight visits to Manchester City in all competitions (D1 L6), a 2-1 Premier League win in February 2016.

■ The first leg of Tottenham vs Manchester City saw eight different English players in the two starting line-ups. The last UEFA Champions League game to see more Englishmen start was the 2008 Champions League final between Manchester United and Chelsea (1-0).

■ In European competition, Manchester City have lost all five of their previous matches against fellow English clubs, including all three in the Champions League.

GRANIT: JOB NOT DONE

Napoli v Arsenal

Europa League quarter-final, second leg, tomorrow, 8pm (Arsenal lead 2-0)

GRANIT XHAKA braced Arsenal for a new test of backbone in Naples, ahead of a "big, big weekend" in the top-four scramble.

The Gunners (manager Unai Emery, right) head for Italy with a healthy advantage from their Europa League quarter-final first leg fortified by a first Premier League away clean sheet of the season.

Then Emery's men could climb above Tottenham into third, if Spurs drop points at Manchester City, before Arsenal entertain Crystal Palace on Sunday. An unconvincing 1-0 win at 10-man Watford lifted the Gunners back into Champions League orbit, but Xhaka (right) warned the storm has not yet passed.

He said: "We had a good result at home, but it will not be easy in Napoli, as you have seen with Liverpool and PSG's results there. Napoli have a good team, especially with their fans, but 2-0 (from the first leg) is a good result and I hope we can reach the semi-final."

As for the Gunners' top-four hopes, the Swiss midfielder added: "We are one point behind Tottenham and now they play City. It can be a big, big weekend for us."

BARCELONA 3 MAN UTD 0

Messi 16, 20, Coutinho 61

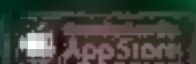

OH DEAR DE GEA

Lionel Messi wheels away in celebration after David De Gea's fumble

'A' for effort, but United are three goals & light years behind Barca

ROI: 1800946243
NI: 08000322365

bet365.com

BET BUILDER

CREATE YOUR OWN
PERSONALISED SOCCER BET
PRE-MATCH OR IN-PLAY

Go to your chosen fixture • Select Bet Builder from the header
• Add up to 6 selections to create your unique bet

MAN CITY / TOTTENHAM

LIVE ON VIRGIN MEDIA SPORT EXTRA
BT SPORT 2 KICK-OFF 20:00

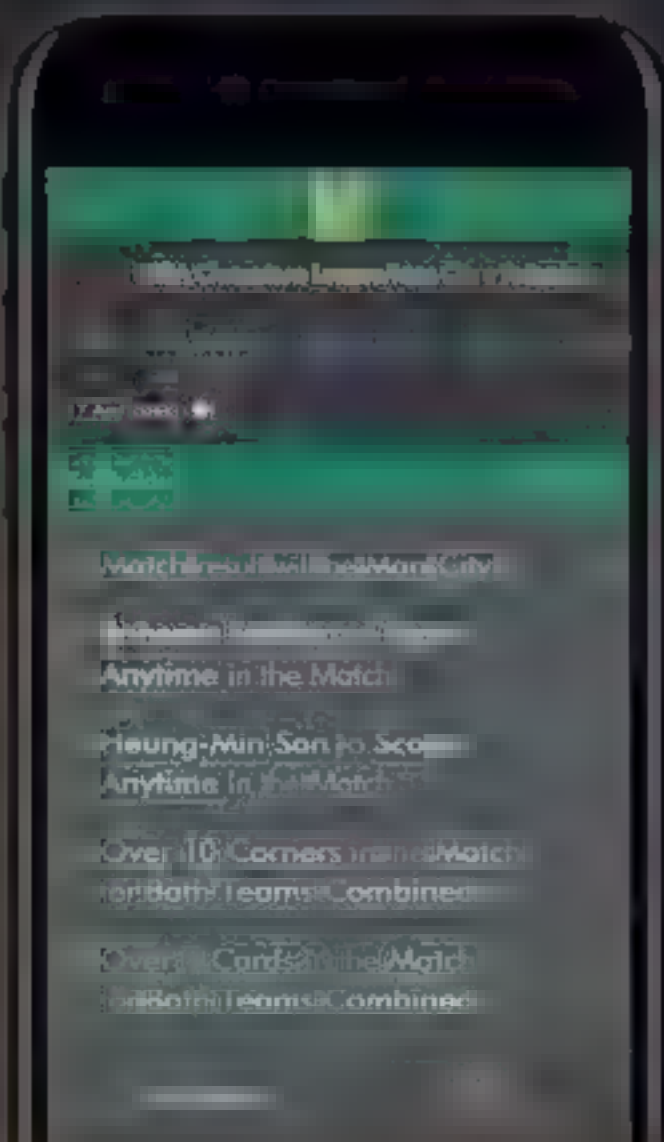

Full Time Result

MAN CITY
TOTTENHAM
DRAW

Goalscorer

MAN CITY
TOTTENHAM

Score First
RAHEEM STERLING
HEUNG-MIN SON

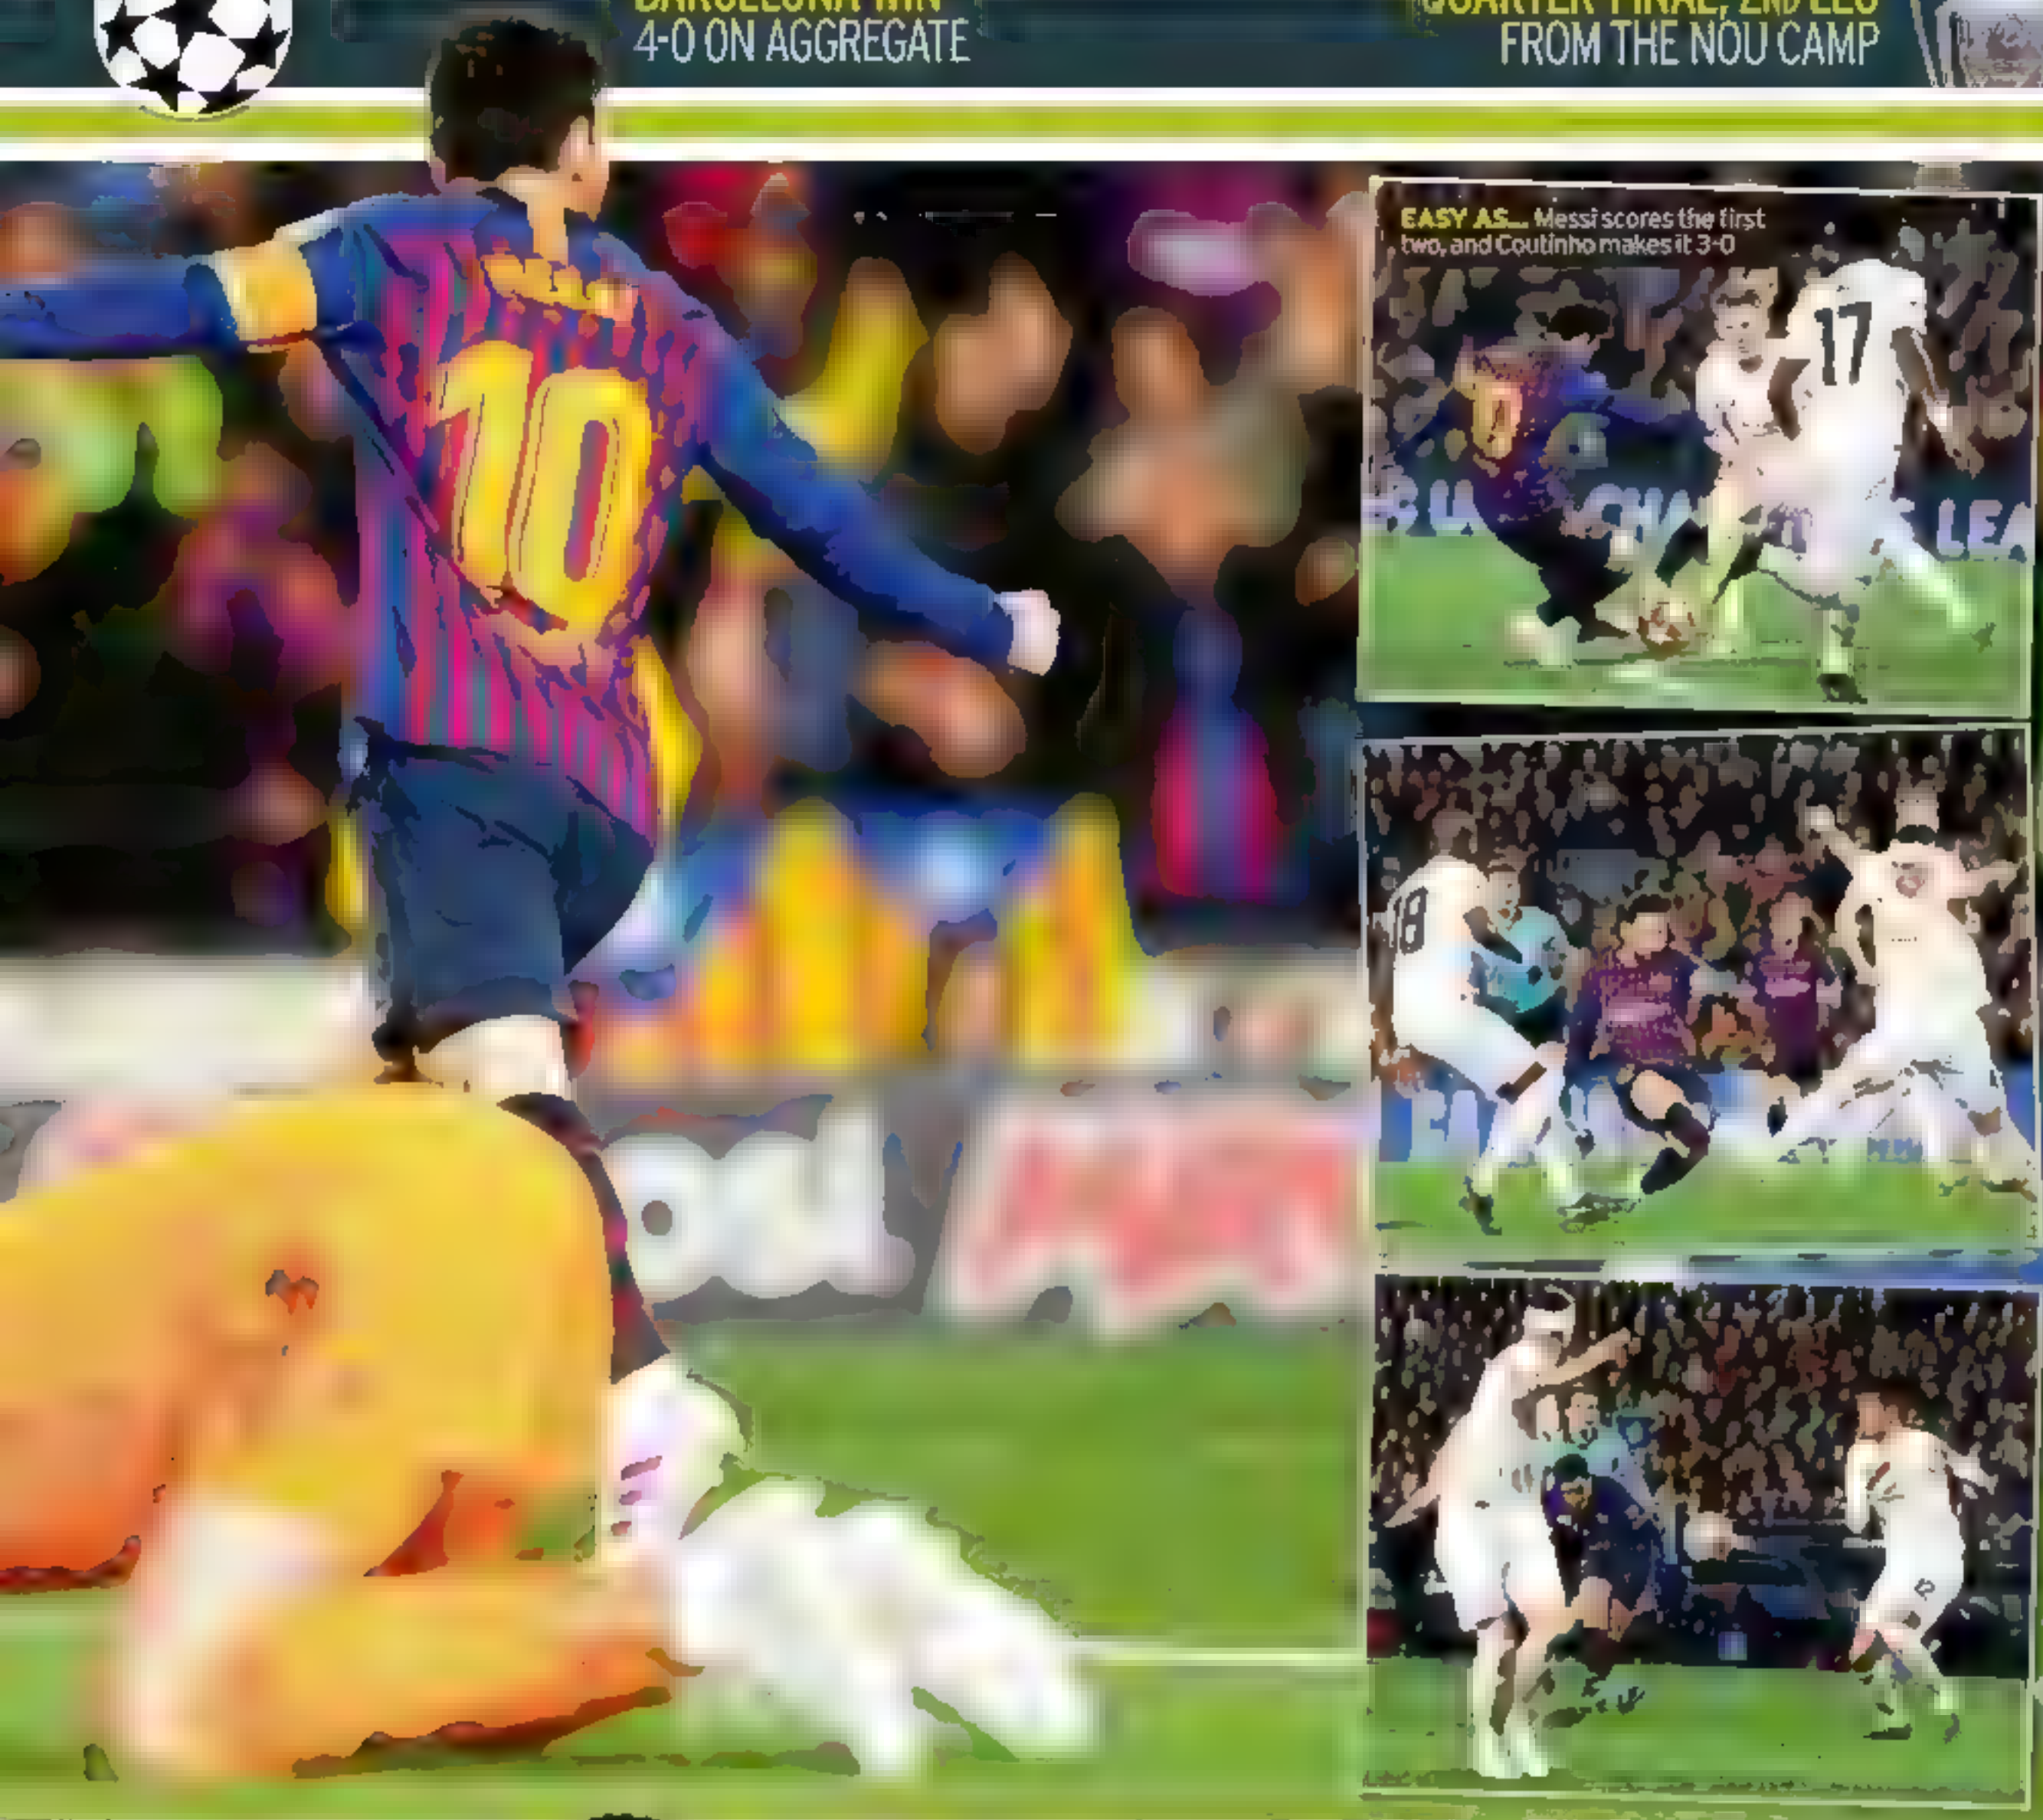

Enjoy gambling responsibly. BeGambleAware.org 18+

Need Help? Call the National Helpline free on 0800 600 0133. View conditions and all our offers at www.bet365.com. 14+ Only. A maximum of six pre-match or In-Play markets from a single match can be included in a Bet Builder bet. Cannot be combined with other Bet Builder bets or other betting opportunities and will be placed as a single bet only. If any selections are void/pushed, the entire Bet Builder bet will be void/pushed. Cash Out and Edit Bet restrictions & other conditions apply. Full Time Result, Goalscorer, Corners & Cards markets 90 minutes play only. All prices subject to fluctuation.

BARCELONA WIN
4-0 ON AGGREGATE

QUARTER-FINAL, 2ND LEG
FROM THE NOU CAMP

EASY AS... Messi scores the first two, and Coutinho makes it 3-0

ONE team had Messi, the other simply was messy.

Manchester United were handed a brutal reality check here, a sobering reminder of just how far they have fallen behind Europe's elite.

And this result underlines the size of the rebuilding job facing Ole Gunnar Solskjaer, one that proved beyond his three predecessors.

United need a radical overhaul this summer, if they are to have any hope of sitting back at Europe's top table any time soon, with the likes of Lionel Messi-inspired Barcelona.

Solskjaer needs a major clear-out of players who have stayed on too long at United, with skipper Ashley Young – at fault for the first goal after 16 minutes – among those who are past their sell-by date.

Young may have been the culprit for the opener, his over-elaboration on the ball proving costly, but it was David de Gea – well below his best this season – who was to blame for Messi's second of the night.

Even though his midfield

DAVID McDONNELL

and defence left him exposed, by allowing Messi to slalom his way into a shooting position. De Gea had no one to blame but himself for letting a tame shot squirm under his body and into the net.

De Gea has one year left on his contract and has yet to agree an extension, with United adamant they will not be forced to sell him this summer, even if he does not sign a new deal before next season.

But after his howler last night, which came at the tail end of a season in which the 28-year-old has lost his aura of invincibility, United could do worse than cash in on De Gea, with Real Madrid ready and waiting. The keeper may have produced a fine reaction save at point-blank range to deny Sergi Roberto after, but it was too little, too late, with the tie beyond United at that stage, thanks to his earlier gaffe.

Then there is the Paul Pogba conundrum. Jose Mourinho tried and failed to get the best out of United's club-record £89million signing, and Solskjaer (left), after witnessing the France World Cup winner flourish when he arrived, is facing the same issue.

Real have begun their charm offensive to lure Pogba this summer, which has coincided with the 26-year-old's sudden loss of form. From eight goals and six assists in his first 10 games under Solskjaer, to three goals – two from the penalty spot – and a solitary assist in his subsequent 10, Pogba seems to be doing his level best to seal a summer exit.

If ever a moment summed up the self-indulgence that so often undermines Pogba's prodigious talent, it came in the eighth minute, when he tried an audacious chip over Marc-Andre ter Stegen from 50 yards, the failed effort drawing howls of derision from the Nou Camp crowd.

United have spent around £725m on players since Sir Alex Ferguson stepped down in 2013. Spending £52m on Fred, hopelessly outclassed last night, was yet more evidence of why United need a director of football to oversee a strategic recruitment policy. The signing of Alexis Sanchez, on £500,000 a week, was another monumental misjudgment.

Throwing money around in the haphazard way United have in recent years has, unsurprisingly, not worked, with the Europa League, FA Cup and League Cup the only trophies to show for six years of turmoil at a club that once prided itself on continuity and stability.

Barca's third goal – courtesy of former Liverpool star Philippe Coutinho – only served to rub salt in United's wounds. The big prizes have eluded them in the six years since Ferguson left, and will continue to do so.

Against that backdrop, Solskjaer has it all to do to take his Red Devils back to the top.

De Ligt as Ajax crush Ron & Co

Juventus 1 Ajax 2
Ajax win 3-2 on agg

MATTHIJUS DE LIGT'S thumping header stunned Juventus as Ajax claimed a second famous scalp.

The Dutch teenager (above) rose between two defenders midway through the second half to power home a downward header.

It added Juve to Real Madrid as their Champions League victims this campaign – and set up a semi-final clash with either Manchester City or Spurs.

Ronaldo put Juve in front midway through the first half when he stole in to convert a Miralem Pjanic corner with a bullet header.

But the advantage lasted just six minutes before Donny van de Beek levelled.

Hakim Ziyech tried his luck from the edge of the box only for his shot to be blocked. It rolled straight to Van de Beek, who steered it low into the far corner.

Ajax grew in confidence after the break before De Ligt scored to leave Juve needing two to go through.

RESULTS & FIXTURES

FOOTBALL
UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE
Quarter-Final 2nd Leg
BARCELONA (2) 3 MAN UTD (0) 0
Messi 16, 20 95,708
Coutinho 61

(Barcelona won 4-0 on agg)
JUVENTUS (1) 1 AJAX (1) 2
Ronaldo 26 Van de Beek 54
De Ligt 67

(Ajax won 3-2 on agg)
PREMIER LEAGUE
BRIGHTON (0) 0 CARDIFF (1) 2
30,226 Mendez-Laing 11
Morrison 11

SCOTTISH CHAMPIONSHIP
MORTON (2) 2 INVERNESS (1) 2
Lyon 11 McDonald 18
Kilnie pen 42 McCauley 11
1,315

VANARAMA NORTH
Alltrincham 1 Brackley 2
VANARAMA SOUTH
Truro 1 Concord Rangers 3

EVO-STIK SOUTH
Beaconsfield 1 Merthyr 1
TENNIS

ATP MONTE-CARLO MASTERS,
Monaco, 1st Round (selected)
C Norrie (GBR) vs A Mannarino
(FRA) 6-4 6-3

2nd Round (selected)
G Pella (ARG) vs (7) M Cilic (CRO)
6-3 5-7 6-1, (1) N Djokovic (SRB) bt
P Kohlschreiber (GER) 6-3 4-6 6-4

TODAY'S FIXTURES
FOOTBALL
UEFA Champions League
Quarter-Final 2nd Leg
FC Porto vs Liverpool (8, agg 0-2)
Man City vs Tottenham (8, agg 0-1)

CRICKET
Royal London One-Day Cup
Group A
Riverside: Durham vs Northants (11)
Old Trafford: Lancs vs Worcs (11)
Headingley: Yorks vs Leics (11)
Group B
SWALEC: Glamorgan vs Essex (11)
Bristol: Gloucs vs Surrey (11)
Canterbury: Kent vs Hants (11)

BARCELONA 3

Messi 16, 20 Coutinho 61

MANCHESTER UNITED 0BARCELONA WIN
4-0 ON AGGREGATE

GENIUS MESSI IS TWO GOOD

Barca legend lives up to his 'world's best' status with a double strike

BY JOHN CROSS
Chief Football Writer
@JohnCrossMirror

MIRACLES do not happen twice. And never in the face of such genius.

The night belonged to Lionel Messi, destroying Manchester United with the sort of breathtaking performance which has established him as the greatest player of this and arguably any generation.

Messi's first goal was a thing of beauty, a sensational 20-yard left-foot shot curled into the far corner at a time when United were looking dangerous and a genuine threat. Mind you, that was over pretty quickly.

His second was also a collector's item, too, because it came after a horrible mistake by David De Gea. The keeper is supposedly the best in the world, but he let a tame, routine shot go under his body.

That was it. All over. United showed some heart but are nowhere near being on the same level as a Barcelona team which is supposedly a fading force. But what can you expect when you are asking the likes of Fred and an ageing Ashley Young to try to stop the world's best player?

Paul Pogba (above) looked like a player who did not want to be there but no big club will sign him on this evidence.

It was an embarrassing mismatch at times.

There was never going to be another miracle like 1999 when Ole Gunnar Solskjaer famously got United's stoppage-time winner in the Nou Camp to lift the Champions League and complete the Treble.

The world has changed since then. United look also-and, even though they went for the fairytale option by appointing Solskjaer, they will need a huge overhaul to get back to former glories.

For Barca, while they have Messi then anything is possible.

The five-time Ballon d'Or winner turns 32 in June, shows no signs of slowing down and we should treasure every time he steps onto the pitch.

There was an incredible moment just before half-time. Messi picked up the ball just inside the United half, beat poor old Phil Jones twice, went back and did it again for good measure before then nutmegging him to rub salt in the wounds.

Messi's lay-off then released Jordi Alba, his cross found Sergio Roberto and his shot at the back post was kept out by a desperate block from De Gea as the United keeper sunk to his knees almost praying for mercy.

The cruel thing for United was the hope because they actually started well.

Pogba released Marcus Rashford (below) and the United No.10 crashed a shot against the crossbar inside 40 seconds. Scott McTominay also had a brief sight of goal as United started with real intent.

But the mood changed on 16 minutes, just after Barcelona had rightly been denied a penalty by VAR for a Fred challenge. The reprieve was brief. Young lost possession, Messi seized the initiative, threw a shimmy which wrong-footed Fred and then unleashed a sensational curling left-foot shot into the bottom corner.

It was a great goal but probably not even in Messi's top 10. Five minutes later, it was all over. Messi seized on more United indecision. Fred at fault again, the Barcelona No.10 then stormed forward but did not really catch his shot well. However, it still dribbled under De Gea's body for a cruel second.

Worse was to follow. Barca's former Liverpool star Philippe Coutinho set up a potential semi-final with his old club with a third, a brilliant curling right-foot shot from 20 yards which flew past De Gea and into the top corner after 62 minutes.

There was no stopping them.

MATCH STATS

66%	POSSESSION	34%
6	SHOTS ON TARGET	3
4	SHOTS OFF TARGET	3
8	CORNERS	3
0	OFFSIDE	3
10	FOULS	15
1	CARDS	0
REF: Felix Brych ATT: 96,708

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE
SEMI-FINALS

Tottenham or Man City v Ajax

Barcelona v
Liverpool or Porto

TIPS STRAIGHT FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH

GET THE INSIDE TRACK WITH YOUR

IRISH DAILY
Mirror

QUARTER-FINAL, 2ND LEG FROM THE NOU CAMP

RATINGS BY JOHN CROSS mirror.co.uk/sport/football

BARCELONA

TER STEGEN

Brilliant late save to deny United substitute Sanchez's header

7

ROBERTO

Will still be wondering how he did not score but for De Gea's block

7

PIQUE

Getting better with age. If they win the trophy, he will play a big part

7

LENGLET

Looked uncomfortable with United's early movement and pace

6

ALBA

Fantastic overlapping runs, wonderful asset from left-back. Terrific

8

RAKITIC

Keeps it all ticking over nicely, shows lovely moments of quality

7

BUSQUETS

Perhaps not the player that he was, but still provides brilliant shield

7

ARTHUR

Lovely passing and vision, keeps it simple, but stats always good

7

MESSI

Two goals and every time you watch him is a privilege

9

SUAREZ

Booked Tormenor in attack, set up potential Liverpool reunion

7

COUTINHO

Blimey, if the midfielder is under-achieving... scored a wonder goal

8

SUBS: Samedo (Roberto 75) 6

Vidal (Arthur 75) 6

Dembele (Coutinho 81) 6

MAN UTD

DE GEA

What a howler. And not even the world's best keeper can stop Messi

5

JONES

Given a horrible night by Messi, turned inside out. Couldn't handle it

5

SMALLING

Tried hard, stuck to his task but United defence given the runaround

6

LINDELOF

A surprise choice in a patched-up United defence. Poor

6

YOUNG

These games with Barca might just signal end of United career

4

McTOMINAY

Willing and competitive force in the first leg, but fell short this time

6

FRED

Just not good enough for United. Not even close. Awful display

4

POGBA

Playing like a player who wants to go. Really poor. Let team down

4

LINGARD

Has yet to recapture his best form since returning from injury

6

RASHFORD

Looked the one United player ready to carry a threat to Barcelona

7

MARTIAL

Good early on, cutting in from left, but got lost as the game wore on

6

SUBS: Dalot (Martial 65) 5

Lukaku (Rashford 73) 5

Sanchez (Lingard 80) 5

NOU WAY, OLE

FROM BACK PAGE

could do about Messi's first, after 16 minutes, a virtuoso solo run capped by an unstoppable sweeping finish into the far corner.

But he was left red-faced for Messi's second four minutes later, allowing the Argentina star's shot to squirm under his body and over the line.

Philippe Coutinho hit a third for a 4-0 aggregate win with a stunning long-range effort to compound United's plight and show what a major rebuilding job Solksjaer (below) is facing.

Messi came close to clinching his hat-trick just after the hour, with an overhead kick that flew just wide. So there was no dream return to the Nou Camp for Solksjaer, 20 years after his dramatic late goal clinched the Champions League and the Treble.

Liverpool take on Porto tonight holding a 2-0 first-leg lead, and they will face Barca in the semi-finals if they come through.

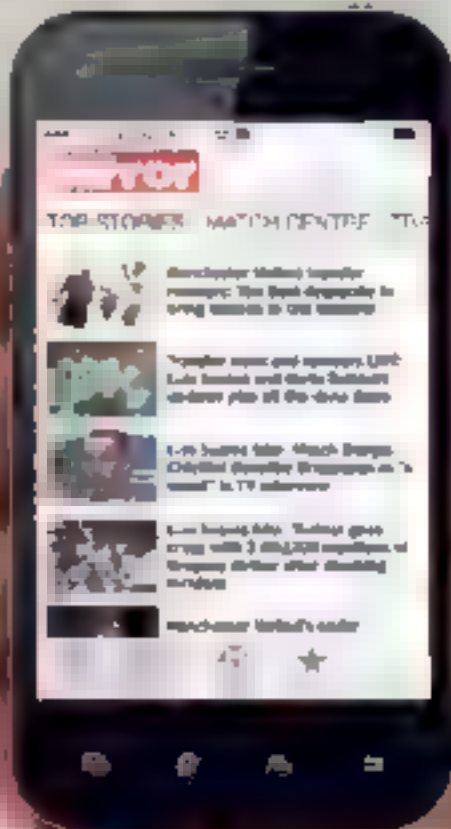

SHOUT OF THIS WORLD
Lionel Messi and Philippe Coutinho celebrate after Messi's brilliant opener

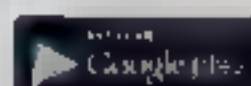

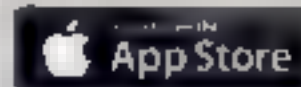

IRISH
Mirror

FREE PHONE APP!

Breaking News | Live Blogs | Latest Sport
Photos and Videos | Latest Showbiz

Scan here now to download www.irishmirror.ie/apps

print | web | mobile

BARCELONA 3 MAN UNITED 0

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE QUARTER-FINAL BARCELONA WIN 4-0 ON AGGREGATE

From DAVID McDONNELL in Barcelona

LIONEL MESSI tormented Manchester United as Ole Gunnar Solskjaer's side were dumped out of the Champions League.

The Barcelona superstar was at his mesmeric best, scoring twice in quick succession to kill off the tie on a night United keeper David De Gea (above and left) will want to forget.

There was nothing De Gea could do. TURN TO PAGE 51

OH NO!!!

Ole's boys sunk by De Gea howler and Messi masterclass
REDS ON THE VIRG OF GREATNESS SEE PAGES 44&45

PEP URGES FANS: RAISE YOUR GAME

Man City v Tottenham (Spurs lead 1-0) Kick-off 8pm

BY ANDY DUNN

PEP GUARDIOLA has called on Manchester City fans to raise their game for the first of three 'finals' in seven days.

The atmosphere at the Etihad has been far from intimidating. TURN TO PAGE 46

HUGHTON WE HAVE A MASSIVE PROBLEM

BRIGHTON 0 CARDIFF 2 SEE PAGE 43

SCHOLES BET PROBE SHOCKER

BY JOHN CROSS

MANCHESTER UNITED legend Paul Scholes has been charged with misconduct by the FA after placing 140 bets on matches.

Scholes was co-owner of Salford City during the period. TURN TO PAGE 45

GARY MURPHY The return of the Master so brilliant for golf

COLUMN: PAGE 37

ANOTHER DAY, ANOTHER FAI MESS

BY PAUL O'HEHIR

THE scandal-hit FAI suffered its most damaging day in living memory yesterday.

But despite the unprecedented carnage, it was claimed that John Delaney (left) will receive full pay from the FAI while on "gardening leave".

FAI president Donal Conway confirmed in a letter to Sports Minister Shane Ross that the entire board will resign before July. Ross (right) said: "Absolutely they are part of the problem. It is imperative. Now we've got a commitment they will step down which they will be held to."

"My preference would be they are not there now but there has to be someone there to start the reforms of corporate governance that they have talked about."

But bigger problems are coming down the tracks for the FAI now that its own auditors have flagged possible breaches of the Companies Act.

In extreme cases there is potential for prison sentences and whopping fines for some of the alleged breaches.

Former FAI CEO Delaney offered to voluntarily step aside from

TURN TO PAGE 42

GARDENING LEAVE John Delaney

Take a break

and get your brain in gear

PUZZLES

BROUGHT TO YOU BY Take a Break's PUZZLE MAGAZINES

Quizword & Crossword

Two sets of clues, two different answers - all on the same grid. Choose one or the other.

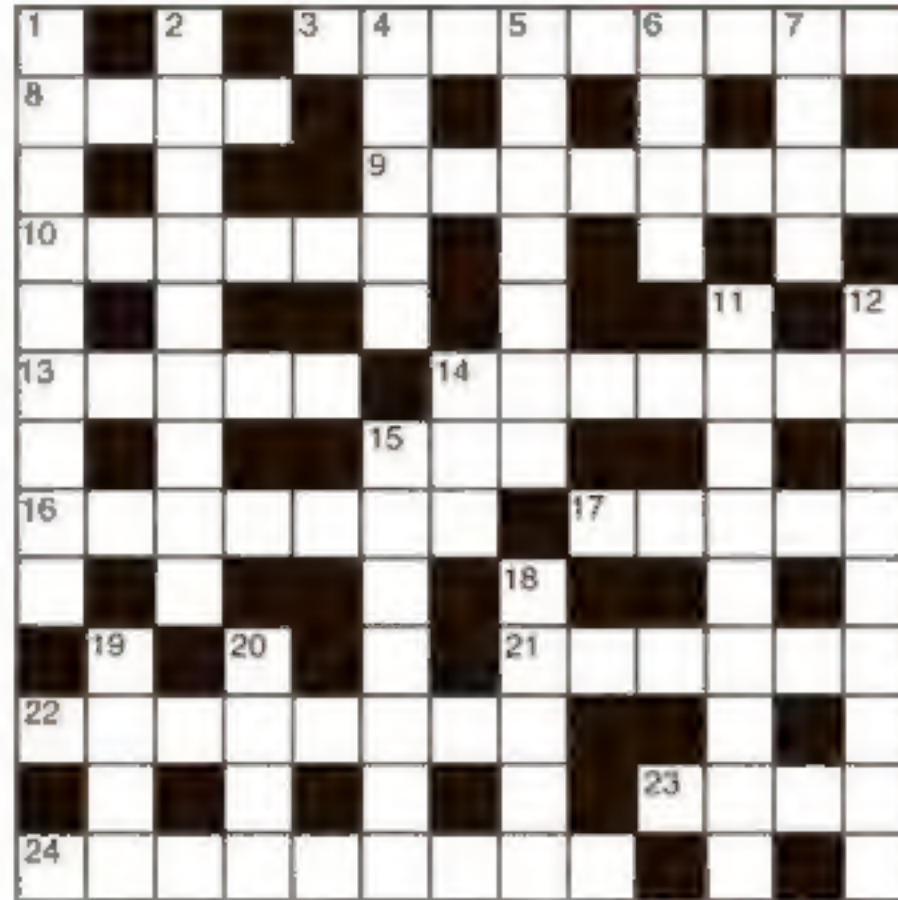

Quizword

ACROSS

- 3 1947 Broadway musical by Lerner and Loewe named after a mysterious Scottish village (9)
6 - Handicap, flat race run at York in August last won by Muntahaa in 2018 (4)
9 See 14 Down
10 2000s BBC TV sitcom starring Ardal O'Hanlon as Thermoman aka George Sunday (2,4)
13 and 15 Personification of the government of the United States (5,3)
14 and 12 Down 2018 comedy-fantasy film starring Lakeith Stanfield and Tessa Thompson (5,2,6,3)
15 See 13 Across
16 British girl group whose 1993 debut album was Always & Forever (7)
17 2015 comedy-drama film starring Michael Caine and Harvey Keitel (5)
21 Unit of weight used for measuring the fineness of silk equal to one gram per 9,000 metres (6)
22 Cecil - Poet Laureate from 1968-72 (3-5)
23 City in Nevada, US, noted as a gambling and divorce centre (4)
24 Kenya-born presenter whose credits include BBC TV series Springwatch and Autumnwatch (5,4)

DOWN

- 1 Chris - Australian rider; 2007 MotoGP Grand Prix de France winner (9)
2 Greek dramatist whose works include Philoctetes and Oedipus at Colonus (9)
4 Cathedral city in North Yorkshire on the River Ure (5)
5 Firstborn son of Moses and Zipporah in the Bible (7)
6 Princess of Tyre in classical mythology who founded Carthage (4)
7 Department in France; capital Beauvais (4)
11 2018-19 Scottish Championship football club managed by Ian McCall (3,6)
12 See 14 Across
14 and 9 Across Narrator of 1957 novel On the Road by Jack Kerouac (3,8)
15 State of Malaysia on Borneo; capital Kuching (7)
18 J T - author of novels Trail Boss and Waco's Debt (5)
19 Hindu goddess of destruction (4)
20 Highest adult male voice (4)

Crossword

ACROSS

- 3 Bold exploit (9)
8 Performs on stage (4)
9 Be like (8)
10 Person living in solitude (6)
13 Stair part (5)
14 Torment (7)
15 Flipper (3)
16 Nine-sided figure (7)
17 Tooth for grinding food (5)
21 Very nearly (6)
22 Draws back (8)
23 Terror (4)
24 Ready to wear (3-3-3)

DOWN

- 1 Assembly (9)
2 Now (2,7)
4 Grubby (5)
5 Fifth Greek letter (7)
6 Measure how long something takes (4)
7 Irritate (4)
11 Powerful vehicle for moving earth (9)
12 District (9)
14 Metallic element (3)
15 Plant greenery (7)
18 Adhesive (5)
19 Red meat (4)
20 Horse's gait (4)

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

CHECK THE SOLUTIONS NOW! CROSSWORD: FULL SOLUTIONS 1550 999 300 (€0.95c/min)
CROSSWORD: 5 CLUES: 1515 999 780 (€1/call) QUIZWORD: FULL SOLUTIONS 1550 999 301 (€0.95c/min)

Two-speed coffeebreak

Two sets of clues - but the answers are the same

Cryptic clues

ACROSS

- 1 Celebrate destiny, say (4)
4 Embrace storage area (4)
6 Tear off at speed (4)
8 Part of Far East (4)
11 The end of the steak? (4)
13 One isn't affected by stress (7)
14 Member of whole group (3)
16 The French girl is permissible (5)
18 Greeting socialist who was taken on (5)
21 Arson solved by sound detection (5)
22 Challenged out of dread (5)
24 Energy savings scheme (3)
25 The fear somehow gets some down (7)
28 Youth of innate energy (4)
30 Thus get attorney a drink (4)
31 Raid failed without water (4)
32 It's expensive, darling (4)
33 Frail for a few days, say (4)

DOWN

- 1 Unexciting apartment (4)
2 Next from both ends (4)
3 She can be heard at Christmas (5)
4 Edge of the marsh (3)
5 Main road is a nuisance (4)
7 Sent away with union songs (5)
9 Odd desire to live (6)
10 Stare wildly at flower (5)
12 Map of esplanade (4)
15 Happy to be told not to start (6)
17 German fodder for animals (5)
19 Attentive to wrong part (4)
20 Put off being freed indefinitely (5)
23 Material mined a new way (5)
24 Walk like a policeman (4)
26 Expect chap will get work (4)
27 Disgusting position (4)
29 Hearsay about organ (3)

Quick clues

ACROSS

- 1 Village event (4)
4 Grasp (4)
6 Scale (4)
8 Region (4)
11 Posterior (4)
13 Suspense (7)
14 Limb (3)
16 Lawful (5)
18 Leased (5)
21 Navigation aid (5)
22 Was brave enough (5)
24 Vigour (3)
25 Plume (7)
28 Adolescent (4)
30 Spritzer ingredient (4)
31 Dry (4)
32 Precious (4)
33 Feeble (4)

DOWN

- 1 Horizontal (4)
2 At that time (4)
3 Festive hymn (5)
4 Border (3)
5 Haul (4)
7 Melodies (5)
9 Dwell (6)
10 Daisy-like bloom (5)
12 Scheme (4)
15 Delighted (6)
17 Farm animals (5)
19 Spellbound (4)
20 Postpone (5)
23 Tough fabric (5)
24 Trudge (4)
26 Aspiration (4)
27 Level of command (4)
29 Listening organ (3)

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

CHECK THE SOLUTIONS NOW!

TWO-SPEED COFFEEBREAK 1550 999 302 (€0.95c/min)

TERMS & CONDITIONS: Calls to all 5 CLUE LINES cost €1/call; to all FULL SOLUTIONS LINES cost €0.95/min max 2 mins. Calls may be subject to the addition of your telephone company's network access charge. Min age 18+. All lines close midnight tonight except where stated. Sld Trinity Mirror Rules apply, see www.mirrort.co.uk/rules. SP JMedia UK Ltd, SW4 7BK, Helpline 0818 286 620.

The name game

Hidden in the grid is the name of a model. Answer the questions, then rearrange the letters corresponding to your answers to fill in the name.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

BOX1: What kind of celestial body is Hale-Bopp?

- Comet (I)
Asteroid (A)
Dwarf planet (W)

BOX2: Which war was the film The Deer Hunter about?

- World War II (M)
Korean War (F)
Vietnam War (R)

BOX3: Who designed the gardens at Blenheim Palace?

- William Kent (M)
Capability Brown (L)
Joseph Paxton (R)

BOX4: Who wrote The Naked Lunch?

- Allen Ginsberg (M)
Jack Kerouac (I)
William S Burroughs (A)

BOX5: Martin Sheen (pictured) played the US president in which TV show?

- The West Wing (E)
Scandal (O)
24 (P)

BOX6: Which Beatles album featured the song Yesterday?

- Please Please Me (S)
Help! (R)
Revolver (D)

BOX7: Who was the author of the Paddington Bear children's books?

- Dodie Smith (W)
A A Milne (G)
Michael Bond (F)

BOX8: What is the currency of Malaysia?

- Baht (H)
Ringgit (A)
Rupiah (L)

BOX9: What was the name of Tom's wife in The Good Life TV series?

- Felicity (C)
Margo (R)
Barbara (E)

BOX10: What is the capital of Greenland?

- Gustavia (K)
Torshavn (Q)
Nuuk (B)

30-sec brain teaser

Boost your brain power with our 30-second test. Start with the number on the left and follow the instructions. Beginners should aim to complete the puzzle in 30 seconds. Intermediates should finish their own puzzle and the Beginner's Challenge. Genius players have 30 seconds to complete their own plus the Intermediate. Good luck! Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

BEGINNER

40 $\div 2$ -19 $\times 6$ $\div 2$ +3 $\times 3$ +9 +28 -27 Answer

INTERMEDIATE

70 $\frac{1}{5}$ OF THIS $\times 4$ $\div 2$ $\frac{5}{6}$ OF THIS $\div 14$ +66 $\div 2$ -67 +5 Answer

GENIUS

69 $\frac{1}{3}$ OF THIS $\times 7$ $\frac{1}{7}$ OF THIS +4 +72 80% OF THIS -30 $\div 2$ +6 Answer

Mirrorgram

Solve our ten-letter anagram below

I	T	A	L	I	C	F	A	I	R

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

EXTRA PAGES!

BROUGHT TO YOU BY Take a Break's PUZZLE MAGAZINES

EXTRA PAGES!

Target
time:
14:44
mins

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

[illegible]

Lines close at midnight Friday ■ April

Calls to 5 CLUE LINES cost 21p/call; to all FULL SOLUTIONS LINES cost 60.95c/min max 2 mins. Calls may be subject to the addition of your telephone company's network access charge. Texts cost £2 each plus one standard rate message. For SMS you may receive details of other related promotional offers and services, if you do not wish to receive these add NOINFO to the end of your text message. Min one 1p. All lines close midnight tonight, except where stated.

PLUTOL AT

- 1 Study of dwarf planets
- 2 Characteristic of rocks derived from magma
- 3 Branch of philosophy concerning truth
- 4 Worship of wealth or material possessions

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

IDM7785

It can be worn under clothing day or night and the unisex design makes it perfect for both men and women.

€42.90 inc. p&p

IDM8778

The build up of moisture and earwax can ultimately stop your hearing aids from working correctly. Simply place your hearing aids into the drying box to be dried and sterilized, a process that will kill 99.9% of germs. No harsh chemicals are involved; just gentle air circulation to aid the drying out process. The dry box is lightweight and is easy to operate; just push the start button.

€74.90 inc. p&p

IDM1270

Shield your eyes from the glare of the sun and improve night vision. The glasses are suitable for both men and women and can be worn over your existing glasses. The HD technology blocks light from both sides for ultimate 100% UV protection.

£29.90 inc. p&p

DM558B

These sunglasses fit over your existing frames so that you can enjoy perfect vision. Unlike traditional clip-ons, they offer advanced 100% UV protection, are polarised to eliminate glare and look just like ordinary sunglasses.

€29.90 inc. p&p

IDM7883

Create silky smooth results every time
1 hour run time from a 2 hour charge, 4.5V, lithium battery, waterproof design Glowing light when in dock (fades in and out)
Includes All-in-1 blade for long and short hair, bikini trimmer and cleaning brush

€39.90 inc. p&p

CALL 01-2962333 OR VISIT www.markettown.ie/mirroroffers
Mirror Offers, Markettown, Unit 18, Churchtown Business Park, Dublin 14

Arrowwords are like crosswords, but the clues are printed inside squares on the grid. Write your answers in the blank squares in the direction indicated by the arrows.

Solutions in tomorrow's
Irish Mirror

Gorman "Mr"	Cutting bonnet	Indulgences	Radio 4 series (3,2)	Sudden and extreme	Justin - singer	Birthmark?
TV star, - Bonanza				Obesity measures (1,1,1)
Fear and Enthusiasm			Maxim
				Tree with uncut leaves
Upstart, evasive debt	Automobile		Film intro, - Maguire
				Out of date	Great!
Charles - art collector	Looms, dated	Purify	Greek island			Angler's bait
			Evaluates	Hay Fever, III		Danger
Maddie	Russian mountain range			Became smugged		Paris river
			Big jump	Upright	Comes to notice	Tell support
Desire for a drink	Army group	US actress, - Fanning			Give in
		Lose your temper? (3,3)				American university
Faithful	Vocal opera	Carried bowls	Federal passport	Digested	Relative	Barbara Streisand film
Leads a hand			Chest muscles (rolling)			Wide awake
			Spackle	Time game try	Captain
Supple	Actor, - D'Amico				Portable light	Brilliant display
						Mermaid piece
			Jerry's cartoon enemy	By itself (3,2)	Oscuro	Malicious
			Book of the Bible	Feel sorrow	Point opposite the south	Tidier
			Banking crisis, - crunch			Conger or moray, III
			Large tank		Remove insertion (from)	Small flop
			Honking dog			Cat or housewife, an

HITOSHI

$20x$	$4+$		$2\div$
	$2\div$	$8+$		$5x$
2		$4+$
$4+$	$5x$	$2\div$	$9+$
			$5+$

The totals given in the areas bounded by bold lines (cages) can be the result of addition, subtraction, multiplication or division. The numbers 1-5 can appear once in every row and column. Note that numbers can be repeated within cages.

Solutions in tomorrow's Irish Mirror

CHECK THE SOLUTIONS NOW! SU-DOKU 5 NUMBER CLUES
1515 999 789 (€1/call) SU-DOKU FULL SOLUTIONS
1550 999 106 (€0.95c/min)

Bingo

Solutions in tomorrow's
Irish Mirror

Solutions in tomorrow's
Irish Mirror

P	E	P	P	E	R	R	I	L	O	C	C	O	R	B
Z	U	C	C	H	I	N	I	D	O	K	R	A	I	P
R	O	A	S	C	O	M	A	N	G	E	T	O	U	T
A	N	L	U	T	A	C	S	T	O	T	A	M	O	T
D	I	E	I	B	O	L	S	P	O	D	P	R	A	O
I	O	L	E	V	E	P	A	P	W	K	R	T	A	R
S	N	A	A	S	E	R	I	B	I	O	T	A	H	H
H	N	K	S	L	S	B	G	N	R	N	R	S	H	A
C	O	U	E	N	U	E	I	I	R	E	A	R	L	C
A	R	E	I	E	D	E	W	S	N	U	S	C	A	L
B	K	P	O	T	A	T	O	E	Q	E	T	E	H	M
B	C	H	I	C	O	R	Y	S	A	L	S	I	F	Y
A	R	T	I	C	H	O	K	E	C	E	L	E	R	Y
G	S	H	A	L	L	O	T	E	C	U	T	T	E	L
E	S	P	R	O	U	T	I	B	A	R	L	H	O	K

[illegible]

1 Groaned,
2 Dragon,
3 Adorn,
4 Road,
5 Ado,
6 Soda,
7 Loads,
8 Dorsal,
9 Ordeals.

ACROSS: Saute, Brace, Piccolo, Leave, Jay, Irk, Duck, Able, Gnu, Son, Mild, Runt, Lop, Hex, Twice, Inquire, Aglow, Bevel.

DOWN: Opt, Agility, Arcs, Dumping, Tropical, Hero, Mojo, Exit, Rely, Boutique, Craziest, Life, Weekend, New.

Beginner 22
Intermediate 31
Genius 266

RUSSELL GRANT

mirror.co.uk/
horoscopes

Aries March 21-April 20

An outgoing friend wants to take you to a fun venue. Despite your apprehension and general reluctance, take them up on this offer and you will have a great time. A new place or activity will turn out to be rather wacky and very entertaining. Social gatherings will be a lot of fun.

For more call 15609032201

Taurus April 21-May 21

Positive communications and social activities will light up your life. You might be thinking about starting up a club devoted to your favourite hobby. But why not spread a little happiness right away by visiting someone who is confined to their home through ill health or because of disability?

For more call 15609032202

Gemini May 22-June 21

Learning about different cultures will be liberating. Taking a cooking class or experimenting with recipes from over the world can be incredibly enjoyable. A chance to work abroad could come about quite suddenly. Teaching English could allow you to get paid for seeing the world.

For more call 15609032203

Cancer June 22-July 23

You intuitively know the right decisions to make. Don't listen to anyone else because you are the one who will recognise the best action to take. It's important for you to take the initiative at the moment because this will stop less capable rivals from receiving the rewards you deserve.

For more call 15609032204

Leo July 24-August 23

You're in need of a little light entertainment. A fun-loving friend will know all the good places to go. They might also suggest some interesting things you can do. A change of scene will provide a welcome distraction from routine responsibilities. Don't be surprised if you feel inspired to make changes.

For more call 15609032205

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23

Planning a reunion will be lots of fun. You will enjoy making reservations and arranging the decorations. If you hear someone discussing a restaurant or meeting place with enthusiasm, think about using this venue for your gathering. It should be fun to catch up with people you haven't seen for years.

For more call 15609032206

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23

Be ready to change plans at a moment's notice. Someone who knows you well will put your name forward for something memorable and spontaneous. Although you will enjoy taking them up on a last-minute offer, you would have preferred to have been given more time to think about it.

For more call 15609032207

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 23

Your assertive nature will allow you to make good progress at work. Enthusiasm for projects needing lots of imagination and creativity will keep your spirits feeling bright. Not only will you be quick to accept a big assignment but you might also be taking on an important role.

For more call 15609032208

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21

It's hard to curb your excitement about some challenges that are ahead. Here's your chance to do something you've always wanted to do, and at the same time to put the past behind you. Some unforeseen developments on the family front will turn out to have long-term implications.

For more call 15609032209

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20

Romance will be delightful. If you are half of a couple, plans you are making together will keep you riveted to each other. Your amour will give you a beautiful token of their affection. If you're on the lookout for love it will be hard to resist the charm of a sweet, sensitive person.

For more call 15609032210

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19

Before getting too excited about a job or volunteer opportunity, think about whether this is right for you. Although venturing into new territory could be refreshing, this will mean you are unable to deliver on pledges already made. You shouldn't jeopardise your reputation by taking on too much.

For more call 15609032211

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20

Joint financial issues need to be discussed. A partner or someone in the family loves to shop on the internet. You may have to hide all bank cards as they may get carried away and end up paying far more than an item is worth on an online auction. But at the end of the day, you need this behaviour to stop.

For more call 15609032212

CARTOONS

ANDY CAPP

PERISHERS

GAG VAULT

GARTH

Baking for Easter BBC Good Food daily recipe to collect

Frosted white chocolate Easter cake

A slice of this madeira-style cake is wonderful with a morning cup of tea or coffee

PREP: 10
MINS
COOK: 1 HR
PLUS COOLING
SERVES 10

250g butter, plus a little extra for greasing
140g white chocolate, broken into pieces
250ml milk
1 tsp vanilla extract
250g self-raising flour
1/2 tsp bicarb of soda
300g caster sugar
2 large eggs, lightly beaten
For the frosting
300g tub Philadelphia cheese
85g butter, softened
100g icing sugar, sifted
mini eggs to decorate (or use 50g/2oz chopped hazelnuts)

1 Heat oven to 160C/fan 140C/gas 3. Grease a deep 23cm cake tin and line the base with greaseproof paper. Place the butter, white chocolate, milk and vanilla extract in a small saucepan then heat gently, stirring, until melted. Combine the flour, bicarb and sugar in a large bowl with a pinch of salt, then stir in the melted ingredients and eggs until smooth. Pour the batter into the tin, then bake for 1 hr, or until the cake is golden and a skewer inserted into the centre comes out clean. Cool in the tin. Once cool, the cake can be wrapped in clingfilm and foil, then frozen for up to 1 month.

2 To make the frosting, beat together the Philadelphia, butter and icing sugar until smooth. Spread over the cake, then decorate with mini eggs.

TOMORROW'S RECIPE: TRIPLE CHOCOLATE COOKIES

The Spirit Sisters

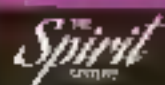

Call our team of Psychics

BY PHONE BILL
1570 923 215

10p/min from an Ex-Gratia landline. Other networks and mobiles may be more.

CALL & PAY BY CARD
(01) 554 1915

10p/min / 20p/min. Calls charged at standard network rate.

All calls recorded. 18+ Entertainment purposes only. You must be the bill payer or have the bill payer's permission. We may send free promotional messages. Allstar Psychics. Helpdesk: info@allstarpsychics.co.uk